

News Briefs

J. B. BATY, 600 Jersey, had an emergency appendectomy operation Saturday in Temple. J. B. (Dick) Hervey, former students association secretary said yesterday Baty was "getting along well."

PLANS for the inauguration of David H. Morgan as A&M's president will be made within the next few days. No definite plans for the inauguration of M. T. Harrington as chancellor have been made yet.

NO REPAIRS other than minor pavement patching are planned for College Station city streets during the winter, according to Ran Boswell, city manager. Major repairs were completed during the summer, "the best time to make repairs," he said.

T. W. LELAND, head of the business administration department, left Tuesday for New York to attend a meeting of the commission on standards of education and experience for certified public accountants. "This study may result in specific benefits to the public accounting profession, educators and society as a whole," Leland said.

SENIOR CHEMICAL engineering students will make an inspection tour of the Beaumont, Port Arthur and Texas City area Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to watch methods of processing petroleum and chemicals.

WITH 24 CASES, diarrhea is leading the weekly College Station health report. There are 10 cases in College Station and 14 in Bryan. Strep throat is next with 20 cases, 11 in College Station and 9 in Bryan.

"ANCIENT MAN in Italy and his Caves" will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Alberto Carlo Blanc, professor of ethnology at the University of Rome. The lecture will be at 8 p. m. Monday in the Biological Sciences lecture room. The meeting is open to the public.

JAMES R. COMPTON, '53, LIP, was promoted from farm news reporter to farm editor of the Avallache-Journal, a Lubbock daily newspaper. While here, Compton, an agricultural education major, took a journalism course.

A. L. DARNELL, professor of dairy husbandry, will preside at a dairy short course here Dec. 3-4. Dean of Agriculture C. N. Sheppardson will give the welcoming address for the meeting, which is to serve dairymen, plant field men and others interested in dairy problems.

FOUR A&M STAFF members will be judges at the San Antonio stock show, Feb. 12-21. They are Dr. J. C. Miller, A. L. Darnell, John Jones and Dr. W. G. Kammlade jr.

THE FIRST HALF of split payments on College Station city and school taxes are due by Nov. 30. Taxes should be paid at the College Station city hall, according to Florence Neelley, tax assessor-collector.

THE SAN ANTONIO A&M club will sponsor a Thanksgiving dance Nov. 27 at the K-T hall, 4321 Austin highway, from 7:30 p. m. to midnight. Admission will be $1 stag or $1.75 a couple.

JAMES SCHNEIDER, senior animal husbandry major from El Campo, will get a four-day all-expense trip to Chicago as the winner of an essay contest sponsored by Swift and Company. He will leave Dec. 6.

THE MSC will distribute an illustrated brochure next spring to groups visiting the campus and new students. The pamphlet will contain pictures of the MSC's activities, with a story about each.

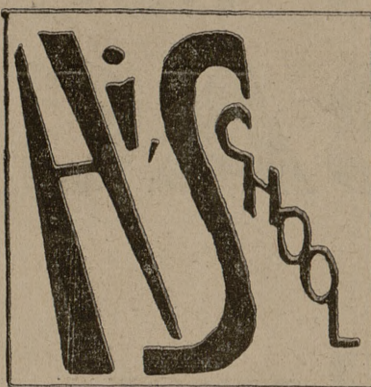

THE FORMER STUDENTS association will have a meeting Thanksgiving to plan the program for the meeting of A&M club officers to be held Jan. 17. They will also have a registration and coffee for all visiting former students.

FIELD PERSONNEL of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils and Agricultural Engineering, U. S. Department of Agriculture, held their annual meeting here last weekend. Seventeen western states were represented.

COL. JOHN A. WAY, PAS&T, will go to Dallas Thursday to attend a symposium on air power sponsored by the Dallas Council of World Affairs. The series will include speeches by radio star Arthur Godfrey, Chief of Staff N. B. Twining, Arthur Szyk of the Atomic Energy Commission, Sen. Stuart B. Symington, former secretary of the air force, and civil aviation authorities.

THE WEARING OF civilian clothes at meal formations during the bonfire work periods will be up to the discretion of company commanders, said Col. Joe E. Davis, commandant of cadets.

Always wash your kitchen knives separately. If you put them in a dishpan with other cutlery, you may give yourself a nasty cut.

The final football dance of the year at A&M Consolidated high school will be held after the game with Tomball Friday night. The dance has been sponsored by the junior class to raise money for the spring junior-senior banquet. As an additional fund raising project, the juniors will sell corsages at the Friday game.

The Consolidated band put on another half-time performance at the Bellville game last Friday. The show included marching, formations and a salute to Bellville.

The student council at their meeting Monday approved a skating party for the library club for Tuesday, Dec. 1. Mrs. J. T. Duncan is library club sponsor.

