Official Notice

The Engineering Drawing Department will offer a new survey course in engineering graphics, E.D. 302, beginning with the Spring Semester 1954. This course has been set up as a technical elective for engineering and science majors who have had E.D. 105 and E.D. 106, or the equivalent, and who wish to expand their ability to apply the graphical method of attack in solving scientific problems. This course will give the student a background knowledge so that he may select the most economical approach, either algebraic or graphical, in solving his technological problems.

Students who are interested in enrolling for this course should leave their names at the Engineering Drawing Office, Room C, Anchor Hall.

W. E. Street
Engineering Drawing Department

All students who are on scholastic probation or class attendance probation for the fall semester, 1953, and all students passing less than 12 hours or making less than 12 grade points at the end of the fall semester must secure approval of their respective deans to register for the spring semester 1954. The several deans or their representatives will interview such students in their offices on Thursday and Friday, January 28 and 29, 1954.

"Poetry of Romanticism"

Morgan Talks to Social Club

Dr. S. S. Morgan, head of the English department, spoke on "Poetry of Romanticism" at the meeting of the College Women's Social club Friday at the Memorial Student Center.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Carl Landiss, Mrs. O. William Dayton, Miss Bess Edwards and Mrs. Charles F. Williams.

The president, Mrs. A. D. Folweiler recognized the visitors and new staff members at the meeting.

The program chairman, Mrs. Fred Elliott, presented Dr. Morgan. He first presented each member with mimeographed material consisting of poems for study and thought.

He named the outstanding poets of the late 18th and early 19th century as his favorites because they were the writers of the poetry of the romantic period.

He compared romanticism and classicism by reading and discussing selections by Dryden, Pope, Keats, Wordsworth and Coleridge.

After his talk tea and cookies were served to the members and guests.

The tea table was accented by a centerpiece of red carnations and ivy flanked by three red candles. Miss Gladys Martin and Mrs. Barlow Irvin presided at the tea service.

Hamptons Give Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hampton entertained with a coffee at their home Sunday morning honoring his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Hampton of Wallaceville, on her 73rd birthday.

The table was decorated with a centerpiece of pink cyclamen flanked by tall pink tapers. The pink angel birthday cake was served by Mrs. P. W. Barker.

Those assisting with the serving were Mrs. A. D. Adamson, Mrs. J. W. Sorenson, Mrs. Emil Mamaliga and Mrs. Raymond George.

The speakers table held a centerpiece of red carnations and candy tuft, and the entrance table featured an arrangement of candy tuft and daisies.

The Christian training class of the Church of the Nazarene will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday.

The schedule for Wednesday evening prayer meetings includes,

Dr. Morgan holds a BA degree from the University of Cincinnati and an MA and PhD from Ohio State university. He has been teaching at A&M since 1921.

He was appointed head of the English department in 1952. His specialty is 18th century drama, and he originated the course in modern drama at A&M.

Committee Chosen For Anniversary

Seven teachers at A&M Consolidated high school were named by Superintendent L. S. Richardson to the local committee of arrangements for celebrating the 100th anniversary of public education in Texas.

Committee members are Mrs. D. W. Fleming, chairman; Mrs. Esther Coney, Mrs. H. L. Heaton, Mrs. Charles Byrd, Mrs. Georgia Williamson, Mrs. They Owen and W. A. Tarrow.

The main purposes of the committee, according to Richardson, will be to arouse adult interest and concern for the progress of public education, to secure participation by all age groups in a year-long observance of the centennial year, and to guide the interest and participation into a long-range program of co-operative action for better schools.

A&M High School Gets New Teacher

Kenneth C. Morgan assumed duties as a science teacher in the A&M Consolidated High School today replacing Mrs. Ovonne Darter, who has resigned.

Morgan holds both the Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in Entomology from Mississippi State College. He has been employed for the past two years as an entomologist for Magee Cotton Poisons, Inc., in Magee, Mississippi.

Mothers Club Plans Covered Dish Party

The Brazos county A&M Mother's club will have a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ide P. Trotter at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Past presidents of the club will be honored guests for the affair. The president, Mrs. A. C. Magee, urged the members to attend.

