Frey Stars At End In Service Team

Dick Frey, former A&M football lineman ('50, '51, and '52), helped his team (Landslide air base, Germany) win all thirteen of ther games to take the U. S. service football championship of Dick played defensive guard at A&M, but this past season at Landstuhle, he switched to end. The big, burly, 205 pounder lad showed enough versatility to gain on a starting end position for the rictorious Lanstuhle.

Landstuhle won their last game and title to the European champ-ionship over London air base 30 to 21 on Nov. 28.

Twenty thousand fans witnessed the championship tussle at Wemb-ley stadium in London, national home of British soccer.

James (Red) Smith, Duke halfback, is a major league baseball prospect. He's a left-handed hitting outfielder.

John McKenna, head football coach at V. M. I., was line coach at the school last season.

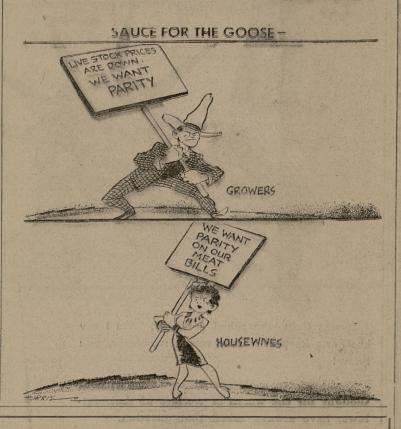

Robin Roberts of the Phillies received a bonus of 25,000 for signing with the club in 1948.
