TSCW Alumnae Association Holds Christmas Party and Business Meeting

Approximately 15 members of the Brazos County Chapter of the TSCW Alumnae Association enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Sue Lowe last evening. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Lowe were Mrs. Wallace Locke, Mrs. Thomas M. Ferguson and Mrs. Raymond Buchanan.

Lovely Christmas arrangements with candles, greenery and a tall lighted tree were featured in the entertainment rooms.

Mrs. John Bertrand introduced Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Poyat of India, now doing graduate work in this country. Mr. Poyat is a graduate student and instructor in the Chemistry Department at A&M

College and Mrs. Popat is enrolled at TSCW. In native dress Mrs. Popat performed a symbolic dance interpreting the Story of Christmas, using Hindu hand and body movements.

Other special guests for the party were Mrs. Albert S. Denman, director of Stoddard Hall at TSCW and Miss Althea Edge, out-going president of the Waco TSCW Chapter.

Following the party a short business meeting was held. A nominating committee for next year's officers was elected. Plans were made for the next meeting which will be on TSCW Founder's Day on February 13 at the home of Mrs. Nell Glasscock.

★ YOU TURN SANTA LOOSE?

INDIANAPOLIS — (AP) — Each year the suburban Beech Grove Police Department hauls Santa Claus in a patrol car to schools, stores and other places to distribute candy and little gifts.

"I saw that you arrested Santa Claus," a little girl tearfully telephoned Police Chief E. C. Hunt. "You've got to turn him loose right away."

"Okay, honey, we will," Chief Hunt assured her.

School Has Party, But No St. Nick

BALTIMORE — (AP) — For the first time in 32 years St. Alphonsus School yesterday gave its pupils a Christmas party without a Santa Claus.

"Pagan elf that the traditional Santa Claus is," explained the Rt. Rev. Louis J. Mendelis to 240 youngsters, "he is a good spirit who lives only in books, in the popular land of fairies and hobgoblins, and is not the real giver of the gifts you receive at Christmas."

The Catholic priest told the kids, ranging from 3 to about 14 there was no place in the religious celebration for "the Santa Claus that many of you have seen standing on street corners."

"It is true there lived a man whose name was St. Nicholas, who was a bishop of the Catholic church many centuries ago," he said. "He was kind to the poor. He had especial love for the children and his feast kept by the Catholic Church ever year on Dec. 6 . . . But because St. Nicholas . . . knew and loved Jesus as his God and Saviour of the world, he would never consent to take the place of Jesus at Christmas time as the giver of gifts that you all receive. God is the giver of all good gifts, and Jesus who is God . . . is the real giver of the gifts that you will receive today, tomorrow and on Christmas Day."

NEW HOPE

With Heartfelt Thanks

His Master's Return! Most of us know the joy in this pup's heart. Months have passed since war's end, and with our boys and girls back home, life has taken on a new meaning.

It doesn't take a war to make us appreciate our loved ones. But today, more than ever, we yearn to express our thankfulness.

For the return of those who are unscathed, we shall be eternally grateful. For the wounded, the handicapped, we are preparing a place in industry and society worthy of their sacrifice. And for those who did not return, our hearts will always treasure the sacred memory of the young lives and noble hopes they laid upon the altar of Freedom.

There is a way each of us can show his appreciation most effectively. Our churches are the world's hope for peace! In worship we can express our heartfelt thanks to God; by living the truths our churches teach, we can build the spiritual foundation for lasting peace.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend service regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

FROM ALL OF US TO ALL OF YOU...

Merry Christmas

It's a Busy Season for LONG DISTANCE

Like Santa Claus, Long Distance telephone lines will be mighty busy on the Christmas week-end.

Friends and relatives all over the country will want to exchange greetings. Most of these calls will go through promptly...but there will be some delays, particularly on calls to distant points.

Thank You
