

Folklore Is Subject For Extension Club

"The Folklore of Texas" was the subject of the Extension Service Club meeting Thursday. Members heard a presentation by Mrs. F. L. Thomas, guest speaker. She was introduced by Mrs. Ide P. Trotter.

"Texas folklore is a precious heritage," Mrs. Thomas said. "It is the most interesting and fascinating folklore in the world because it touches so many different aspects of living." She listed the types of folklore in Texas—that of the Indian, Spanish, pioneers, pirates along the coastline, the cowboy and tales of lost mines and buried treasures. Also were the ballads and songs, "tall tales" and jokes about Texas.

"We are fast developing a folklore of the oil fields," the speaker stated, "and the poets of Texas already have portrayed some of it in their writing."

Mrs. Thomas told several stories that were samples of folklore developed in the different parts of Texas. One had its origin along the Brazos River, another in East Texas and still another near El Paso.

Following the program Extension Service Club members were served coffee and lemon chiffon pie by a hostess committee composed of Mendames Jack Miller, E. M. Regenbrecht, W. N. Williamson, F. E. Lichte, Tad Moses and Kermit F. Schlamb. The tea table was centered with an arrangement of blue and white irises and red roses, carrying out the patriotic colors of "Texas Day."

Move Develops To Separate Firms, Baseball

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—A move developed today in the Senate to force baseball to scrap all ties with business firms subject to the nation's anti-trust laws.

Sen. Johnson D-Col. president of the Western League, argued before a Senate Judiciary subcommittee that these ties must be abandoned if baseball is to maintain its position as a national sport. The Supreme Court has ruled that baseball itself is not subject to the anti-trust laws.

Johnson spoke in support of his bill to make baseball clubs owned by beer or liquor interests subject to the anti-trust laws because of such ownership, but the senator said he was willing to broaden the bill to include all businesses now under the monopoly laws. These laws apply to all business firms operating in interstate commerce.

The Justice Department said it opposed Johnson's original bill as "Discriminatory" but had no objection to a broadened bill.

The Colorado senator said his bill was aimed specifically at August Busch, owner of the Cardinals and of Nanheuser-Busch. Johnson said sales of Busch's beer had been boosted 17 per cent in areas covered by the radio network which broadcasts Cardinals' games and advertises the beer.

Johnson said Busch was able to write off losses incurred in operating the Cardinals for income tax purposes in the Anheuser-Busch operation.

Laughlin was elected to a four-year term with the support of Parr. He took office Jan. 1, 1953. He was removed on petition of the lawyers, who cited a number of actions they said made him unfit to hold office.

The Texas Supreme Court said one action — removal of a grand jury that had returned two indictments against him and had under study matters pertaining to his brother, was sufficient to require Laughlin's removal from office.

J. W. Wilson of Falfurrias said one of the 11 lawyers originating the removal proceedings against Laughlin should be his successor.

"They, only, have demonstrated their ability and determination to insure impartiality and justice in the court of their district," Wilson said.

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE
Meet John and Mary Smith—and their child.
See the pride and hope, the faith and love that shine like soft lights from the little girl's face? See the look of the future in her eyes?

Nothing in all the world could cause that reflection of happiness and contentment but a well-behaved child. Perhaps she has just spoken a piece. Perhaps she was singing a song. Perhaps she is playing with her small brother and sister.

But whatever she is doing, you will agree it is the result of wise and loving guidance. And you can be certain there is another member of the family not shown in the picture—God, the guide and Father of all of them.

Where parents and the Church work together for God, you will find true happiness.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
