Women's Club Foods Group Luncheon Held

The Foods group of the College Women's Social club met for a luncheon Friday at the A&M Christian church.

The members were greeted by the hostess, Mrs. H. W. Gooding, and given colored place cards for their tables.

The main table from which the meal was served was covered with a white damask banquet cloth, and centered with an arrangement of driftwood and cosmos.

A short business meeting, presided over by Mrs. C. F. Richardson, president, followed the luncheon.

The president introduced Mrs. Jack CoVan and Mrs. Homer Rea, who were co-chairman for the meeting. Their committee included Mesdames E. N. Pianta, H. E. Hampton, L. R. Richardson, C. R. Barth, W. E. Briles and H. W. Gooding.

Mrs. Richardson then introduced the new officers for the year, Mrs. I. G. Adams, program chairman; Mrs. S. T. Keim, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Barlin Nelson, reporter; and Mrs. L. S. O'Bannon, membership chairman.

Shirley Brown Named CHS Homecoming Queen

Shirley Brown, sophomore student, was presented as the first annual A&M Consolidated high school homecoming queen during half-time festivities at the Consolidated-Waelder game.

She rode onto the field in an open convertible and was presented a corsage and a crown by representatives of the junior class, sponsors of the contest. She received a football autographed by the team members and the coach.

The queen contest was a money-raising affair for the junior-senior banquet. About $65 was raised toward the banquet.

Jars for money were placed at business locations around College Station and in the school building.

No Injuries

Ellis passed to Bennie Sinclair down the middle for 15, but a pass to Connie Magouirk lost 2. Ellis skirted right end on a keeper for 10 and Kachtik bulled over guard for 4. Ellis was thrown for an 8 yard loss and the ball rested on the TCU 42.

Kachtik Scores
Noting that Frog linemen were charging straight in, Ellis called the same option play and handed off to Kachtik as he drifted back, and Kachtik hit the center of the line, found a good hole there and brushed aside tacklers as he rumbled 42 yards for the score. Eric Miller converted to make it 14-0. The first half ended without other serious scoring threats by either team.

The Horned Frogs moved inside the Aggie 10 in the third quarter and had a first and goal on the 9, but great Aggie line play stopped them on the 1 and A&M took over. The score remained 14-0 going into the final period.

Frogs Tally On Passes
TCU started on its 38 early in the fourth quarter and in 6 plays that included 4 completed passes and a pass interference penalty, covered 62 yards for a score. Ray McKown passed 22 yards to end Don Sanford for the touchdown.

Later in the period, Sinclair intercepted a McKown pass on the TCU 48 and ran it to the Frog 23. Joe Schero rammed right guard for 5 and Kachtik hit center for 5 more to put the ball on the 13.

Ellis went off left tackle on a keeper for 5, then a 7 yard pass to Bill Schroeder carried to the 1, and Ellis sneaked over for the touchdown. Kettler missed on the point after and the score remained 20-7.

The game ended a few plays later after Ellis intercepted a Frog pass and the Aggies chose to run out the clock.

LATEST BULLETIN
Brand-new national survey shows college students prefer Luckies
Last year a survey was made in leading colleges throughout the country which showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette. This year another nation-wide survey was made—a representative survey of all students in regular colleges coast to coast. Based on thousands of actual student interviews—this survey shows that, as last year, Luckies lead again—lead over all other brands, regular or king-size—and by a wide margin! The reason: Luckies taste better.
