

Keith's Dashes Spark 14-13 Fish Victory

The breakaway running of Bobby Drake Keith and the alert defensive play of Dick Munday helped give the A&M Fish a 14-13 victory over the Texas Shorthorns Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

Keith scored A&M's first touchdown on a brilliant 65-yard punt return in the first quarter and gained a total of 228 yards for the afternoon. He also kicked the first extra point.

Munday intercepted a Shorthorn pass on the Fish 6-yard line in the last minute and a half of play to kill a drive for the winning touchdown that had started on the Yearling 31.

Texas Ties Score Texas tied the score in the second quarter when End Mike Trant blocked Charles Marshall's punt in the end zone. Tackle Charles Baker recovered for the touchdown.

Guard Dickie Lowrey kicked the extra point to make the score 7-7 at the half.

The Fish drove 69 yards in 10 plays in the third quarter. Fullback Don Carpenter scoring around left end from the 2. Fullback Jack Pardee then kicked the game-winning extra point.

Carpenter's 25-yard burst up the middle on the drive's first play was the big gain. Keith chipped in runs of 14 and 11 yards.

The Shorthorns scored again early in the fourth quarter. Fullback Edward Hawkins, the game's leading rusher, took a pitchout and scooted 17 yards for the score. Don Maroney's game-tying extra point kick was short.

Scott's Pass Intercepted Baker's interception of a Charlie Scott pass on the Texas 25 started the drive. Quarterback Connie Orr passed 37 yards to End George Davis to put the ball on the Fish 34.

Hawkins, a 170-pounder from Lufkin, picked up 82 yards on 12 carries. Keith had 75 on 18 rushes, and Carpenter gained 61 on 10.

A&M End Eugene Stallings played a splendid defensive game and was one of the best linemen on either team.

He blocked a Texas punt in the first quarter and teamed up with Tackle Bobby Lockett to stop Maroney on the Aggie 1-yard line in the second quarter. The Shorthorns had picked up a first on the 9 but couldn't score.

Lockett, Guards Jim Martin and Billy Pippen and Munday also showed well on defense for the Fish. Keith and Stallings were elected team co-captains for the season after the game. Fish Coach Willie Zapala called Keith's punt return the outstanding play of the game and praised Stallings' defensive play.

James Blaine Takes First As Ags Win Cross Country

James Blaine finished three steps ahead of Innocenzo Cantu of Texas to lead the Aggies to a thrilling 31-32 Southwest conference cross-country championship in the meet held Monday in Dallas.

Blaine's time was 12 minutes and 35 seconds for the 2.6 mile course, which was very good, considering the stiff wind facing the runners over most of the course.

Third behind Cantu was Verlon Westmoreland of A&M and Elbert Spence and Tom Rogers of Texas were fourth and fifth, respectively.

Tigers, Deers Play Wednesday Night

A&M Consolidated high school's undefeated Tigers lost their first decision of the season Saturday morning and will play Deer Park for the bi-district championship at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Deer Park.

The Tigers lost the coin toss in Hempstead which decided the time and place of the game. Deer Park chose the Wednesday date because of the Thanksgiving holidays.

The Tigers won their 10th straight game of the season Friday night, rolling over Tomball, 35-0, in their final district 25-A game.

Deer Park whipped Dickinson, 38-7, for their second straight district 26-A title. The Deers lost to Wink in the state class A final in 1952. They have a 10-0 season record.

Consolidated Scrimmages Consolidated staged an offensive scrimmage Monday. Coach Jim Bevans said the Tigers came out of the Tomball game with a few bruises, but expects everybody to be ready for Deer Park.

Quarterback Sammy Blount is one of Deer Park's offensive spark-plugs. He scored 20 points against Dickinson, including touchdown runs of 31 and 39 yards, set up two other scores, and kicked a field goal and five points after touchdown.

Deer Park has wins over La Porte, Crosby, Sweeney, Santa Fe, Needville, East Bernard, Missouri City, Spring Branch and Dickinson.

Tigers Have 419 Points Against Tomball the Tigers ran their season scoring record to 419 points to 35 for the opposition.

Besides his 75 yards rushing, Keith had 87 yards on two punt returns, ran back two kickoffs 22 yards and caught a pass for 14 yards. He also kicked out of bounds at the Texas 6 in the first quarter. He finished the season with 738 yards in all phases of play.

Cole Bows 223 For High Game In League

Jim Cole, of the Coca Cola team, bowled a 223 to take high game honors in the All-Star Bowling league Thursday.

Bob Strampe, of Conway & Co., rolled a 576 for the high series score. He bowled games of 213, 150 and 213.

Conway & Co. leads the league by one game with a 23-7 record. Joe Faulk Auto & Supply Store is second with a 22-8 mark.

Conway & Co. holds the league record for team game, 914, and team series, 2,620.

The league will not bowl this Thursday night because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

League standings are as follows:

W	L
Conway & Co.	23 7

Welch Clarifies Mural Eligibility

Non-military students cannot participate in intramural athletics with their old outfits, said Barney Welch, director of intramural athletics.

This is not a new ruling, but there has been some misunderstanding among students, he said.

Welch explained that there are four intramural programs - freshman, upperclassman, non-military and club. Students must participate in the program for which they are eligible. They cannot mix activities.

Staff members can still choose the program in which they want to participate, said Welch.

Tommy Murry, squad 20, was the edge needed to defeat squadron 18, 7-6, yesterday in intramural football.

The score for squadron 18 came when interference was ruled on a 40-yard pass from Gene Brady to Norm Stephens. Then Brady took the ball around end for the touchdown.