Janice Latimer, Carolyn Landiss and Maurice Olian were appointed to the school publicity committee, and Maurice was elected chairman. The committee will be responsible for gathering the school news and making it available. Barbara Mullen is student council reporter.

The council also decided at their meeting to look into the possibility of erecting a sign at the Jersey street-highway 6 intersection to publicize the school.

A further study of the project will be made next week when the council meets again.

Fred Anderson was selected this week as the most outstanding citizen of the month at the high school. He was honored by the Bryan Rotary club, who presents the award once each month.

Students are nominated by the faculty and the student council chooses the winner.

Fred is a senior, an outstanding athlete and president of the student council. His name was on the scholastic honor roll released last week.

Brooks Will Speak At Nov. 26 Fete

Dr. T. D. Brooks, dean emeritus of the graduate school, will be the speaker at the annual international students Thanksgiving breakfast.

The breakfast will be held at the First Baptist church, College Station, on Nov. 26.

All foreign students, representing 32 nations, will receive personal invitations.

Dr. R. C. Potts of the extension service will be in charge of the menu, with C. H. Harris, Baptist Student Union director, in charge of other arrangements.

All-Nations Party Begins at 7 Tonight

The third annual all-nations party for A&M foreign students will be held at 7 p. m. tonight at the Presbyterian student center.

The women of the church will serve refreshments under the direction of Mrs. Mohamed Edrasy and Mrs. Mohamed Zeitoun, Egyptian student wives.

Devotional will be presented by Bud Whitney and the Rev. Norman Anderson. Randy Womack and Sandra Couch are in charge of recreational activities.

The closing fellowship circle will be led by Jake Landiss, fellowship president, and the Rev. Charles Workman.

About 150 people are expected to attend, Rev. Workman said.

Newman Club to Hold Dance, Wiener Roast

The A&M Newman club will have a wiener roast and dance at the Knights of Columbus park in Bryan tonight after services at St. Mary's chapel.

The Catholic Youth organization girls from Bryan have been invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Reservation Deadline Is Today for Dance

The deadline for reservations for the A&M Employees Dinner club dance is 2 p. m. today.

The dance will be at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the Memorial Student Center ballroom. Claude Harris' band will provide the music.

Lee Thompson is general chairman for the evening. In charge of tickets is J. Wayne Stark. Publicity will be handled by Maj.

J. C. Lowell and Mrs. D. D. Burchard.

A Thanksgiving theme will be carried out in the decorations according to Mrs. C. F. Richardson, decorations chairman.

Dress for the evening is optional, according to Mrs. Burchard.

Students May Join National Guard

Corps men interested in joining the National Guard unit to be activated here may see Barney Welch, intramural director.

If the unit is called to active duty, men with ROTC contracts will be separated from the unit immediately, and can stay in school. This unit of the guard will be headquarters company for the 1st Battalion of the 143rd infantry regiment. Welch will be commander. Lt. Col. Taylor Wilkins, A&M's assistant commandant, is 1st battalion commander.

Persons who enlist before they are 18½ years old and attend drill and summer camp are exempt from the draft.

Study Club Hears Barron On Wills

Judge W. S. Barron was speaker for the meeting of the Campus Study club yesterday afternoon at the YMCA.

In his talk, "Wills and Financial Problems of the Widow", he emphasized that every person, regardless of his age or health, should make a will.

During the business meeting a report was given by Mrs. A. D. Folweiler, welfare committee, in which donations were asked for the Christmas cheer basket. Contributions are to be brought to the next meeting, Dec. 1. Mrs. Roy Carpenter is committee chairman.

Mrs. John Ashton of the international relations committee reported on the United Nations meeting of the club.

Barron was introduced by Mrs. R. E. Patterson.

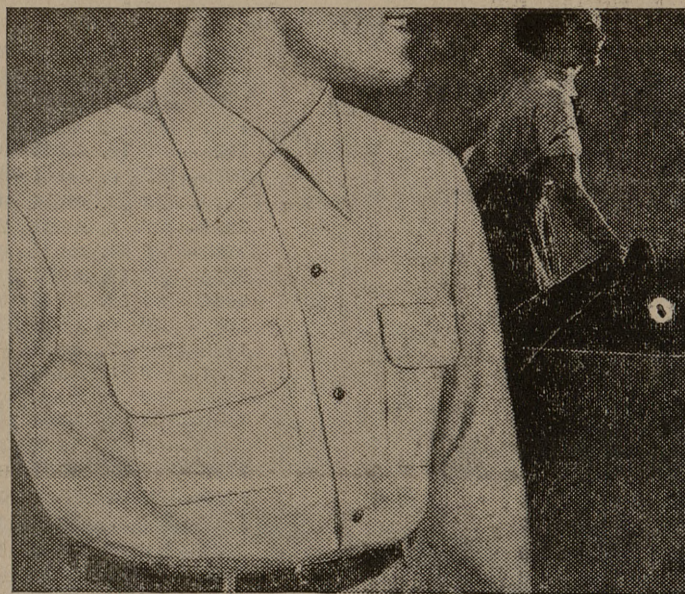

Swimming-Diving Film To Be Shown Thursday

A film of the 1951 National Collegiate Athletic association championship swimming and diving meet will be shown at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, said Art Adamson, A&M swimming coach.

