

Gen. Moore Award Changes Will Go To Executive Group

The Executive committee will decide Tuesday on a new method for awarding the Gen. George F. Moore trophy, given each year to the outstanding unit in the cadet corps. The awarding of the trophy has been evaluated by a six-man student committee, which recommended that grades be given less value in the awarding of the trophy. The committee also changed some of the points given for extra-curricular activities. The recommendation of the committee is to count grades 40 per cent of the total, military proficiency 25 per cent, intramurals 20 per cent, and extra-curricular activities 15 per cent.

First Town Hall Will Have Two Performances

There will be two performances of the first Town Hall program, "The American Album of Familiar Music," because of the limited seating capacity of Guion Hall, according to John Akard, Town Hall manager.

Students who hold Town Hall cards can get tickets for either performance by presenting their cards at the student activities office or at Duncan and Sbisas dining halls after the evening meal on Monday, Nov. 16.

The first of six Town Hall programs for this year "The American Album of Familiar Music" will present music for every one's taste, Akard said.

Such songs as "On the Road to Mandalay," "Warsaw Concerto," "There is Nothin' Like a Dame," "I Believe" and "Old Man River" will be featured.

Soloists for the program are Vivian Della Chiesa, soprano; Earl William, tenor; Michael Roberts, baritone; and Ernest Ulmer, pianist.

Gustave Haenschen is musical director and conductor of the program. The concert will be similar to the program given over the radio by the same group under the same name.

Film Club To Show Three Foreign Films

The A&M Film Society plans to show three foreign language films next semester. These films are part of the society's program this year which includes 11 Hollywood productions.

Tickets are on sale at the main desk of the Memorial Student Center and in the Office of Student Activities. Price is one dollar.

Titles of the foreign films and their screening dates will be announced later, said Jerry Bennett, film society president.

The film society will bring back "The Charge of the Light Brigade" on Dec. 13. The film first was shown here Oct. 26.

Since the film society was late in announcing the show's date, few ticket holders attended. Bennett said the Film society wished to apologize for its neglect and hoped everyone could attend the Dec. 13 showing.

Weather Today

Clear to partly cloudy today. Increasing cloudiness tonight with possible light rain and fog. Temperatures will remain about the same. High yesterday 69. Low this morning 50.

Needs Approval
The recommended change has to be approved by the Executive committee before it can go into effect. The Executive committee is composed of the deans of the school and the commandant.

Decreased Points
As part of the evaluation, the committee recommended the following extra-curricular activity point decreases:

Band members, from two to one; Aggieland orchestra members, from two points to none; Who's Who selections, from two points to none.

They recommended increases for student senators, from two points to three; and student senate officers, from three to four.

They recommended that the following activities be added to the list:

Vice presidents and secretaries of technical societies, with one point; members of the student councils in each school of the college, with one point; home town club presidents, with one point.

The points for Memorial Student Center students workers were revised to read MSC president, five points; MSC vice-president, four points; MSC council members, three points; and MSC directorate members, three points.

MONSOON SEASON—Paul R. Bassett, freshman from Suffern, N.Y., gets his first taste of typical Brazos valley weather. He had to learn that students are expected to go to class, in spite of the puddles and clinging mud. He needn't bother to look up. Even if it clears, the rain will be back soon.

Fire Roasts 150 Peanuts In MSC

A conflagration in the Memorial Center Tuesday caused the loss of approximately 150 peanuts.

The peanut machine in the MSC bowling alley caught fire, resulting in the loss of the peanuts. Only a few peanuts were salvaged.

The fire was put out with two soft-drink bottles full of water. The fire was reportedly caused by overheating of the peanuts.

Corps Trip Route of March Picked Monday

Route of march for the Houston corps trip parade was selected Monday by representatives of the college meeting with Tom Sawyer, Houston traffic chief.

A&M personnel who made the trip were Fred Mitchell, corps commander; Roy Sullivan, corps operations officer; Dick Porter, band commander; and Lt. Col. Taylor Wilkins, assistant commandant.

