Unassigned Seniors May Form Unit

Unassigned seniors living on the second floor of dormitory 7 may march as a unit to meal formations, said Capt. John L. Shipley, dormitory 7 counselor.

These seniors have been marching to meals with units which forth near dormitory 7. Unit commanders complain that the extra men add or detract from their unit's performance, Shipley said.

By using the new unit, other units would be graded more accurately, he said.

"Appointment of a cadet as the unit commander would make someone responsible for the replacement seniors in dormitory 7," said Shipley.

Six Aggies

Tom's Oldsmobile was covered with paint. He said there was orange, green, white and blue paint splashed all over the car, and also on the inside over the upholstery.

He said yesterday he learned the paint was all water base except for a little on the right door panel on the inside, which was oil base.

Wiring was torn loose under the hood, and the air had been let out of three tires. There also was trash piled all over the top of the car.

One of the policemen who had appeared twice previously in the evening took one of the cadets to a dorm where he called a garage. A garage man came out and fixed the tires.

The Aggies rewired the car.

The A&M students asked a university student if they could get something to sit on in the car. The man replied, "Use the trash" on top of the car.

The men got back to the campus at 5:30 Thursday morning after a "mighty chilly ride back."

Col. Joe E. Davis, commandant, said, "action will be taken" against the A&M students.

THE LION'S SHARE

The fellow who can roar the loudest and bite the hardest usually gets what he wants. That's the way it is in the animal kingdom, and sometimes the system creeps into man's world too!

Most of us have too much religious awareness to believe that such a system is the best one. We would rather live in a world in which kindness and peace and unselfishness were the rule.

Our Churches can help us build such a world. They can turn our religious awareness into spiritual growth.

On Sunday morning, the man in the arm-chair knows just as well as the man in the pew what is wrong with the world. But the man in the pew will be busy doing something about it!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
