

The Kell Players

Kell Group Sets Date

The Reginald Kell players will present a concert for members of the College Station - Bryan Civic Music association at 8:15 tonight in the Stephen F. Austin high school auditorium.

The chamber music group is composed of Kell, clarinetist; Joel Rosen, pianist, Melvin Ritter, violinist; and Rurora Natola, cellist.

The group's program will include modern and traditional music. The program will open with a Beethoven trio for the clarinet, cello and piano.

Other selections will include Handel numbers, "Banjo and Fiddle" by William Kroll, Chopin's "Cherzo", "Pocket Size Sonata" by Alec Templeton and "Ritual Fire

Dance". The final number, which will be presented by Kell, Rosen and Miss Natola, will be a modern suite for clarinet, violin and piano by the French composer Milhaud.

Frank Coulter, president of the Civic Music association, urged members who would be unable to use their memberships to give them to a friend for this concert since no tickets will be sold at the door.

He added that persons who were not in the community during the membership drive could purchase memberships for the balance of the season by contacting him.

The next concert in the series will be the Singing Boys of Mexico during the latter part of February.

FAMILY FAVORITES

By MRS. MARION PUGH

(Ed. note—Guest editor for this week's Family Favorites is Helen Pugh, wife of Marion Pugh, owner of Pugh Lumber company. Since both her husband and ten-year old Condy are avid sportsmen, Mrs. Pugh is often called upon to prepare game recipes. She is president of the A&M Garden club and former superintendent of the beginners department at the First Baptist church, where the Pugh's are members.)

With a family that loves to eat like ours does, and will eat anything from fried turtle (which I have prepared on more than one occasion) to heavenly hash, it's hard to say just what our favorite recipes are. Since they are easily satisfied, I naturally prefer the easiest and simplest ones.

Wild Rice Dressing

Here is one that is very tasty with wild duck or doves.

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup diced green peppers $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped olives
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup chopped onion $\frac{1}{2}$ cup canned mushrooms
 4 tablespoons butter $\frac{1}{2}$ cup hot water
 2 cups cooked wild or brown rice dash paprika

Cook the green peppers and onions in two tablespoons butter until tender. Add rice, olives, mushrooms and paprika. Mix well. If mixture is not sufficiently moist, add additional melted butter. Put in greased baking dish and bake for 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

Refrigerator Whole Wheat Rolls

Brown and serve rolls have spoiled us, but remember there is no substitute for the real thing. This is my mother's recipe for whole wheat rolls. These can be baked immediately, or the dough may be stored in the refrigerator. They're easy to make and always good.

1 cup all-bran $\frac{1}{2}$ cup hot water
 1 cup hot water $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup sugar 1 yeast cake
 7 tablespoons melted bacon drippings 1 egg (beaten)
 1 teaspoon salt 6 cups flour

Combine first five ingredients in a bowl and let set until lukewarm. Pour together $\frac{1}{2}$ cup hot water and milk and let cool. Add yeast and egg. Add this and flour to first mixture. Mix well. Let rise until double in bulk. Then work down dough and cover and put in the refrigerator or make into rolls immediately.

Cherry Coke Salad

No. 2 can pie cherries 2 packages cherry gelatin
 1 cup sugar 1 Coca-Cola
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water 1 cup chopped nuts

Put in pan and heat to boiling, cherries, sugar and water. Pour liquid over gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add Coca-Cola. Chill till mixture thickens. Then add cherries and nuts. Pour into molds and chill.

Cole Slaw

This is one I always use for football guests. It's especially good served with Italian spaghetti. It can be prepared the day before.

1 cup sugar 1 small bottle stuffed olives (chopped)
 1 cup vinegar 1 medium head cabbage (shredded)
 1 medium head cabbage (shredded) celery seed and mustard seed to taste
 1 green pepper (chopped)

Bring sugar and vinegar to a boil and cool. Combine other ingredients and pour cold syrup over mixture. Chill overnight.

Mrs. Hillman Reviews Book For WSCS Christmas Meet

Mrs. John Hillman reviewed the book, "A Star is Born", by Kenneth Phifer at the annual Christmas meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the A&M Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Ran Boswell Monday evening.

The first part of the meeting was devoted to a business session presided over by the president, Mrs. J. S. Mogford.

After an interlude of recorded Christmas carols, Mrs. W. R. Horsley read the beginning of the Christ story from Luke 1: 26-56.

After Mrs. Hillman's book review, Mrs. Nolan R. Vance closed the meeting with a Christmas prayer dedicating the many gifts of toys brought by the members to the meeting for less fortunate children.

A social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Boswell, and her co-hostesses, Mrs. L. A. DuBose and Mrs. R. H. Schleider.

CHS Chorus To Sing Carols Over WTAW

The A&M Consolidated high school chorus will give a program of Christmas music at 12:15 p. m. Friday over station WTAW.

The program is dedicated to the Christmas seal sale now being conducted by the Brazos County Tuberculosis association.

The 38-voice choir will sing five selections, "The Legend of the Bells", "Carol of the Bells", "Coventry Carols", "O Holy Night" and "I Believe".

Robert L. Boone is the choir director.

Wesley Schedules Vespers Services

Vespers will now be held four nights a week from 7:05 to 7:20 p. m. at the A&M Wesley foundation.

Formerly the vespers were every Monday and Friday. The schedule now includes Tuesday and Thursday evening. They consist of a period of quiet meditation with David Moore at the console.

This is followed by a devotional period led by students from the freshman fellowship.
 The vesper period is closed with a time for private prayer at the altar or meditation in the pews.
