

Garden Club Hears Flower Authority

Mrs. Earl B. White of Meridian, nationally accredited authority for flower show schools, will speak to the A&M Garden club school of flower arrangements at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Friday in the lecture room of the Petroleum building.

For the 2:30 lecture Mrs. White's topic is "Flower Arranging Through the Ages". She will show how the principles of period arrangements can be found in modern arrangements, and will point out several in arrangements that she makes during the lecture.

For the evening meeting the topic is "Flower Arrangement for the Home".

Tickets for non-members will be sold for both meetings and cost $1.50 for the series. Mrs. Frank Anderson is ticket chairman. Assisting her are Mesdames Joe E. Davis, Fred Smith, Ran Boswell and J. W. Batts jr.

Hostess for the meeting are Mesdames A. D. Folweiler, W. E. Briles, Edward Madeley, W. M. Potts, and O. H. Franks.

Mrs. White will go to Florida in December to begin a series of schools, workshops and demonstrated lectures there. She has worked with flower shows there and holds five blue ribbons and a special award on arrangements featuring orchids from shows in that state.

She is a former recording secretary and lecture chairman of the Texas Garden clubs. She is now chairman of floral art on the state board of the organization.

Mrs. White has conducted lectures similar to the ones here in Florida, North Carolina, New Mexico and Oklahoma. She will give demonstrated lectures in Missouri, Iowa and Michigan this spring.

She is one of nine women in Texas qualified to teach all five flower show courses.

The speaker will be introduced by Mrs. C. B. Campbell.

WEDNESDAY — Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Miksch cut their cake following their wedding at St. Joseph Catholic church. He is a graduate of A&M, and Mrs. Miksch is the former Mary Agnes Kalinec of Bryan. They will make their home in Lawton, Okla.

Houston Pastor Speaks Here

Dr. Kenneth Pope, pastor of the First Methodist church in Houston, was main speaker at the Bryan district conference at the A&M Methodist church Friday.

In his sermon Dr. Pope said that the church is losing control over wide areas of American life. He mentioned that things like community service and education were now being handled by secular groups.

He then emphasized, "The answer to the problem is not resuming control by the church, but people in control being under the influence of Christ."

At the conference meeting, it was reported that there were 309 new members in the first six months of the conference year in the 26 churches in the area. These churches have spent $118,000 in the same period.

Dr. W. R. Swain, district superintendent, presided over the conference. The women of the A&M church served a luncheon for the 125 delegates at the conference.

Leroy Miksch Wed Sunday in Bryan

Miss Mary Agnes Kalinec, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Kalinec of Bryan, became the bride of 2nd Lt. LeRoy Miksch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Miksch of Waelder, in a ceremony at 10 a. m. Sunday at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Bryan.

The bride's gown of white Chantilly lace had a full skirt with tiers of pleated ruffles cascading down each side. The fitted bodice had a scooped neckline with an inset of bridal illusion.

The French illusion veil fell from a sweetheart bonnet trimmed in sequins and seed pearls. She carried a large white orchid surrounded by stephanotis.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Father Tim Valenta performed the ceremony. Mrs. Virginia Mauldin sang with Miss Gussie Schultz accompanying on the organ.

The bride chose her sister, Miss Margaret Ann Kalinec, as maid of honor. She wore a dress of pale pink taffeta and net with deep pink accessories. Her bouquet of pale pink carnations was trimmed with deep pink ribbons.

The bridesmaids wore identical gowns in varied pastel shades with matching flowers. Bridesmaids were Misses Bertha Odstrcil, Delores Fojtik, and Delma Holiday.

Darlene Nichols, flower girl, wore blue tulle and carried assorted rose petals in a white basket.

The groom chose his brother, Tommy Miksch of Waelder, as best man. Groomsman were Norman Miksch, brother of the groom from Waelder; Frank Kalinec, brother of the bride; and Pat McCrory from Waelder.

David Kalinec, the bride's cousin, was ring bearer.

Ushers were Eric Miller of Bartlett, Norbert Ohlendorf of Lockhart, Jerry Anderson from Tyler, and Bill Bradley of College Station.

After the ceremony a dinner and tea dance was held at the Bryan country club. Miss Julia Kalinec and Miss Marie Kalinec, cousins of the bride, assisted in serving the wedding cake.

The bride chose as her going away outfit, a cocoa suit with dark brown accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

After a short honeymoon to Dallas, the couple will make their home at Lawton, Okla. where the groom is stationed at Ft. Sill.

Lt. Miksch is a graduate of A&M. He was a member of the basketball team. The bride, a graduate of Stephen F. Austin high school, was employed at Bryan air force base.

Before the wedding, parties for the bride were given by Mrs. Frank Fojtik, Mrs. Travis Nichols, Mrs. Frank Nemece, Mrs. Willie Kalinec, Mrs. Albin Uavlas, Miss Julia Kalinec and the attendants.

Of Church Women's Council

Mrs. Morgan Named Head

Mrs. David Morgan was elected president of the College Station Council of Church Women at a meeting Friday afternoon at Our Savior's Lutheran church.

Other officers elected by the council were Mrs. J. H. Bass, first vice president; Mrs. Mike Krenitsky, second vice president; Mrs. H. Englebrecht, secretary; and Mrs. Gordon Gay, treasurer.

The meeting was an observance of "World Community Day."

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Dan R. Davis, council president, Mrs. Clarence Ketch and Mrs. T. H. Swygert.

Swygert Opens Meeting

Rev. Swygert opened the meeting with a prayer. The program under the direction of Mrs. Ketch had as its theme "Building Lasting Peace".

The speaker, Rev. Ketch, pointed out that in many ways the world has already become a world community. "In doing so it has not practiced a great many of the attributes that would make it an ideal place to live," he said.

"The brotherhood of man, which would cure most of the evils, is still a dream of the future," he said. "If the goal is reached it will begin at home in our community and spread to cover the world".

Reads Poem

Mrs. Robert Darwell read a poem after which Mrs. Ralph Rogers gave a prayer dedicating the offering and gifts to be sent to centers in Korea and the Near East.

Mrs. Armstrong Price, chairman, gave the report of the nominating committee and the election was held.

After adjourning, guests were invited to the tea table, which was centered with an arrangement of fall flowers. Mrs. A. L. Giesenschlag presided at the silver service.

St. Thomas Church Dedicates Cross

A processional cross was dedicated at the morning services at St. Thomas Episcopal chapel Sunday.

It was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Potts of Harlingen in memory of their son, Capt. Francis Potts, a 1939 A&M graduate, who was killed in the Pacific theater during World War II.

Potts, a 1906 graduate of A&M, taught in the civil engineering department for many years. A past president of the Former Students association, he is now a member of the Texas highway commission.
