

AAUW Speaker Discusses Music

The general music lover has come to tolerate, even to accept as pleasurable, discord and key confusions which at the beginning of this century would have been rejected as ridiculous.

This was a statement made by Frank Coulter in his talk "Appreciation of Contemporary Music" at the meeting of the American Association of University Women last night at the Bryan Women's club.

The speaker, who was introduced by vice president and program chairman, Mrs. Horace Blank, illustrated his speech by selections from modern composers on records and one the piano.

During the business meeting the president, Mrs. Walter Delaplane, appointed to the nominating committee Mesdames J. H. Sorrels, D. F. Leipper and K. L. Dixon.

Two copies of "Abunthot Anthology of Children's Literature" were shown to the group. One will be presented to the A&M Consolidated school library and the other to the Carnegie library in Bryan as a memorial to Michael Sorrels, who was killed in an accident this fall.

Each copy contained a bookplate designed by Mrs. R. V. Andrews. Mrs. L. A. Knowles, education chairman, accepted the copy for the A&M Consolidated schools.

Announcement was made by Mrs. W. L. Russell of the international relations committee meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Vance Wilson Wednesday. Fazler Quazi,

A&M student from Pakistan, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Delaplane introduced the new legislative chairman Mrs. L. A. Gimbrede.

Hostesses for the social hour that preceded the meeting were Mesdames N. Skaggs Glasscock, George Potter, Emmett Wallace, Spencer Buchanan and Leipper.

During the social hour Mrs. Walcott sold poll taxes to the members.

Architect Wives To Select Officers

Election of officers will be held at the meeting of the Architectural Wives society at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the YMCA.

Saturday night the society held its annual party honoring graduating wives at the Brazos county A&M clubhouse. Flora Mae Nickerson, fall semester president, was presented with a P.H.T. (Pulling Hubby Through) diploma by Melvin Rotsch of the architecture department.

About 16 couples attended for a covered dish supper followed by games and dancing.

Fall semester officers of the society were Mrs. Nickerson, president; Bobby Sholar, vice-president; Kathryn Scott, secretary-treasurer; Roddie Rae, social chairman; and Mary Lou Lassen, program chairman.

Church Briefs

A&M Gardeners Hear Mrs. Angell At Meeting

Mrs. E. L. Angell was the featured speaker for the meeting of the A&M Garden club at the meeting Friday afternoon at the Memorial Student Center.

Chrysanthemum growing in the College Station area was the theme of the meeting. Introduced by Mrs. John Hugh Hill, Mrs. Angell, drawing from her own experience with chrysanthemums, outlined a step-by-step method for their successful growth.

Mrs. Sauer's arrangement was made up of dried foliage and featured wood roses in a brown base.

Mrs. Penberthy and Mrs. Baker made a cactus arrangement with a spoon yucca flower set in sand in a pottery bowl. The arrangement was carried out in shades of yellow and green.

A display of flowers from January gardens was set up by Mrs. Ben Cook and Mrs. Tyrus Timm. Mrs. Albert B. Stevens arranged the table of the month.

Mrs. S. R. Gammon presided at the tea service.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. J. S. Mogford, Mrs. P. W. Burns, Mrs. Joe E. Davis, Mrs. Timm and Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. Fitch To Do Table Decorations

Mrs. David Fitch, newly appointed by President David H. Morgan to serve on the Employees Dinner club committee, will be in charge of table decorations for the January meeting of the club at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Memorial Student Center ballroom.

There will be dancing following the dinner, said Mrs. J. B. Coon, general chairman of arrangements for the evening. Lee Thompson and Stanley P. Clark will be in charge of the music.

Reservations for the dinner will be accepted until 2 p.m. Wednesday at the main desk of the MSC, according to Dean Walter H. Delaplane, dinner club chairman.

Assisting Delaplane with publicity for the occasion are Maj. J. C. Lowell and Mrs. Donald D. Burchard.

Mrs. Fitch will serve for the remainder of the current year on the dinner club committee replacing Mrs. S. T. Keim.

Your hands on the Future!

When you grip the wheel of an Air Force jet, your hands are on a fast, high flying future that leads to the top in jet aviation.

● Once behind the controls of an Air Force jet, you leave the humdrum of everyday life... soar far above the cares of the crowd into a bright new future of adventure and excitement. You're part of a select flying team, playing for the highest stakes of all... mastery of the Jet Age! You'll win too, because you've been trained to win. You have confidence in yourself, in your fellows, and in your plane, the fastest and safest flying equipment in the world.

As an Air Force Aviation Cadet, you get in on the ground floor of jet aviation, learn jet flight with the latest equipment and best instructors. You graduate as an Air Force lieutenant earning over $5,000 a year... a man thoroughly prepared for leadership in both military and commercial aviation. Join the many fine young men who keep their hands on the future. Train as an Aviation Cadet!

You may be eligible
To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must be at least a high school graduate. However, you will be of more value to the Air Force if you stay in college, graduate, and then volunteer for training. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

★ Win an Air Force Commission
★ Earn over $5,000 A Year

HERE'S WHAT YOU DO:

1. Take your high school diploma or certificate of graduation and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination at government expense.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

WHERE TO GET MORE DETAILS:
Contact your nearest Aviation Cadet Selection Team, Air Force ROTC Unit or Air Force Recruiting Officer. Or write to: Aviation Cadet, Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.
