

The A&M Consolidated high school band will present a concert for students at an assembly program Friday, February 26.

The program will include "Street Scene", "Blue Tango", "Prelude in C Minor", "Adagio Contabile" and "TV Suite".

Also "Hollywood Serenade", "Chopin Melody", "Si Trocadero", "Ballad for Evening" and "The Thunder".

An assembly Tuesday heard Rabbi Milton Rosenbaum of Ft. Worth speak on "Religious Living". Rabbi Rosenbaum is here for Religious Emphasis week. Last Friday also at an assembly, Ramon Agrasar, graduate student at A&M from Argentina, spoke on life in that country.

The Student council at a meeting Monday planned a talent show scheduled for April 2. They are going to ask civic clubs to put on acts as part of the program in addition to numbers that will be presented by student talent.

Miss Billie Katherine Beckworth from the Lone Star Gas company in Waco will give a demonstration for the Future Homemakers of American Cooking School. It will take place in the Homemaking lab 7:30 p. m. next Wednesday.

On March 13 the Chorus will compete in the Interscholastic League Choral contest at the University of Houston.

They will sing three selections, two of which were chosen from a list of required numbers. They are "Cherubim Song Number 7" by Bortolianski, and "Gloria" from 12th mass by Mozart.

The optimal selection will be "They Call the Wind Maria" from Paint Your Wagon.

Local AVMA Chapter Will Meet Thursday

The Auxiliary of American Veterinary Medicine Association will meet in the Social Room of the Memorial Student Center at 8:00 p. m. Thursday.

ENGINEERS

BOEING AIRPLANE COMPANY

PERSONAL INTERVIEWS
on campus
February 18 and 19

Boeing has many positions open for graduating and graduate students. These opportunities are in all branches of engineering (AE, CE, EE, ME and related fields). Also needed are physicists and mathematicians with advanced degrees.

Fields of activity include DESIGN, RESEARCH, and PRODUCTION. Your choice of location: Seattle, Washington or Wichita, Kansas.

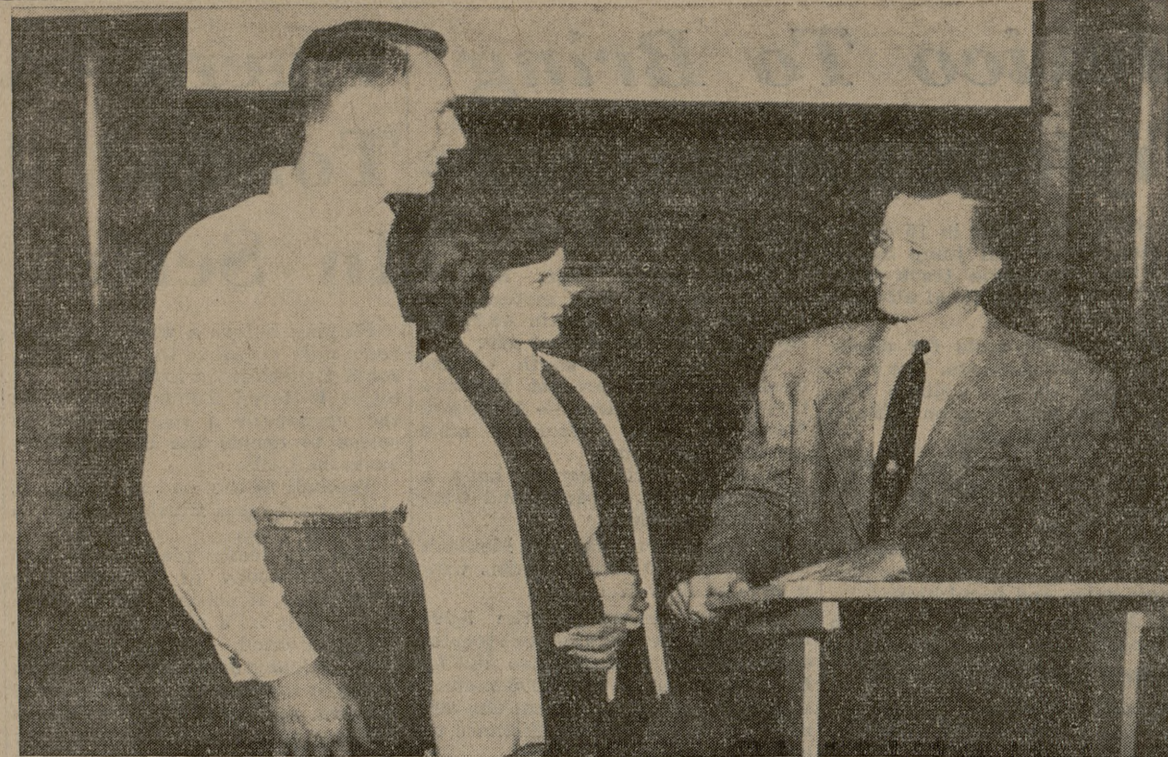

A group meeting, first day of campus visit, will precede personal interviews. Details of openings, nature of assignments, company projects, etc., will be explained. Married students are invited to bring their wives.