The movie will be held in the YMCA chapel is open to the public.

College Men Look "Smoother" Thanks To Arrow Gabanaro

Trim-Fitting Sports Shirt Furthers New Trend To Neatness

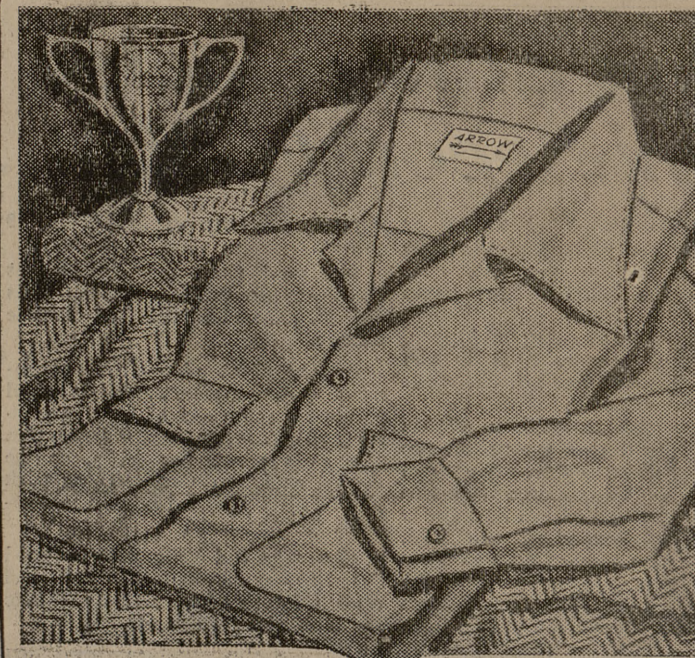

One of the most marked changes in campus fashions this year is the switch to the neat sports shirt that fits as well... looks as trim... as a regular shirt. This change has been brought about by Arrow Gabanaro—a washable rayon gabardine sports shirt in exact collar sizes and sleeve lengths... Sanforset® to keep its perfect fit. Available at all Arrow dealers!

SHIRTS • TIES • UNDERWEAR • HANDKERCHIEFS • SPORTS SHIRTS

You look better... feel better in Arrow "Gabanaro" 6.50

- in your exact collar size
- your exact sleeve length
- Sanforset® for lasting fit

Get that smart neat look with Arrow Gabanaro... America's #1 sports shirt. Washable rayon gabardine... Sanforset® to keep its fit. With exclusive Arafold collar that brings you extra comfort, extra smartness, worn with a tie or without. Stop in today... choose from many handsome colors in your exact size.

W. S. D.
Clothiers
Located in Bryan

Quion Hall

LAST DAY

WARNER BROS. PRESENTS
ANN BAXTER • CONTE SOTHERN
THE BLUE GARDENIA

THURSDAY & FRIDAY

"MAN BEHIND THE GUN"
Randolph Scott

PALACE
Bryan 2-8879

NOW SHOWING

"THE BIG HEAT"

From The Pages Of The Saturday Evening Post Serial!
GLENN FORD • GLORIA BRUNO
TODD GRIFFIN • JOCELYN BRANDO

QUEEN
STARTS TODAY

TONY CURTIS

In the fighting, loving, story of
THE ALL AMERICAN
LORI NELSON
MAMIE VAN DOREN
A UNIVERSAL INTERNATIONAL PICTURE

CIRCLE

LAST DAY

The Beast From 20,000 Fathoms

— ALSO —
"CARSON CITY"
Randolph Scott

CAMPUS

TODAY thru FRIDAY

FLYING DANGER!

JOHN WAYNE
in Island In The Sky
with LLOYD NOLAN • WALTER ABEL

How the stars got started...

Maureen O'Sullivan says: "I was 17 when they picked me for a small role in a film. It was four years of hard work and experience before big roles came. Then marriage and children (seven darlings!) — and film roles again! So I'm enjoying two wonderful careers!"

Maureen O'Sullivan
FAMOUS MOVIE STAR

I KNOW WHAT I WANT IN A CIGARETTE AND CAMELS HAVE IT! TO ME NOTHING COMPARES WITH CAMELS FOR MILD, ENJOYABLE SMOKING. TRY THEM YOURSELF!

Start smoking Camels yourself!

Smoke only Camels for 30 days and find out why Camels are first in mildness, flavor and popularity! See how much pure pleasure a cigarette can give you!

For Mildness and Flavor. CAMELS AGREE WITH MORE PEOPLE THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!