Squadron 20's Stacy came back with a 29 yard pass to Adrian Helms, who romped 40 yards for the touchdown.

Squadron 6 Wins Bill Hightower, Rusty Crowley and John Acree, squadron 6, scored a touchdown each to help their unit edge squadron 5 on penetrations, 4-2, after the game ended in a 19-19 tie.

Leon Hull made two of squadron 5's scores, and Tom Eikel scored the final touchdown.

Two kickoffs out of bounds helped squadron 16 defeat squadron 13, 2-1, in penetrations in a 6-6 tie.

J. Willis scored squadron 16's only score. B. Lee made the touchdown for squadron 13.

Johnny Benefield's pass to Ed Palm for 80 yards helped squadron 11 sweep past squadron 2, 8-0.

A ordnance's Robert Giesecke tossed a 10 yard pass to Dave Mitchell for the only touchdown to beat AAA, 7-0.

A field artillery was defeated by squadron 8, 13-0.

Basketball A infantry's Gene Smith scored eight points to help his unit squeeze past squadron 7, 16-14.

E. B. Grey was high man for squadron 7 with six points. Gerald Tackett, squadron 23, scored 11 points to help his unit win over company L, 26-17.

Tom Morrison and Ken Bridges each scored eight points to help company F romp over squadron 21, 27-10.

In a tennis playoff match, AAA edged past A ordnance, two matches to one.

Bowling Company C slipped past company A, 392-385, with H. C. Wood high man for the winners with 169. Squadron 4 defeated ASA, 452-429, led by Bill Utzman, who scored 169.

Ed Stinnett scored 179 to help company E beat company G, 407-361.

The first home run by a major leaguer under the lights was hit by Babe Herman of Cincinnati against the Dodgers on July 10, 1935.

Aggies Prepare for Steers; Expect to be at Full Strength

Joe Boring and Bob Easley were on the ailing list as the Aggies drilled defensively yesterday for the Thanksgiving Day game with the University of Texas Longhorns.

Both, however, are expected to be ready for action by game time. Boring has been taking it easy with minor bruises, while Easley is recovering from a mild case of influenza.

The squad managed to get in but little workout time Saturday because of bad weather conditions, so Coach Ray George scheduled full offensive drills Tuesday for the final day of full-scale workouts.

George plans to send his regular starting eleven against the Longhorns in an effort to repeat the thrilling Aggie victory over the Steers two years ago on Kyle Field. Only at fullback and one of the halfback posts are possible changes contemplated.

George is wavering between Don Kachtik and Easley at fullback, and Boring and Elwood Kettler at right halfback.

For the rest of the starters, it will be Bennie Sinclair and Bill Schroeder, ends; Durwood Scott and Lawrence Winkler, tackles; Sid Theriot and Marvin Tate, guards; and Fred Broussard, center.

The backfield will have Don Ellis at quarterback, Connie Magouirk and Boring or Kettler at halfbacks; and Easley or Kachtik at fullback.

Three of the starters are seniors who will be playing their last football for A&M. Ellis, Scott and Magouirk wind up their college football eligibility Thursday.

Other senior squad members are Eric Miller, end; Johnny Salyer, fullback and end; Bob Gosney, guard; Bob McCarter, guard; Cooper Robbins, center and Bill McMahan, center.

A&M Soccer Team Edges BAFB, 2-1

A last minute goal by Guillermo Cardenas gave the A&M soccer team a 2-1 win over the Bryan Air Force Base team Sunday afternoon on the Aggie soccer field.

Composed of players from France, Holland, Denmark and Norway, the BAFB team played a very sharp defensive game, on several occasions staving off Aggie scores with exceptional plays.

Juan Letts put the Cadets out in the front on a fine scoring play early in the game, but BAFB soon tied it up on a goal by Kristensen.

The two teams battled on even terms until the Cardenas goal late in the contest brought victory to the Aggies.

Outstanding for the Aggies was A. P. Casas, center half, while Kugger, goalie, and Knibbe, center forward for BAFB, played a fine game for the visitors.

Cardenas and Letts are co-captains of the Aggie soccer team.

Ellis Loses Passing Lead; Keeps Second in Offense

Don Ellis, idle last Saturday, dropped from first to third in Southwest conference passing but kept his grip on the second place total offense spot.

Baylor's Francis Davidson, after a great day against SMU, captured the top spot in passing. Arkansas' Lamar McHan kept his hold on the total offense lead and is now second in passing.

Ellis trails Davidson by 113 yards in passing and is 248 yards behind McHan's total offense mark. All three players have one game left to play.

Davidson completed 15 of 29 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns against the Mustangs. His season record is 65 completions of 134 passes for 993 yards and 9 touchdowns.

McHan gained 88 yards passing and 30 yards rushing against LSU to boost his total offense total to 1,267 yards on 259 carries.

Bob Easley and Joe Boring are 5th and 7th in punting. Easley has a 37.5 yard average on 16 kicks, and Boring has 37.3 on 18.

Following is a summary of Ellis' season record: Passing - 70 of 161 completed for 880 yards, 4 touchdowns.

Total offense-1,019 yards in 274 carries. Punt returns-17 for 149 yards, 8.8 yard average, 6th in the conference.

Kickoff returns-8 for 153 yards, 19.1 yard average, 4th in the conference. Scoring-37 points, 4th in the conference.

His overall offensive record is 1,407 yards. This includes 139 yards rushing and 86 yards on pass interception runbacks.

Bennie Sinclair, Bill Schroeder and Joe Schero are 3rd, 4th and 8th in conference pass receiving. Sinclair has 18 for 285 yards, Schroeder 17 for 215 and Schero 13 for 202.
