The story of the PALMS

There were hundreds of trees along the Bethany Road. But no one noticed them. People were hastening over those last few miles, bound for Jerusalem to celebrate the feast.

Then the King passed by! A gentle Galilean with kind, sorrowful eyes—riding to his coronation.

People cheered and shouted Hosanna. Some laid their cloaks on the dusty roadway. And then, someone discovered the trees... beautiful palms that had stood unnoticed. Their graceful branches became the carpet of the King!

And when men sought a name for that triumphal Sunday, they named it for the palms. It is a day for discovering the spiritual beauty God has planted along the road of life—a day to worship Our King.

Applied Mechanics Is Subject of Talk

Dr. M. V. Barton of the University of Texas will speak to a group of professors, and undergraduate and graduate students here on applied mechanics.

The first in a series of applied mechanics discussions the talk will be Friday at 3:45 p. m. in the Biological Science building lecture room.

Dr. Barton is a member of the UT engineering mechanics department.

The need for a discussion of this kind was first recognized by H. N. Abramson, Professor of aeronautical engineering. According to him, there were people in different departments of the college who had mutual problems of interest dealing with applied mechanics, but who had no common ground on which to meet for discussion.

Persons in various departments were interested in mechanics because it is a science which deals not only with engineering, but also mathematics, physics and oceanography.

Through the cooperation of the departments, a committee was formed with Abramson as chairman.

This committee decided that a series of monthly discussions should be held, with speakers to present highlights of mechanics preceding discussion.

Registrars office and try to get a ring. If you want to continue to live on your laurels of military life I suggest that you go back in. There is always room there for one more hero. And just in case you want to know "just who in the heck he thinks he is" I will gladly tell you. I spent from '45 to '48, and from '50 to '51 in the service and I would like to forget that part of my life rather than to keep it alive from day to day.

I believe that anyone of you that are against the seating arrangement now will be wholeheartedly in favor of it when you become Juniors and Seniors and have to sit in the end zone because some underclassmen that gets there before breakfast has taken your seat.