Come and learn about these excellent opportunities with an outstanding engineering organization—designers and builders of the B-47 and B-52 multi-jet bombers, America's first jet transport and the BOMARC F-99 pilotless aircraft project.

TALKING IT OVER—John E. and Alta Vick listen as Dr. Sidney Hamilton, Religious Emphasis week discussion leader for married students, explains his topic. Tonight he will discuss "Family Finances" and tomorrow, "Problems in Child Rearing". The discussions are held at 7:15 p. m. in the YMCA chapel and are illustrated by films.

Kiwanis to Give Conservation Prize

The local Kiwanis club has proposed awards for the outstanding youths in agricultural and conservation work in Texas, said J. R. Johnston, chairman of the Kiwanis agriculture and conservation committee.

Awards will be given to outstanding youths in 4-H and FFA clubs throughout the state.

Final plans have not been made for the awards, but they are expected to be completed within a week or 10 days, Johnston said.

Rowe Collection Exhibited For Religious Emphasis

In "Our Image", an art collection painted by Guy Rowe and valued at more than $30,000 will be on display in the Memorial Student Center main show case until Feb. 28 in connection with Religious Emphasis week.

The paintings are owned by Houston Harte, owner of a chain of Texas newspapers, part owner of Harte and Hanks Publishing company and publisher of the book "In Our Image". Rowe spent two years painting the pictures of the Biblical characters in the book.

Mrs. Shawn Reviews Book for Study Club

Mrs. J. L. Shawn presented a book review at the meeting of the Campus Study club yesterday afternoon at the YMCA.

The book, "Skin Deep", by Clarence Kelland, told of several interesting incidents that occur in a New York beauty salon.

The meeting was opened with the Club Collect led by Mrs. E. H. Brock. Members and their guests were greeted by Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Harold Sullivan, hostesses for the day.

During the business meeting Mrs. George L. Huebner reported for the yearbook committee.

Mrs. Price Hobgood, chairman of the education committee, asked for contributions of books and magazines for Lincoln school.

The president, Mrs. Carl Lyman appointed a nominating committee to present a slate of officers for an election to be held March 16.

The nominating committee members are Mrs. John Ashton, Mrs. C. W. Crawford and Mrs. Edward Madeley.

The speaker was then presented by Mrs. L. J. Horn, program chairman.

Friday Program Set

CHS to Celebrate Centennial

"Let's Talk Schools" is the theme of a program celebrating the Texas public school centennial to be presented at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the A&M Consolidated school cafeteria.

The program is sponsored by the educational commission and the centennial committee of the A&M Consolidated schools.

Featured speaker is Dr. Frederick Eby, professor of history and education at the University of Texas. He will speak on "The First Hundred Years".

Other speakers who will give short addresses include L. S. Richardson, superintendent of A&M Consolidated schools, who will discuss "Keeping Up With Changes."

W. A. Tarrow, principal of Lincoln school, will give a short explanation of "Our Program and Some of Our Problems in the Lincoln School".

J. R. Jackson, chairman of the committee on health and safety, will discuss "Our Most Serious Health and Safety Hazards".

Charles LaMotte, president of the educational commission, urged the parents of all school children to attend. The program is open to the public.

Dr. Eby, the featured speaker, well known as an author and lecturer, is listed in Who's Who in America.

He holds an AB degree from McMaster university and a PhD from Clark university and the University of Berlin. He also has honorary degrees from McMaster and Baylor.

Mrs. D. W. Fleming is chairman of the centennial committee.

Food Group to Eat 'Emergency' Meals

Meals from the emergency shelf will be featured on the menu at the monthly luncheon meeting of the foods group of the College Women's social at 1:15 p. m. Friday.

It will meet at the A&M Christian church.

Co-chairmen for the meeting are Mrs. J. W. Sorrenson and Mrs. L. S. O'Bannon. Hostess is Mrs. W. E. Wright.

Prize-Winning Art Displayed in MSC

Thirteen paintings which won awards in the fall show of the Art League of Houston will be on display until Feb. 28, in the Memorial Student Center main show case.

Gary Bourgeois, Raymond Arhelgar, Paul Ross, Louis Hampton, and Chartier Newton of the display arrangement committee are setting up the display.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

It takes three years of steady work To earn a Ph.D. It only takes one pack to know That L.S./M.F.T.

Warren Perry

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES

A comprehensive survey—based on 31,000 student interviews and supervised by college professors—shows that smokers in colleges from coast to coast prefer Luckies to all other brands! The No. 1 reason: Luckies' better taste!

We're rooting for our favorite team! The arguments are loud. But smother-tasting Lucky Strike Wins cheers from all the crowd.