Phillips to Speak At Legion Meeting

Drury Phillips of Huntsville, who was department commander for Texas of the American Legion in 1937 will speak to the A&M College Post 541 at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Social room of the Memorial Student Center.

Lawrence A. DuBose of the Civil Engineering Department at the college, who is adjutant for Post 541, in announcing Mr. Phillips' talk, said that he now is connected with Sam Houston Post 95 at Huntsville.

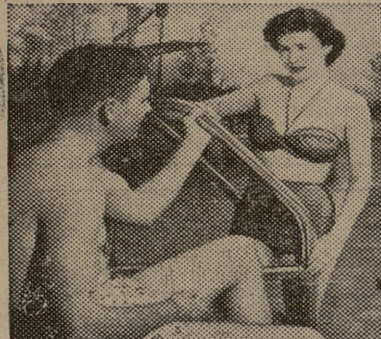

DuBose also invited all interested veterans to attend the meeting. Refreshments are planned, he added.

DuBose also said the January 28 meeting will be Permanent Charter Night for the Post, and that all 1953 members and new members for 1954 will become permanent charter members of the Post.

College Men! Fly with the Finest in the Air Force

QUALIFIED APPLICANTS WIN WINGS AS AIR FORCE LIEUTENANTS, EARN OVER $5,000 A YEAR!

1. Pilot training begins at Lackland Air Force Base, where Aviation Cadets get 3 months of officer indoctrination.

2. It's a hard grind, but Cadets also find time to relax.

3. In primary training the Cadet flies his first planes, a Piper Cub, and this T-6. Later he will fly the more advanced T-28.

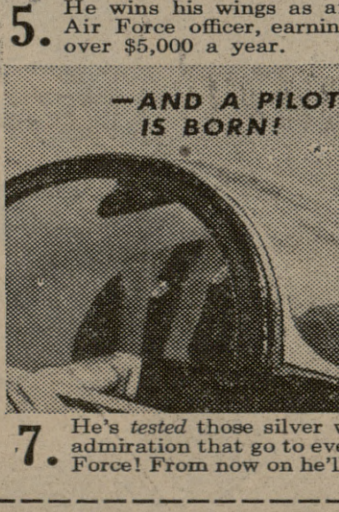

4. After flying conventional planes, he moves on to jets... going up with an instructor in this T-33 trainer.

5. He wins his wings as an Air Force officer, earning over $5,000 a year.

How to qualify for Pilot Training as an Aviation Cadet!

To qualify, you must be at least a high school graduate. However, you will be of more value to the Air Force if you stay in college, graduate, and then volunteer for training. In addition, you must be between the ages of 19 and 26½, and in top physical condition. If you think you are eligible, here's what you do: Take your high school diploma or certificate of graduation together with a copy of your birth certificate down to your nearest Air Force base or recruiting station. Fill out the application they give you. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class.

6. Then winds up his training with the latest and fastest planes in the air.

7. He's tested those silver wings... And won the respect and admiration that go to every jet pilot in the United States Air Force! From now on he'll rule the skies in an Air Force jet.

• For a fast, exciting and rewarding career, make your future in the sky as an Air Force pilot. As a college student, you are now able to join that small, select band of young men who race the wind in Air Force jets. You'll have the same opportunities to learn, advance and establish yourself in the growing new world of jet aviation.

