FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mrs. Raymond George

(Ed. note—Guest editor for today's column is Martha George, wife of Ray George, former head football coach. The Georges have two sons, Jack, 11, a student at A&M Consolidated, and Gregg, 5. They are members of St. Mary's Catholic chapel. Mrs. George is a graduate of the University of Southern California where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is an active member of the College Women's Social club, the A&M Garden club, and former president of the Newcomers club.)
These are a few of my "pet" recipes.

Chocolate Ice Box Dessert

Line a dish or pan with wax paper. Cover bottom of pan with a layer of Famous chocolate cookies, breaking remaining cookies into spaces. Moisten this layer with milk or pineapple juice. Roll fine, remainder of cookies.

- | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------------|
| Cream: | Add: |
| ¾ cup of butter | 2 egg yolks (beaten) |
| 1½ cup powdered sugar | Then fold in beaten whites. |
| | 1 cup walnuts chopped fine. |

Pour over cookie layer. Cover creamed mixture with half the crumbs.

Mix ½ pint cream, whipped and sweetened to taste with 1 can strained crushed pineapple

Spread over the crumbs. Cover this creamed mixture with last half of the crumbs. Let stand in the refrigerator overnight. Serve with whipped cream. Serves 10-12.

Crab en Casserole

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------|
| 1 can crab | 2 hardboiled eggs |
| Small package potato chips | 1 green pepper |
| ¼ teaspoon Lea and Perrin sauce | 1 tablespoon catsup |
| 1 small can sliced mushrooms | |

Mix above ingredients with 1 cup white sauce. Season with salt and pepper. Put in buttered baking dish.

Bake until well browned about 20 minutes. Sprinkle with chopped parsley. Serves 4.

Tallarene

- | | |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1 pound of ground beef | 1 pound New York black rind |
| 1 onion | cheese (grated) |
| 6 cans of tomato sauce | 1 can ripe pitted olives |
| 1 package of noodles (8 ounces) | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1 can creamed corn | ½ teaspoon pepper |

Brown your ground beef and onion, salt and pepper. Add tomato sauce and noodles when meat is done. Cook until noodles are tender stirring occasionally. Add corn, grated cheese and olives and put in a casserole in the oven until hot. Serves 4 to 6.

Serve Tallarene with a tossed green salad and garlic French bread and a light dessert and you will have a complete meal.

Coffee Cake

This is a quick delicious, crispy, crunchy, coffee cake.
Mix one package of Pillsbury yellow or white cake mix as it tells on the package

Pour into a large cookie sheet or 2 or 3 cake pans so that the batter is only about ½ inch high in the pan.

Sprinkle the top with pecans, brown sugar, specks of butter and cinnamon, then bake as directed.

Mrs. Angell To Describe Point Count to Bridge Club

Mrs. E. L. Angell will give a talk on the point count in bridge at the meeting of the Aggie Wives bridge club at 7:30 p. m. tonight in rooms 2A and 2B of the Memorial Student Center.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Rachell Fowler, Mrs. Lois Lathane, Mrs. Lucille Prior, Mrs. Jay Jones and Mrs. LaVerne Rhodes.

At the last meeting high score for the regulars was won by Mrs. Mary Lou Hughes. Second high was Mrs. Rachell Fowler and low score went to Mrs. Lois Lathane.

The high score prize for the intermediates went to Mrs. Kathryn Harms.

Extension Service Club

Women Get 'Year' Honors

MRS. FRED ELLIOT
"Member of the Year"

Two members of the Extension Service club recently received new honors.

They are Mrs. Ide P. Trotter, named "club mother of the year" and Mrs. Fred C. Elliott, "club member of the year." They will represent the Extension Service club in district and state contests among other Federated clubs in Texas.

Mrs. Trotter is the mother of two sons, Ide and Ben. She is a former student of Springfield Teacher's College in Missouri and Missouri University.

Mrs. Trotter helps with the crippled children's clinic each year, as well as the Blood Bank and U. S. O., and she has been a den mother for cub scouts. At the Bryan First Baptist Church, she has taught Sunday School for 15 years and at present is leader of the Baptist Training Union.

A former president of the Extension Service club, Mrs. Elliott has served on almost every committee the club has and she has played a prominent part in the progress of Girl Scout work in Bryan and College Station.

Her most recent contribution to the community has been her visits to schools in Brazos County to talk about civil defense and to show a movie, "Duck and Cover".