The corps will form on Bell street. At 10 a. m. the parade will start up Main to Texas Ave., turn right on Texas and march down Fannin. The parade will be 19 blocks long.

The reviewing stand will be on the northeast corner of Main and Rusk, and the band will be across the street on Rusk.

Uniform for the parade will be class A winter with white gloves. Seniors will wear green caps.

A&M headquarters for the corps trip will be in the Rice hotel.

Society Appoints Jones Director

Dr. Luther Jones of College Station has been appointed a state director of the Texas Society for Crippled Children. He will represent the southeast Texas region.

The directors are in charge of allotting the society's funds. Jones is president of the Brazos and Robertson counties Crippled Children's society.

News Briefs

FIVE HUNDRED and thirty four county agents are attending in the MSC the 50th anniversary year meeting of the statewide membership of the Agricultural extension service. The meeting started Monday and ends Friday. Also attending are the 99 members of the extension staff.

TSCW former students here with home demonstration agents from all over the state will have a banquet at 7 tonight in the MSC ballroom. Most of the demonstration agents here are former students of TSCW.

THERE ARE between 2,400 and 2,600 registered automobiles on the campus this year, an increase of 200 since last year, according to Fred Hickman, chief of campus security.

DR. WELCOME E. Wright, industrial education department, will speak at the annual conferences of the American Vocational Association and the National Association of Industrial Teacher Educators. The conferences will meet Nov. 22-28 in Chicago.

THE SQUARE D company has selected three A&M seniors to tour their plant and home office in Detroit. The seniors are H. L. Mc-

Adams, William L. Nix and William Enst.

A TALK on applying meteorology to animal husbandry and a talk on a Japanese agricultural research institute will be given at the Nov. 6 meeting of the College Station branch of the American Meteorological society at 7:45 p. m. in room 107, Biological Sciences building.

W. B. CALLAN, president of the Victoria National Bank, Victoria, will discuss the Texas livestock situation and outlook at the third annual Texas Farm and Ranch Credit School for Commercial Bankers here Dec. 6-9.

A. L. KRAMER, a supervisor trainer with the Engineering Extension service, is preparing a series of supervisor training courses for the highway chapter of the Associated General Contractors association.

THE ELECTRICAL engineering department will sponsor here a short course for electrical metermen, Nov. 9-13. Norman F. Rode of that department will be chairman. About 150 persons are expected.

R. F. MATTHEWS, a supervisor

Mitchell Students Lose Over $70 to Sneak Thief

How About The Hotdogs And Steaks?

Sammy Kaye and his band have never been to A&M before, but they're going to be well prepared when they get here. They will play for a dance in Sbisas hall Nov. 25, the night of the bonfire before the A&M-Texas game. When Kaye asked why the dance wasn't scheduled until 9:30 that night, he was told about the bonfire and was invited to come. "Fine," he accepted. "I'll bring my own marshmallows."

Well-Planned Theft Executed by Robber

Seven students in Mitchell hall were robbed early Wednesday morning of from $70 to $80 by a sneak thief. All seven men lived on the second floor of the dormitory in the northwest corner of the building. The thief entered the rooms of students who were asleep and quietly picked their wallets. None of the students in the robbed rooms was awakened by the burglar as he made his rounds. Apparently, said Tom Dunagan, who lost between $7 and $8, the thief entered by the south stairway and worked his way up the west end of the dorm to the north. The thief was discovered by Charles Salmon, Corpus Christi junior.

Speakers Selected For '54 RE Week

Speakers for Religious Emphasis week have been selected. They are headed by Dr. Louis H. Evans of the First Presbyterian church in Hollywood, Calif.

The list of speakers for Religious Emphasis week of 1954 is as follows:

Convocation Speaker, Dr. Evans, Carl Spain of Houston, Dr. Hayden Edwards of Fort Worth, Dr. Sidney Hamilton of North Texas State college, Rev. Luther Holcomb of Dallas, Robert G. Gordon of the University of Texas.

