Local Agencies Sponsor 'Cooperative Giving'

Any organization or individual wishing to sponsor a needy family with groceries or gifts during the holiday season should get in touch with one of the public service groups in College Station and Bryan who are cooperating to bring Christmas aid to needy families in Brazos county.

The Council of Church Women in College Station, the Council of Social Agencies of Brazos county, the Department of Public Welfare and the Federated Church Women of Bryan are the cooperating groups.

The coordinated program of giving prevents duplication in giving to a few families and neglect in giving to others.

Mrs. Dan Scoates (4-7054) and Mrs. C. W. Ketch (4-8287) of the Council of Church Women can provide the name of a needy family to those wishing to give.

Mrs. A. T. Dyal (2-1524) and Mrs. C. C. Stone (2-7165) are representatives to call from the Federated Church Women of Bryan.

A&M Garden Club Sets Tea Friday

A Christmas tea at 3 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. C. B. Campbell is the program for the December meeting of the A&M Garden club.

Chairman for the tea is Mrs. M. V. Krenitsky. She will be assisted by Mrs. R. R. Lyle, decorations chairman, and Mrs. Dell Bauer and Mrs. W. W. Armstead, who are in charge of the tea table.

Hostesses for the tea are Mesdames Campbell, Krenitsky, C. B. Doleac, Bauer and Armstead.

Dames Club to Have Holiday Party Soon

Members of the University Dames club have been asked to bring food for a Christmas basket to the Dames club meeting at 8 p. m. tonight at the YMCA.

The Christmas party scheduled for this Saturday will also be discussed.

After the meeting the members will have a bridge and canasta party.

Dry your chopping bowl and board and your rolling pin carefully after you wash them. And remember that wood is porous. Never soak them.

'Oedipus' Casting To Be Held Tonight

Casting for "Oedipus Rex" by Sophocles, the next Aggie Player production, starts Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Music hall.

Anyone may try out, said C. K. Esten, director.

It will be staged in the Memorial Student Center about the middle of March, Esten said.

The play will be done in the round with Greek classic style, costumes and stage settings. A Greek chorus will be used, and parts are open in the chorus and the cast for both men and women.

Newman Club Elects Wood New Sponsor

Dr. Paul J. Woods of the history department was elected Newman club faculty sponsor at a recent meeting of the Catholic student's organization.

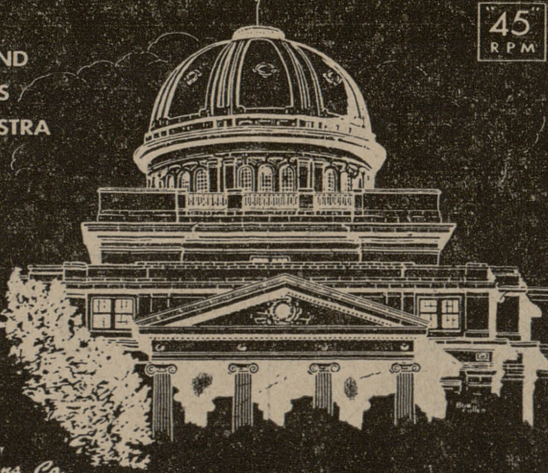

Woods, graduate of the University of Illinois, has been teaching at A&M since 1946. He is married and has two children.
