

Bowl Teams Showing 'Lots Of Hustle'

Head coaches of the army and air force 12th Man Bowl game football teams yesterday said their teams are showing "lots of spirit and hustle."

Connie Magouirk, head coach of the army squad, said, "The boys are whipping into shape, picking up plays and really working hard—all faster than I had dreamed they could."

John Salyer, the air force's head coach, said, "We might not have the biggest team to ever hit the game, but when the whistle blows for the opening kickoff, our players will be in there all the way."

Tickets for the Dec. 17 game are 50 cents, with proceeds going to the student aid fund. They are being sold in the corps by unit athletic officers and first sergeants. Several business firms have tickets on sale for College Station and Bryan residents.

Tickets may be bought at the following places—Aggeland Pharmacy, Black's Pharmacy, Canady's Pharmacy, Lipscomb's Pharmacy, Madeley's Drug Store, Major's Cafe, Smith's Cleaners, Youngblood's and the Memorial Student Center.

The air force team will use the Y formation on offense. The army will operate from the regular T.

HE MISSED—John Fortenberry, starting Aggie forward, goes up for a one-hander in last night's game with Oklahoma City university. The shot hit the rim of the basket. Trying to block the shot is Arnold Short (33), who scored 30 points.

Varsity Loses To OCU 60-38; Fish Drop Lon Morris, 68-64

A&M's basketball teams last night split a doubleheader in DeWane field house as the varsity lost to powerful Oklahoma City university, 60-38, and the Fish trimmed Lon Morris junior college, 68-64.

OCU's Arnold Short, a 6 feet 3 forward who is a top candidate for '53 all-America honors, poured in 30 points to take high-scoring honors for the night. James Addison led the Aggies with 12 points.

A&M will play LSU in Baton Rouge Monday night and will meet Texas Tech at home next Wednesday night. The Fish will meet Allen Academy at home on the same night in another doubleheader.

Short sank 10 of 22 field goals, 10 of 16 free throws and grabbed 14 rebounds. Addison made 4 of 7 field goals, 4 of 4 free throws and took 12 rebounds.

OCU connected on 18 of 54 field goals and 24 of 35 free throws. The Aggies had 14 of 43 field goals and 10 of 15 free throws.

A&M trailed 29-18 at the half after Short made seven straight points late in the second quarter. He tallied 16 points in the first half.

Ags Rallied in Third
In the third quarter the Cadets rallied and pulled up to a 27-31 score as Addison made eight of his points. Here Short sank two free throws and a beautiful jump shot, and OCU was out of danger.

The visitors, ranked 19th nationally in the Associated Press rating, did not substitute until 4:06 deep in the third quarter.

The Fish had to battle from behind a 30-36 halftime deficit to hand Lon Morris its first loss in six games. The Fish scored 10 straight points at the start of the third quarter and led 49-45 at its end. Late in the final quarter they had built up a 65-54 lead.

Robert Burrow, 6 feet 7 Lon Morris center, scored 29 points. Guard Ted Harrod dropped in 15 to lead the Fish. It was his four driving lay-up shots in the third quarter that did much to start the Fish on the win route.

Gattis Scores 12
Bob Gattis, 6 feet 4 forward, scored 12 points and did a good rebounding job for the Fish. The floor play of Guard Lee Smith also stood out. Little James Emerson, 5 feet 6 Lon Morris guard, scored 15 points, including several nice crisp shots.
