

Clubs Hear Mrs. Dudley

Mrs. L. E. Dudley, president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, was featured speaker for a seated tea sponsored by the five federated women's clubs of College Station and Bryan.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Tyrus Timm of the Extension Service club. She opened the meeting and welcomed out-of-town guests, Mrs. H. C. Oglesbee of Waco, fourth district president, and Mrs. Raymond Love, president of the Reading club of Navasota.

Mrs. David H. Morgan read the club Collect.

Then Mrs. Timm introduced the club presidents who in turn introduced the board chairmen.

Presidents are Mrs. Carl Lyman of the Campus Study club, Mrs. Alisher Waldrop, of the Bryan Women's club, Mrs. W. J. Moore of the Extension Service club, Mrs. C. C. Carlton of the Reading club and Mrs. Emmett Smith of the Evening Study club.

The program leader, Mrs. C. W. Simmons, was then introduced, and she presented Mrs. Robert Smith jr., who sang several numbers accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Grey.

Mrs. Simmons then introduced Mrs. Dudley. She told of the founding, origination and heritage of the national and the Texas federation.

She told how club work could help people both in living together and working together.

After Mrs. Dudley's talk, coffee, tea and tarts were served to the members and guests.

The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with bouquet of white chrysanthemums and blue irises.

Presiding at the tea service were Mrs. Oglesbee and Mrs. Grace Martin, a life member of the Texas federation.

Extension Club Holds Old Time Medicine Show

C. H. Bates, as "Dr. Fixer", presided over an old time medicine show for members of the Extension Service club and their families Monday night.

Assisting Dr. Fixer were Mrs. Ben Cook and John Hutchinson, who peddled medicine through the audience from a medicine wagon set up in the Memorial Student Center.

Guests were served coffee and eclairs by Mrs. C. G. Gibson and Mrs. J. D. Prewitt. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Angell, Dean Charles N. Shepardson, Millie Bennett, and Mrs. N. N. Snapp.

Out-of-town guests were Louise Bryant, who is with the point 4 program in Lima, Peru, and S. T. Warrington, who is with the U.S. department of agriculture.

"French artist", Thomas Bishop, made free hand sketches of well-known characters and gave a lesson in art to his prospective "student", Ide P. Trotter.

The administrative quartet, composed of G. G. Gibson, J. D. Prewitt, W. N. Williamson and E. C. Martin, began harmonizing "Clementine" but gave up when the audience began to walk out.

The "whistling lassies," Gladys Martin and Jimmie Nell Harris, also performed. Hula dancers were Margaret Bracher, Fannie Brown Eaton and Louise Mason.

R. E. Callendar's buck and wing dance number was followed by "barnyard noises" by Stumpy the Woodsman, C. W. Simmons. A. B. Kemmerly played chopsticks on bottles filled at various levels with water. Mrs. L. C. Coffey delivered the sermon, "It's In The Book."

Members of the Extension Club entertainment committee were Mesdames J. C. Gaines, A. D. Folweiler, M. K. Thornton, E. C. Brown, A. M. Meekma, E. H. Bush, C. M. Patterson and Miss Maeona Cox.

FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mrs. John A. Way

(Ed note:—Guest editor for this week's column is Margaret Way, wife of Col. John A. Way, head of air science at A&M. The Ways have three children, John, 15; Melanee, 13; and Nancy Jane, seven. Mrs. Way has always been interested in cooking and food preparation, and is a member of the foods group of the College Women's Social club. She is also a member of the Newcomers club and the Officers Wives club. Her interests include playing bridge, golf and the organ.)

Arabian Pork Chops

This is my party favorite. It needs no watching or last minute preparation.

- 6 lean pork chops
- 6 tablespoons raw rice
- 1 large onion
- 2 tomatoes
- 1 green pepper
- 3 cups hot water
- Salt and pepper

Sear chops on both sides. Arrange in a casserole and on each chop place one tablespoon of rice, one slice onion, one slice tomato, two strips green pepper. Cover with hot water; add seasonings and bake in a moderate oven for three hours. (350 degrees). Serves six.

This is a complete and satisfying meal when served with a large tossed green salad, garlic bread and plenty of good coffee.

Caramel Chip Pie

- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 cup dark brown sugar
- 2 cups milk
- 3 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 square chocolate

Mix dry ingredients and add milk. Cook over low heat until thickened. (about 15 minutes). Add egg yolks and cook five more minutes. Remove from fire and add vanilla and chipped chocolate.

Fill cooled baked pie shell and top with meringue. Brown in moderate oven.

Party Dip

- This recipe was given to me by Mrs. M. L. Daniel.
- 1 large (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese
- 1 large very ripe avocado
- 1 can green chiles and tomatoes (well drained)
- Salt to taste

Cream cheese, add mashed avocado and the can of chiles and tomatoes. Mix well. Add salt. Good with Fritos, potato chips or tostados.

Fudge

- 4 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 large can evaporated milk
- 1 pint jar marshmallow creme
- 2 cups chopped pecans
- 3 pkgs. semi sweet chocolate
- 1/2 stick butter

Bring to a rolling boil the sugar, milk and butter. Boil for five minutes. Pour the boiling mixture over the chocolate chips, nuts and marshmallow creme. Stir until chocolate is melted. Pour out on cookie sheet. Cut in squares. Makes five pounds.

If this is stored in fruit jars, it will stay creamy indefinitely.

LOUPOT'S

$1.25 COFFEE?

Trade rumors indicate a possible price for coffee of $1.25 per pound retail. This is not our prediction. But if you like to hedge against rumors, you may stock up on coffee at the rate of one pound per $1 purchase of other goods this weekend at about our average cost, which is somewhat less than current replacement costs. Otherwise, limit one please.
