Art Teacher Talks To Extension Club

Painting is a matter of emotion, but it has been overstressed that persons in the art world are temperamental," said Mrs. Ralph L. Terry, who addressed members of the Extension Service Club Thursday afternoon in the Memorial Student Center.

The guest speaker was introduced by Mrs. John E. Hutchison after the members had been led in the club collect.

"The feeling a painter puts into a painting is what makes it great—the subject itself. If a painter doesn't have feeling for what he is doing, that painting will not be a success," Terry explained.

"Most people do not know what we mean to do as painters when we paint," she continued. "Accurate representation is not what painters strive for. We have photography to take care of that. Rather, painters attempt to add something of themselves and tell their own particular story."

At the end of her talk, Mrs. Terry presented three paintings which had been prepared by Jo Ann Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Walker; Mrs. Lee Smith, jr.; and Susan Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bush.

Guests attending the club meeting were Mrs. T. E. Rattan, Mrs. Leona M. Egan, Mrs. Price Hobgood and Miss Bush and Mrs. Terry. Mrs. G. G. Gibson announced that Mrs. Charles Hensarling, 2707

Cliff Street in Bryan, had been added to the membership roll.

Following the program was social hour during which coffee, canapes and cake squares were served. Mrs. H. H. Williamson presided at the tea service. The table was draped with a hand crocheted cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums interspersed with yellow satin ribbon. It was flanked by two yellow tapers.

Hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Hutchison, Mrs. Wallace Kimbrough, Mrs. J. D. Prewit, Mrs. M. C. Jaynes, Mrs. Uel D. Thompson and Mrs. R. R. Lancaster.

Pines in Winter

Among the many kinds of trees in existence, very few retain their foliage during the cold winter months. Only a few withstand the driving winds and storms and still maintain beautiful green branches.

The graceful scene below shows a remarkable characteristic in the pine tree. Some miraculous element within the pine enables it to display its lush greenery amid the whiteness of fallen snow.

Such are the amazing qualities of nature—the millions of wonders in God's creation.

In order to understand more fully the God-given powers within ourselves, we must study the Holy Word and attend regularly the services of the Church. By doing this we will come to realize our potentialities and talents and will learn to live a fuller more useful life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
