

FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mrs. C. B. Campbell

(Ed. note—Guest columnist for Family Favorites this week is Mrs. C. B. Campbell, wife of the former head of the A&M language department. An active member of the A&M Garden club, Mrs. Campbell has a daughter living here and a son in Sherman. They have three grandchildren. The Campbells are members of the A&M Presbyterian church.)

This first one is a favorite winter dish at our house.

Lima Bean Casserole

- 2 cups dried lima beans
- 1 medium sized onion
- 1 medium sized green pepper
- 1 can condensed tomato soup
- 6 slices bacon
- 1 cup grated cheese

Wash and soak overnight the dried limas, and cook in salted water until tender but not mushy. Fry bacon slices until crisp and crumble into drained beans. Cook chopped onion and pepper in bacon fat until tender, add to tomato soup with the fat, and mix all in a casserole, top with grated cheese and bake half an hour. Served with a green salad and fruit dessert, this makes a full and filling meal.

We are especially addicted to strong, hot coffee and "dips" at our house and the following are our favorites. The Surprise Ball can be made up and kept in the refrigerator indefinitely (if the family doesn't know it's there).

Surprise Ball

- 1/2 pound package Kraft's Old English cheese
- 1/2 stick butter or margarine
- 1 package wedge cut cream cheese
- Heinz' steak sauce
- Finely chopped nuts

Let cheeses and butter stand at room temperature until softened, then cream together thoroughly. Season with salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons paprika, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt and 1/2 teaspoon onion salt. This is best done with the hands and is very messy and must be returned to refrigerator to harden enough to handle. Scrape on the waxed paper and mould into a ball. If for family use, make into two smaller balls. With iced teaspoon cut hole in center nearly to the bottom and fill hole with steak sauce (this is the surprise part). Cover top with the cheese removed from hole and smooth rest of it over the ball. Then roll in the nuts or pat them on. Wrap in foil or waxed paper; remove from refrigerator at least an hour before serving. Decorate with a stuffed olive and bit of parsley if you want it "partified" and serve surrounded with plain Ritz crackers.

Avocado Crab Dip

- 1 large avocado
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 can crab meat
- salt and paprika to taste

Split avocado lengthwise, remove seed. Save skins after removing pulp carefully to skin. Season with lemon juice, salt and paprika and what have you, and cream thoroughly. Flake crab meat and mix lightly with avocado mixture and serve in the skins with cheese crackers.

Quicklets

Melt one package of chocolate chips over hot water. Add 1 1/2 cups coarsely crushed Fritos and 1/2 cup chopped nuts, and drop by teaspoonfuls on buttered cookie sheet, to harden.

Howard To Lead Revival Services

Dr. Herbert R. Howard, pastor of Park Cities Baptist church in Dallas, will be the leader for revival services at the College Station First Baptist church the week of Jan. 31—Feb. 7.

The Rev. R. D. Longshore, pastor of the College Station church, announced that Howard will speak at each of the services.

Howard was the main speaker for Religious Emphasis week last year. Longshore said he believes residents as well as students will enjoy his messages.

Howard is pastor advisor of the Baptist Student union at Southern Methodist university and is active in YMCA work.

Music for the revival will be directed by Gene Layman, minister of music for the Baptist church at College Station.

BAFB Wives Set Officer Election

The Non-Commissioned Officers Wives' club of Bryan air force base will hold their first election of officers at 8 p. m. tonight at the NCO Mess.

The operating committee, which has steered the group since activation two months ago, set the installation date for Jan. 21. Col. Arvid E. Olson, base commander, will address the group then.

The nominating committee has recommended two candidates for each of the seven offices.

To prevent food odors in your refrigerator, wash the interior with a solution of two tablespoons of baking soda to one quart of water. Rinse with clear warm water and wipe dry.

Fees Payable Now In Fiscal Office

Corps and non-corps students may now start paying fees for the coming semester, according to the fiscal department.