Mrs. Elliott is the mother of 13-year-old, Alma Ann. Before her marriage she was county home demonstration agent in Motley, Young and Lubbock counties.

A high point in her career came when she was selected to tour Europe and learn of the arts and customs in homemaking in England, France, Germany and other countries.

Club Chooses Chairmen For Flower Show

The flower show committee of the A&M Garden club met in the home of Mrs. Sidney Loveless to make final plans for the spring flower show. The theme for this year's show will be "Out of the Bookshelves."

The flower show will be held April 7 in the Educational building of the A&M Presbyterian church.

Mrs. W. W. Armistead and Mrs. Loveless are the co-chairmen for the show.

The committees named are as follows: Mrs. Armistead, and Mrs. Loveless, schedule; Mrs. C. B. Campbell, judges.

Mesdames A. B. Nelson, M. V. Grenitsky, Carl Landiss, Walter Delaplaine, and J. P. Covan, staging.

Mesdames Frank Anderson, Wayne Stark, Ray George, and Ty Timm, entries.

Mrs. Edward Madeley and Mrs. Marion Pugh, arrangement, placement and classification.

Mrs. R. E. Snuggs and Mrs. R. E. Schiller, horticultural, placement, and classification. Mrs. E. L. Angell, Mrs. L. S. O'Bannon, clerks.

Mrs. H. W. Barlow, ribbons; Mrs. Bill Dayton, publicity; and Mrs. B. W. Williams, donations. Mrs. Dick Hervey, and Mrs. Barlow Irvin, hospitality.

Band Wives Elect Mrs. Reed For Duchess

Ruth Reed, wife of A&M senior Raymond Reed, was chosen Cotton ball duchess by the Band Wives club at a meeting Tuesday night.

The meeting was held at the home of Betty Scott in College View.

Plans were made for a picnic to be held at Normangee lake on April 24. The picnic will be for all band wives and their husbands. Band members and their dates will also be invited.

Each person is asked to bring his own lunch. The club will furnish drinks for the group. The party will meet at the band dorm at 1:30 p. m. and travel to the lake.

A new member was introduced at the meeting. She is Jane Moss, wife of Ken Moss, A&M junior.

The hostess served refreshments with a St. Patrick's day theme carried out in shades of green.

The next meeting of the club will be March 30 at the home of Betty Connolly, 1026 Foster. Co-hostess will be Thelma Zak.

Kiwanis Clubs Plan April Pancake Supper

All the Pancakes you can eat for fifty cents is the promise of those in charge of "Operations Pancake", a Bryan - College Station community-wide pancake supper to be held on Saturday, April 19, from 5 to 9 p. m., at the Bryan Country Club.

The Bryan and College Station Kiwanis Clubs are co-sponsors of the pancake supper, and all net profits will be used in the two communities to carry on boys and girls recreational activities and work for under-privileged children.

Woody Briles of the College Station Kiwanis club is general chairman of "Operations Pancake". Doug Conlee of the Bryan club is co-chairman.

Other committee assignments include: Tickets — Charles LaMotte and Jerry Massey, co-chairmen; Dick Hervey and Jess Thames, assistant co-chairmen. Procurement, equipment, and food preparation—Hershel Bruggess, co-ordinating chairman; Henry Miller and Billy Beard, co-chairmen of procurement; Charlie Hart and W. H. Badgett, co-chairman of equipment and utensils; Wayne Stark and Ralph Stacy, co-chairmen of Chefs and cooking.

Publicity chairman, Otis Miller. Seating, tables, and silverware, Tom Mahoney and Donald Conlee. Waiters, C. A. Bonnen, chairman. Bus boys, George Webb, chairman. Reception, Ralph Rogers, chairman, and John Vitopil, assistant chairman.

"Of course we'll furnish plenty of good syrup, coffee, and other 'trimmings' with the pancakes," said Woody Briles, General Chairman of "Operations Pancake." "Not a Flop in a Flap" is the guaranteed assurance of Wayne Stark, chief Chef of "Operations Pancake".

How the stars got started ☆☆☆

Alan Ladd
MOVIE STAR

Alan Ladd says:
"I was a Hollywood stagehand. One day I fell 20 feet off a scaffold. I wasn't hurt, but I decided acting was safer. I went to acting school, played bit parts . . . finally I hit pay dirt in 'This Gun for Hire'."
