Are You TAKING A COURSE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION?

If so, you may not realize, unless your placement bureau has told you, how valuable this may be to your future business career. For all through American business and industry today, there is a tendency to regard a knowledge of the rudiments of business administration as an important asset in any line of work.

Only recently one of America's leading engineering colleges reported on the aptitudes sought by hundreds of leading companies which had canvassed its ranks for prospects. And, except for engineering specialties themselves, business administration was mentioned more often than any other aptitude.

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette.

This year another nation-wide survey—based on thousands of actual student interviews, and representative of all students in regular colleges—shows that Luckies lead again over all brands, regular or king size...and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better—for 2 reasons. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!