Dr. A. G. Weideranders of Seguin, Dr. Edward H. Johnson of New York city, Dr. John W. Pritts of Rice Institute and the University of Houston, Rev. Everett Seale of Beeville.

Rev. Hubert Hopper of Houston, Rev. Bruce McIver of San Marcos, Rev. Harold G. Brown of Dallas, Rabbi Milton Rosenbaum of Fort Worth and Lt. Col. V. M. Goodhand, office of air force chaplains, Washington, D. C.

Bishop John E. Hines, assistant Episcopal bishop of Texas, will head the program in 1955. Hines is from Austin.

The first Religious Emphasis week was held in 1942. The purpose was to have one week each year dedicated to religion to stimulate interest in local churches.

Dr. George W. Truett was the leader for the first RE week. The rest of the program was made up by the churches, each of which had its own guest leader.

Dr. Paul Quillian was leader in 1942. There were no RE weeks held from 1942 through 1945 because of the speed-up program at A&M during World War II.

1950 was the first year classes were suspended for the morning meetings. Prior to that year, classes were let out early.

The first year in which more than one leader came from outside the campus was 1951. In that year, men came to be leaders in individual dormitories.

Since then, there have been 12 or more men invited to RE week. They have been counselors for the dormitories in which they lived while staying on the campus.

Religious Emphasis week is jointly sponsored by the YMCA and the Inter-Faith council. The council is a special Y group composed of two men from each church or religious group at A&M.

U of A Offers To Explain Innocence

The president of the Arkansas university student body has offered to send a representative to A&M to explain that Arkansas students were not responsible for cadets being evicted from their stadium seats last Saturday in Little Rock.

Jerry Green yesterday telephoned Ide P. Trotter, president of A&M's student senate, and said he would like to send a representative to speak to the A&M student body.

Trotter told Green he did not think this would be necessary because he believed Aggies didn't blame Arkansas' students.

However, Trotter said he would present Green's offer to the student senate at tonight's meeting.

Speakers Selected For '54 RE Week

Speakers for Religious Emphasis week have been selected. They are headed by Dr. Louis H. Evans of the First Presbyterian church in Hollywood, Calif.

The list of speakers for Religious Emphasis week of 1954 is as follows:

Convocation Speaker, Dr. Evans, Carl Spain of Houston, Dr. Hayden Edwards of Fort Worth, Dr. Sidney Hamilton of North Texas State college, Rev. Luther Holcomb of Dallas, Robert G. Gordon of the University of Texas.

Dr. A. G. Weideranders of Seguin, Dr. Edward H. Johnson of New York city, Dr. John W. Pritts of Rice Institute and the University of Houston, Rev. Everett Seale of Beeville.

Rev. Hubert Hopper of Houston, Rev. Bruce McIver of San Marcos, Rev. Harold G. Brown of Dallas, Rabbi Milton Rosenbaum of Fort Worth and Lt. Col. V. M. Goodhand, office of air force chaplains, Washington, D. C.

Bishop John E. Hines, assistant Episcopal bishop of Texas, will head the program in 1955. Hines is from Austin.

The first Religious Emphasis week was held in 1942. The purpose was to have one week each year dedicated to religion to stimulate interest in local churches.

Dr. George W. Truett was the leader for the first RE week. The rest of the program was made up by the churches, each of which had its own guest leader.

Dr. Paul Quillian was leader in 1942. There were no RE weeks held from 1942 through 1945 because of the speed-up program at A&M during World War II.

1950 was the first year classes were suspended for the morning meetings. Prior to that year, classes were let out early.

The first year in which more than one leader came from outside the campus was 1951. In that year, men came to be leaders in individual dormitories.

Since then, there have been 12 or more men invited to RE week. They have been counselors for the dormitories in which they lived while staying on the campus.

Religious Emphasis week is jointly sponsored by the YMCA and the Inter-Faith council. The council is a special Y group composed of two men from each church or religious group at A&M.