The corps students may pay for the whole semester or by installments as it has been done in the past. The payment for the whole semester is $225.95 and the first installment is $65.10.

The tickets for the non-corps students to eat in the dining hall were received Tuesday and can be purchased now. These tickets can only be paid for by the month and the first installment is the same as for corps students.

Board, Council Discuss City Sewer Problem

Problems of the College Station sewage disposal system were presented last night to the Citizens Advisory board at a dinner meeting of the city council and the board.

The board, appointed by the mayor and the council, will study the problems and make recommendations for their solutions. These recommendations will be studied by the council, who will decide what action will be taken.

The advisory board set its next meeting for Jan. 29, at which time they will discuss possible solutions to the problems.

These problems, as outlined by S. R. Wright, chairman of the board, deal only with the southern part of the city.

"Residences in the southern part of the city must use septic tanks," he said. "Some house do not even have these tanks."

A six-page summary of the problems was submitted by Fred J. Benson, city engineer. He also gave the committee an outline of what could be done to give the city adequate sewage disposal. Benson estimated the cost of the proposals from $280,000 to $345,000.

"It will be up to the citizens Advisory board to recommend what action should be taken," said Ron Boswell, city manager. "After the board recommends a solution, then the city council will act on the problem."

There's nothing like mushrooms—canned or cooked lightly in butter—to dress up a meal. Combine them with cooked peas; or add them to a soup; or glorify hamburgers with them.

'March on Polio' Planned This Month

The Mothers March on Polio will be held this month, said W. S. McCulley, chairman of the Brazos county March of Dimes.

When a date is picked for the Mothers March, mothers will accept donations from residents who signify they wish to contribute by leaving their porch lights on. Mrs. John V. Perry will be in charge of the mothers' drive.

McCulley also announced committee chairman for the drive. Those appointed are Miss Beverly Harrell, cards; Leon Hayes, schools and colleges; Bob Tomlinson and Jerry Massey, coin collectors;

Jones Ramsey, special events; Capt. Joe Brusse, police protection.

Mrs. T. W. Leland, Joe Vincent, C. G. White, clubs; Mrs. Jack Marsh, Mrs. J. O. Alexander, Miss Emily Ritter, mothers march; Dr. John J. Sperry, research progress; Miss Louise Dishman, scrap book; Lt. M. V. Vaskov, Bryan air force base.

Mrs. John Bishop, stenographer; Howard Berry, photographer; John Vitopil, advertising; Red Smith, telephone; Rev. R. L. Herring, ministerial; Sol Klein, theater.

Student Loan Secretary To Leave A&M Soon

Mrs. Dorothy Gray, secretary to George Long, manager of the student labor and loan office, will leave A&M at the end of this semester to join her husband Charles, who is doing research at Lake Caddo.

Mrs. Gray has worked for the student labor and loan office for the last two and a half years. During that time, she has filled out many student loan applications and assisted a large number of students in obtaining jobs.

Mrs. Delaplane Speaks At Newcomers Meeting

Mrs. Walter Delaplane gave two monologue selections at the meeting of the Newcomers club yesterday afternoon at the YMCA.

Her readings included "By the Waters of Babylon" by Stephen Vincent Benet and "The Conversion of a Saint" by Amy Lowell.

The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. K. L. Dixon, club president. She corrected an error that appears in the yearbook that states a person is eligible for membership during her first two years of residence. She explained that the book should have read "three years." Mrs. Delaplane was introduced by Mrs. John A. Way.

Hostesses for meeting were Mrs. George Huebner, chairman, Mrs. John Barlow and Mrs. Charles Bretschneider.

The tea table was set with an heirloom embroidered handkerchief cloth. The centerpiece and two matching flower pieces were of pink carnations accented by Baby's breath and a pink spray of maiden-hair fern. Pink mints and pink iced cake carried out the color scheme.

Mrs. Ray George presided at the tea service, which was of antique silver. The service belongs to Mrs. Charles Workman and is known to be at least 100 years old.
