

Ags Play Potent TCU Here Tonight; Fish Idle

When the TCU Horned Frogs invade DeWare Field House tonight for a Southwest conference basketball game with Coach John Floyd's Aggies, the scoring ace to stop will be Ray Warren.

Radio Station KORA will broadcast the game. No freshman game is scheduled.

Sidelined with an injury early in the season, Warren was expected to lead the Frogs back into the winning column, but TCU has dropped four of five games since his return.

Byron (Buster) Brannon in recent games has been Henry Ohlen, 6-7 center, who has fallen off his usual scoring pace. Tuesday night the big center tallied only five points in the game with Rice.

Indications are that tonight Brannon will bench Ohlen and start Charles Brown at center. Brown is a 6-4 junior who transferred from Wharton junior college, where he was all-America in 1952.

Registering losses in their first two conference games, the Horned Frogs will be seeking a win to stay out of the league cellar.

Starters for TCU tonight probably will be Warren 6-7, and Sonny Lampkin, 6-2, forwards; Brown, center; and Buddy Brumley 5-11, and Virgil Baker, 6-1, guards.

For the Aggies, it will be James Addison, 6-6, and Howard Home-yer, 6-5, or John McIlhenny, 6-3, forwards; Roy Martin, 6-8, center; and John Fortenberry, 6-3, and Joe Hardgrove, 6-2, or Pat McCrory, 5-11, guards.

After tonight's game, the Aggies give up basketball until Feb. 1, when they meet the Arkansas Razorbacks in Fayetteville.

Coach Larry Hayes' freshmen, with a record of five wins against a single loss, also will return to the cage wars on Feb. 1, traveling to Jacksonville to meet Lon Morris junior college.

Four To Get Awards at A&M Sports Banquet

Four awards tomorrow will be made to football players at the annual winter sports banquet honoring the A&M football and cross-country teams.

The banquet will be held at 7 p. m. in Sbisah hall. Tickets, which are $2.50 per person, will be sold at the door. About 500 are expected to attend.

The following awards will be made to footballers:

Bert Phaff award to the best blocker; Lipscomb-Loveless award to the most valuable player and the team captain; Herb Smith award to the best little man on the squad; and the A. M. Waldrop award to the best lineman.

The Smith award this year will be presented for the first time, in honor of the little Aggie end on the 1939 national champs who was killed in World War II. H. E. and A. O. Nicholson of Dallas will make the award.

Louis E. Throgmorton, Dallas insurance executive, will be the speaker. W. N. Colson, Bryan insurance man, will be the toastmaster.

He Studies Grass, Too

McCrory Talks Basketball Easily

By TERRY MICHAEL Battalion Sports Staff

A big box of grass stared this reporter in the face when he walked into the room of Pat McCrory yesterday.

Like a lot of students, McCrory a senior animal husbandry major, who is a junior in eligibility was studying for a quiz the next day, but he didn't take long to change the subject to basketball.

McCrory, for those who didn't see the Texas game, is the Aggie guard who made a general nuisance of himself to the Steers on defense in his first varsity starting assignment. He scored 12 points to lead Cadet scoring and gracefully dunked in three straight jump shots early in the fourth quarter which gave A&M a 38-37 lead. He is now fifth in team scoring with 47 points.

Texas BIG Game

That was the BIG game of his basketball career. "We really wanted to win that game," McCrory said. "Not only because it was Texas, but also because we wanted to win one for the coach."

Everyone was playing his heart out."

McCrory said, "I think things are going to straighten out, and that we'll play much better ball before the season is over." "We have a great bunch of freshman players," he continued, "They seem to be well satisfied here and should produce a good ball club in the future."

Basketball Important

For a long time, basketball has played a big part in McCrory's life. When he was in about the sixth grade, he picked up a basketball and has been playing with one ever since.

His home town of Waelder will sound familiar to a lot of Aggie fans. Leroy Miksch, captain and high-scoring of last season's team, also is from there. The two played together in high school.

"Waelder is really a basketball town," said McCrory. "Everybody turns out when there's a game. When we went to the state finals in Austin, our city police even gave us an escort." The team played in the state finals twice when McCrory was on it.

Ags To Compete In SWC Relays

The Southwest conference swimming relays will be held in P. L. Downs jr. natatorium Saturday at 3 p. m.

No admission will be charged. A&M, Texas, and SMU are the only teams expected to participate, but Rice may compete also.

A&M Coach Art Adamson says, "SMU, the defending champions, will probably win. TU will have a strong team, and we have a pretty good team ourselves."

Coach Red Barr of SMU has said that the Mustangs may be even stronger than last year.

Aggie competitors in the freestyle will be Don Horne, Jim Burns, Burt Koegl, John Speich, Gayle Klipple and Frank Gajewsky.

Breaststrokers will be Casey Snell, Bill Bedford, Ben Allen, and Paul Wallin.

Backstrokers will be Tommy Devenport, Roland Baird, and Sherwin Rubin.

Divens will be John Cameron, Irvin Stawick, Billy Tutor and George Parr.

Events will be 400 yd. relays in freestyle, breaststroke, and backstroke, with each man swimming 100 yds; diving (three men to a team); a distance medley relay of three men with the first swimming 100 yds, the second 200 yds, and the third 400 yds; and a double medley relay consisting of 6 men, each swimming 100 yds.

Scoring will be on the basis of 14 points for first place, 10 for second, 8 for third and 6 for fourth.

SMU has two top SWC breaststrokers in Bayle and Bollen and a SWC 100 and 200 yd. backstroke champ, McMillin.

Texas has Bobby Broadnax, low and high board diving champ; freshman star Richard Lawler, and last year's first, second, and third place winners in the freestyle 440 yards and 1,500 meters.

Webb, Wilson Give Last Acts Tonight

Conrad Webb and Bud Wilson, seniors, will give their last performance for the A&M tumbling team tonight at halftime of the TCU basketball game.

Webb, who has been clown for the past year and a half, is from El Paso and has been on the team for four years. Wilson is from Houston and has been on the team for three years.
