HAPPY KIDS—These two, attending the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, seemed happy at having their picture taken. The day-old Angora goat kid apparently also is enjoying being held by royalty—Miss Donave Davis, who is "Miss Mohair" of 1954, sweetheart of the Texas Angora Goat Raisers Assn. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, Sabinal, Tex.

Mrs. Hutchinson Elected

Mrs. John E. Hutchinson was elected president of the Extension Service club at a meeting Thursday at the Memorial Student Center.

Other officers are Mrs. W. S. Allen, vice president; Mrs. I. B. Boughton, recording secretary; Mrs. A. H. Karcher, corresponding secretary; Mrs. I. W. Rupel, treasurer; Mrs. A. H. Walker, reporter; Mrs. W. J. Moore, parliamentarian; and Mrs. R. R. Lancaster, historian.

Mrs. Hutchinson was elected the official delegate to the fourth district convention of the federated clubs in Houston. Mrs. Allen was named alternate.

The meeting was opened with the club Collect led by Mrs. W. W. Armistead. Mrs. Dora Barnes, representing the public welfare committee, moved that the club endorse a petition that would call for a tarined probation officer in Brazos county. The motion was carried.

Mrs. G. G. Gibson, membership chairman, presented the name of Mrs. J. E. (Monk) Vance as a new member.

The program, presented by the youth committee, had a theme of glimpses of 4-H club work in Brazos county.

Committee members are Mesdames R. H. Bush, A. L. Smith, T. B. Wood, W. W. Armistead and Miss Frances Reasonover.

Miss Reasonover introduced Emily Ritter, Brazos county home demonstration agent, who presented nine 4-H club members, who presented the program.

The club will meet again March 18, which has been proclaimed by the club as "Texas Day." The style show luncheon has been set for May 19.