Fly as one of the best

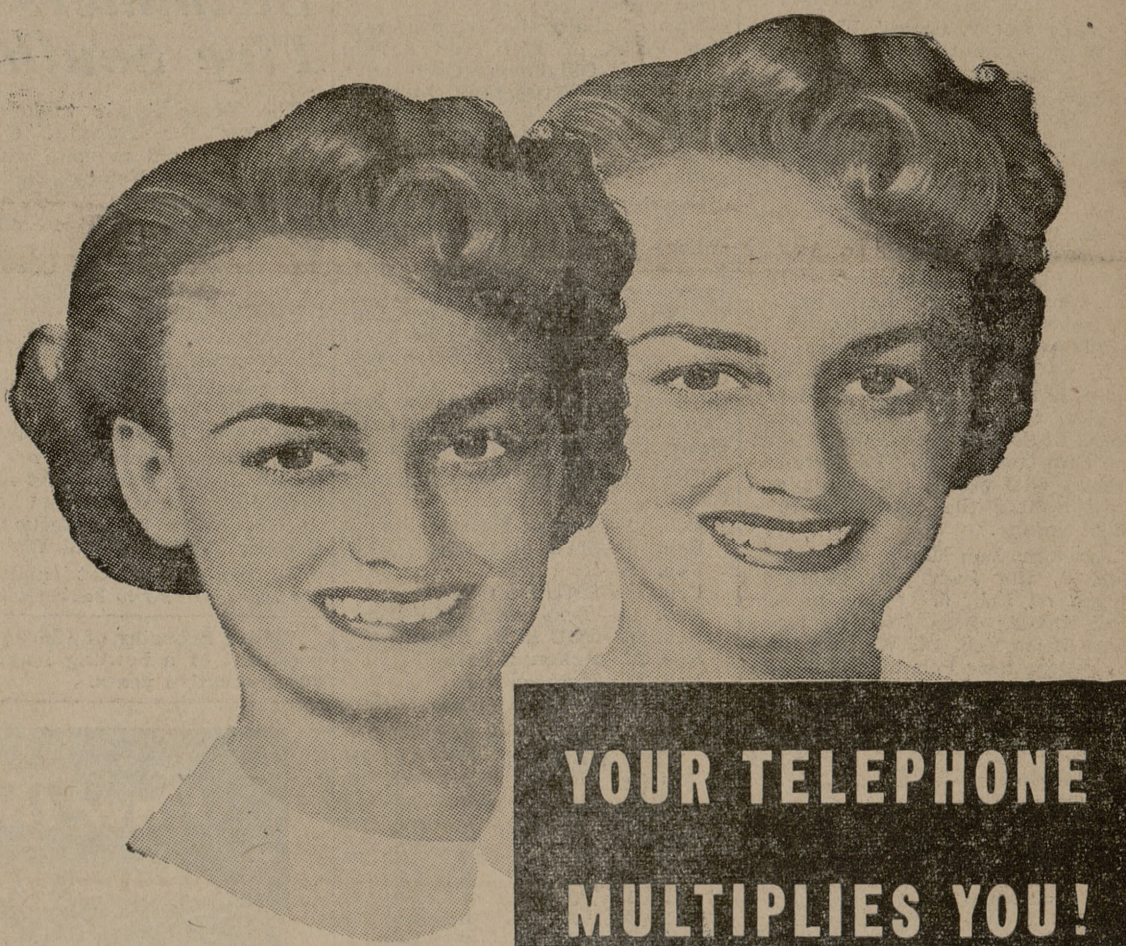

The pilot training you get in the Air Force is the best in the world—the kind that makes jet aces. You'll learn to fly the fastest, latest planes in the air—and fly them safely and well. Those who look to the skies will look to you for leadership and confidence.

Into a brilliant future

You'll graduate as an Air Force lieutenant, earning over $5,000 a year. Your Air Force wings will serve as credentials for important positions both in military and commercial aviation. Air Force wings mark you as the very best in the flying profession.

WHERE TO GET MORE DETAILS:

Contact your nearest Aviation Cadet Selection Team, Air Force ROTC Unit, or Air Force Recruiting Officer. Or write to: Aviation Cadet Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.

YOUR TELEPHONE MULTIPLIES YOU!

It's practically impossible to measure the real value of your telephone. In shoe leather and energy saved... in minutes and hours saved... in savings of gasoline and wear-and-tear on the family car... in things accomplished in an ordinary day—your telephone does an enormous job for a small cost. Today you can be here, there, everywhere at once through calls you make and calls you receive.

Telephone service has not gone up in price nearly as much as most other things you buy.

MOST PEOPLE "pay" their telephone bill with far fewer hours of work than it took ten years ago. On top of that, the service is vastly better—faster, more efficient, and you can call about twice as many people. But on the other hand, the service costs far more to supply.
