

THE BATTALION-MSC A&M QUARTERBACK CLUB

Don Ellis

Back of the Week

Don Ellis Selected For Second Time

Don Ellis completed 12 of 32 passes for 174 yards and added 44 net yards rushing for 218 total yards in the A&M - Rice game Saturday.

For his fine running and passing in the contest, Ellis is the Quarterback club back of the week for the second time.

Badly rushed on many of his passes, Ellis darted around in the Aggie backfield looking for open receivers. If he couldn't spot one to toss to, he tucked the ball under his arm and headed up the field.

He was also very effective on the optional keeper play around the ends. During the Aggie touchdown drive which covered 55 yards, Ellis contributed runs of 11, 17 and 9 yards.

The next time the Aggies got the ball, the effect of those Ellis gallops showed in the Owl defense tactics.

On the first play from scrimmage on the Aggie 8, Ellis started to the right on one of his pitch-or-keep plays. Every Owl defender in the area went for Ellis, so he tossed wide to Connie Magouirk and Magouirk raced down the sidelines for 54 yards.

Not only did Ellis play a good defensive game, but also returned a punt for 21 yards and 2 kickoffs for a total of 29 yards.

Meet for 60th Time

Aggies, Steers Renew 59-Year-Old Rivalry

A&M and University of Texas renew one of the oldest rivalries in the nation on Thanksgiving Day when they play for the 60th time in a 59-year-old rivalry.

The two schools started playing in 1894 and have played at least once per season, since 1898, except from 1912 through 1914. They played two games a season from 1900 to 1903 and from 1907 to 1910.

The Steers hold a 38-16 series advantage, with five ties. The Aggies have beaten the Longhorns only once since 1939. Last year's UT Cotton Bowl team rolled over the Aggies 32-12, as three of the Steer starting backfield gained over 100 yards.

A&M's first win in 12 years came in 1951, when the Cadets took a 22-21 decision in one of the most exciting games of the long rivalry. The Aggies have never beaten Texas in Austin's Memorial stadium in 15 games. They have scored just 50 points there.

This is the game that both schools want to win above all others. Records have meant little when these two old rivals take the field, as evidenced by the 1948 game, when an Aggie team that had not won a game all year tied the Steers 14 - 14 in Memorial stadium.

A&M's most decisive victory came in 1925, when they blanked the Steers 28-0. The Longhorns got off to a decisive head start in the series, winning the first two games by 38-0 in '94, and 48-0, in '98.

Sid Theriot

Ellis Leads In Passing; 2nd in Offense

Lineman of Week

Don Ellis vaulted back into first place in Southwest conference passing after his performance in the Rice game.

The slender quarterback remained in second place in total offense, still trailing Lamar McHan.

Ellis completed 12 of 32 passes for 174 yards against the Owls. He now has a season's passing record of 70 completions in 161 attempts for 889 yards and 4 touchdowns. He has had 14 interceptions.

On 274 rushing and passing plays, Ellis has gained 1,019 yards, a 3.7 yard average per try. He trails McHan by 130 yards, but McHan has two more games to play against one for Ellis.

Ellis is now 6th in punt returns, 5th in kickoff returns, 3rd in pass interceptions and 4th in scoring. He has returned 17 punts for 147 yards, 8 kickoffs for 153 yards, 3 passes for 86 yards and has scored 37 points.

Bennie Sinclair is second in pass receiving, with 18 catches for 285 yards. Bob Easley and Connie Magouirk are 9th and 10th in rushing. Easley has 245 yards on 63 tries and Magouirk has 236 yards on 46 carries.

Theriot Selected Best Ag Lineman

The press box PA system said, "... and Sid Theriot made the tackle for A&M; he's made a lot of them today."

Because he "made a lot of them," Theriot is the Quarterback club lineman of the week for the second time this season.

Theriot's terrific tackle of Carl Johnson after he had intercepted a pass in the second quarter was one of the spectacular plays of the game. Johnson had snared the pass on his 20-yard line and returned to the Aggie 45, before Theriot hit him at full speed, lifted him in the air and turned him over.

"I just didn't want him to go any further," said Sid after the game.

Theriot has been one of the most consistently good linemen in the Southwest conference from Saturday to Saturday. Weighing only 190 pounds, he has been outweighed by many of the players across the line of scrimmage, but he has yet to be outplayed by any of them.

One of the fastest men on the squad, Theriot often makes the tackle after an A&M punt or kickoff. When he blocks opposing players, they stay blocked.