Fish to Choose Class Yell Leaders

Five freshmen yell leaders will be chosen from a field of 16 candidates in the November election of class officers.

The 16 cadets now alternate, letting five men serve at each freshman football game. Each candidate gets a chance to lead the freshmen in yells and the freshmen get to see the candidates in action.

The yell leader nominees are J. E. Spencer, J. C. Durbin, R. P. Brentz, W. L. Rains, S. B. Crockett, R. A. Portier, R. T. Bernard.

T. A. Krauel, J. E. Clary, J. B. Rowland, J. R. McLarry, C. W. Jenkins, D. W. Graul, D. A. Weber, J. F. Heard and G. D. Hattox.

Speakers Selected For '54 RE Week

Speakers for Religious Emphasis week have been selected. They are headed by Dr. Louis H. Evans of the First Presbyterian church in Hollywood, Calif.

The list of speakers for Religious Emphasis week of 1954 is as follows:

Convocation Speaker, Dr. Evans, Carl Spain of Houston, Dr. Hayden Edwards of Fort Worth, Dr. Sidney Hamilton of North Texas State college, Rev. Luther Holcomb of Dallas, Robert G. Gordon of the University of Texas.

Dr. A. G. Weideranders of Seguin, Dr. Edward H. Johnson of New York city, Dr. John W. Pritts of Rice Institute and the University of Houston, Rev. Everett Seale of Beeville.

Rev. Hubert Hopper of Houston, Rev. Bruce McIver of San Marcos, Rev. Harold G. Brown of Dallas, Rabbi Milton Rosenbaum of Fort Worth and Lt. Col. V. M. Goodhand, office of air force chaplains, Washington, D. C.

Bishop John E. Hines, assistant Episcopal bishop of Texas, will head the program in 1955. Hines is from Austin.

The first Religious Emphasis week was held in 1942. The purpose was to have one week each year dedicated to religion to stimulate interest in local churches.

Dr. George W. Truett was the leader for the first RE week. The rest of the program was made up by the churches, each of which had its own guest leader.

Dr. Paul Quillian was leader in 1942. There were no RE weeks held from 1942 through 1945 because of the speed-up program at A&M during World War II.

1950 was the first year classes were suspended for the morning meetings. Prior to that year, classes were let out early.

The first year in which more than one leader came from outside the campus was 1951. In that year, men came to be leaders in individual dormitories.

Since then, there have been 12 or more men invited to RE week. They have been counselors for the dormitories in which they lived while staying on the campus.

Religious Emphasis week is jointly sponsored by the YMCA and the Inter-Faith council. The council is a special Y group composed of two men from each church or religious group at A&M.

Fish to Choose Class Yell Leaders

Five freshmen yell leaders will be chosen from a field of 16 candidates in the November election of class officers.

The 16 cadets now alternate, letting five men serve at each freshman football game. Each candidate gets a chance to lead the freshmen in yells and the freshmen get to see the candidates in action.

The yell leader nominees are J. E. Spencer, J. C. Durbin, R. P. Brentz, W. L. Rains, S. B. Crockett, R. A. Portier, R. T. Bernard.

T. A. Krauel, J. E. Clary, J. B. Rowland, J. R. McLarry, C. W. Jenkins, D. W. Graul, D. A. Weber, J. F. Heard and G. D. Hattox.

Non-Dorm Students May Give Blood

Any person not living in a college dormitory who wishes to give a pint of blood Nov. 18 should call 4-5014 immediately for a schedule and information, said Bill Reed, blood drive chairman.

Schedules and permission slips for dormitory students may be obtained from the organization commander or housemaster.

Persons under 21 must have permission from their parents to give blood.

Kiwanians to Sell Box Lunches at Game

Box lunches will be sold before the A&M-SMU game this weekend by the Kiwanis club College Station.

Three hundred lunches will be for sale by club members at various points on the highways around the Campus.

The proceeds will be used to help school children and crippled children in the College Station-Bryan area.