

Tigers Hunt Bi-District Sq. 19 Edges Sq. 17 Ags Ready for UT, On Penetrations, 2-1 Says Magourik

The Tigers of A&M Consolidated high school play Deer Park tonight in a bi-district battle of two unbeaten schools.

Consolidated has rolled to 10 straight wins and 419 points this season. The Deers also have a 10-0 record.

The game will decide the championship of districts 25-A and 26-A. The Tigers left for Deer Park by bus at 2 p. m. today after a dummy offensive and defensive scrimmage Tuesday. Coach Jim Bevans said that all players will be ready for action.

'Gonna Go All Out'

"We're gonna go all out," said Bevans. "I know they wish they didn't have to play us right off the bat, and I'm sure we feel that way about them," he said.

Bevans didn't think the Tiger chances would be hurt by playing in Deer Park. The team doesn't think it puts them at a disadvantage, he said.

Consolidated has piled up 3,103 yards offensively this year, while giving up 1,407 to the opposition. This averages out to 319 yards per game for the Tigers and 140 yards per game for their opponents. The Tigers have averaged 42 points per game to 3.5 for the opposition.

No Conversion Worries

If tonight's game is settled by points after touchdown, Consolidated fans have little to worry about. J. B. Carroll, 120-pound second string quarterback, has kicked 44 out of 50 this season.

Probable offensive lineups are: Consolidated-Ends, Bobby Jackson and Bobby Carter; tackles, Pete Hickman and Melvin Free;

Cardenas Fractures Ankle in Soccer Game

Guillermo Cardenas, Aggie coach and co-captain, fractured his left ankle in Sunday's soccer game between A&M and Bryan air force base.

Cardenas will be out for four weeks. He scored the winning goal in the last minute in a 2-1 A&M win.

guards, George Sousares and Charles Johnson or Jimmy Bond; center, Pinky Cooner; backs, Fred Anderson, William Arnold, Bobby Joe Wade and David Bonnen.

Deer Park-Ends, Duke Parish and Jimmy Carpenter; tackles, Luther Cain and Leon Wolters; guards, Glenn Tolar and Jack Daniel; center, Dale Rider; backs, Sammy Blount, Eugene Wallis, James Harris and Frank McLean.

Pistol Team Fires Against West Point

A&M's pistol team will fire a shoulder to shoulder match against the U. S. Military academy Dec. 12 at West Point, N. Y.

Team Captain Frank Norvell urged all members to attend firing practice. Practice time has been changed to 7 p. m. Tuesday and to 9 p. m. Friday.

The new schedule will start Tuesday.

Squadron 19 slipped past squadron 17 on penetrations, 2-1, in a 0-0 tie in intramural football yesterday.

Dale West, freshman physical education major from Cotulla, "looked better than any intramural offensive football player I've seen in four years," said Jerry Robinett, one of the officials.

"His play calling was always suited to the situation" he said.

West threw several passes to Charles Smith for long gains, nearly made a field goal from the 30-yard line and spiraled a 60-yard quick kick. His ball handling was outstanding.

Louis DeHaes scored the touchdown which helped the Newman club defeat the physical education club, 7-0.

Dave Rochelle scored squadron 25's only touchdown to help his unit win over company D, 9-0.

In other games, B armor won over B composite, 7-0, and Buddy

Fair scored two touchdowns to help company C beat squadron 18, 14-0.

In tennis playoffs, Joe Hipp, Buddy Smith, Mac McCaustion and John Dilliard won matches to help squadron 14 edge AAA, two matches to one.

Howard Childers and Chuck Newman won a match for AAA.

Bowling

Ordnance's Ernie Stone, Graham Bacon and Stan Brand won over Jerry Johnson, G. B. Taack and Donald Wise of B infantry, 435-393.

Taack was high man for B infantry with 163. Brand was high for A ordnance with 158.

Jerry Maxwell, Joe Dotson and Jerry Pyle, squadron 7, defeated squadron 8's Jim Snyder, George Knipple and Bill Holloway, 400-358.

Maxwell was high man for squadron 7 with 137, and Knipple was high for squadron 8 with 126.

Connie Magouirk, A&M's starting left halfback, summed it up when he said, "It'll be a good, close game, and we'll be ready for them."

Magouirk, of course, was speaking about Thursday's traditional Thanksgiving Day A&M-University of Texas football battle.

After a slow start, Magouirk has developed into one of the Aggie's finest backfield performers. He has gained 236 yards in 46 carries on the ground for second place among A&M's linebusters and has scored four touchdowns. He has caught 7 passes for 52 yards and has a 40.5 yard average on four punts.

The change to one platoon football didn't affect Magouirk's playing status. He has been a steady performer at defensive halfback. Magouirk's longest run of the season was against Rice, when he took a Don Ellis pitchout and rambled 54 yards. He scored in the Baylor game on a 23-yard end run.

Arkansas's Lamar McHan, Baylor's L. G. Dupre and SMU's Frank Eidom were named by Magouirk as some of the outstanding backs in the Southwest conference.

He called McHan the best all-around performer he has played against this season. "Dupre is fast and hard to stop," he said. "Eidom runs hard and low, and it's tough to get a good shot at him."

Magouirk had trouble picking the best linemen. "They were all good," he said. He did single out Bill Ducky of Baylor and John Hudson of Rice.

Rice is the best team the Aggies have played, Magouirk said. "They are a fast, hard-hitting, well-balanced ball club," he said. "They make long runs because their blocking is extra good."
