Adams Resting After Heart Attack

Lt. Col. E. V. Adams, Aggie band director, is resting well after suffering a heart attack March 13. Adams believes he will return to work the middle of next week. He was brought home Wednesday morning from St. Joseph's Hospital in Bryan.

Two College Station Women Attend Meet

Mrs. Richard E. Callender and E. B. Reynolds have returned from the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution held in Austin last week. Mrs. Callender, chairman of the genealogical records committee, gave her report at the sessions. She also gave the report of the La Villita chapter Wednesday and the chapter received a silver ribbon and was placed on the honor roll for outstanding work during the past year. Mrs. S. W. Bilsing, regent of the Margaret Montgomery chapter of Conroe and honorary regent of the La Villita group was at the conference. She organized both these chapters of the DAR. Speaker for the opening session Monday evening was Mrs. R. Henderson Shuffler who discussed American history and the dream of freedom. She reminded those present of the American heritage and warned the meeting against straying from the ideals of our forefathers. During three luncheons girls modeled prize winning dresses from fifteen chapters who sponsored Girl Homemaker clubs. Cash awards and pins will be given to the girls who made the dresses chosen as top winners. A dress sponsored by the La Villita chapter won honorable mention in the contest. Mrs. F. B. Brown was chapter chairman. Another dress sponsored by this chapter was chosen as one of the most attractive and was pictured in the Austin American of March 17. The William Scott chapter of Bryan was represented by Mrs. W. D. Scoates, regent; Mrs. Emmette Wallace, national chairman of DAR magazine advertising and state chairman of national defense, Mrs. W. S. Howell, Mrs. H. C. Fulham, Mrs. Dona Carnes, honorary regents; Mrs. Nell Glasscock, Mrs. J. C. Culpepper and Miss Lucy Harrison.

Social Club Plans Fashion Show

"Time for Fashion" will be the theme of the College Women's social club meeting at 12:30 p. m. Friday at the Memorial Student Center. Luncheon tickets will be available until 2 p. m. Thursday at the main desk in the MSC. The price is $1.50. The style show will be put on by the fashion shop. Mrs. C. B. Campbell is general hostess.

Teachers Attend District Meeting

The district one convention of the southeast division of the Texas State Teachers association was held at Beaumont last weekend. The theme of the convention was "A Century of Progress in Texas Education." Teachers who attended the convention were J. D. Chaney, Roy Owen, Mrs. Lewis A. Knowles, and Miss Ann Abate. Also Mrs. L. P. Dulaney, Mrs. C. K. Leighton, Mrs. J. J. Skrivaneck, and Mrs. Pearle Tanzer.

Foods Group Hears Speech On Vegetables

Mrs. Fred Smith gave a talk on the preparation of vegetables at the A&M Social club Foods group meeting Friday. Mrs. Smith gave many helpful cooking hints and classified vegetables into five categories: accessory, plain, exotic, everyday, and unusual vegetables. Also she gave a few of her favorite recipes. Each table had an attractive centerpiece of green leafy vegetables in brown glass pots, and at either end was a colorful salad plate with dips. The buffet table was covered with a chocolate brown cloth and centered with a mahogany tray which held an original piece of sculpture by Mrs. J. N. Nance. On each side of this centerpiece were candlesticks made out of ears of corn. The serving dishes were pottery in colors of green, yellow, and purple each complimenting the vegetable dish held.

The committee responsible for the luncheon was chairman, Mrs. D. F. Leipper; co-chairman, Mrs. H. R. Blank; Mrs. G. D. Hallmark; and Mrs. R. V. Andrews. Also Mrs. W. R. McNeil, Mrs. H. O. Johnson, Mrs. C. F. Richardson, and Mrs. Carl Lyman, hostess. Following the luncheon, Mrs. I. G. Adams, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Smith. Mrs. C. F. Richardson, president presided over the short business session, and Mrs. J. S. Dennison read the secretary-treasurer report. The next luncheon will be April 9.

Lucas To Speak To Meeting Of Professors

Francis M. Lucas, resident representative for the office of naval research for the area, will speak at the American Association of University Professors meeting at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. The meeting will be held in the Assembly room of the YMCA. "The Part That the College Professor Plays in Government Research," will be the topic of his talk, with special interest to the office of Naval research. Lucas is a graduate of Metallurgical engineering from Stephens Institute in Newark College of Engineering, Newark, N. J. He also holds a bachelor of science in chemistry from St. Peter's College, Jersey City, N. J. and a bachelor of law from Franklin University, Columbus, Ohio. Before coming to Austin in 1951, Lucas was a research engineer for various steel companies since 1940, and in connection with the ONR since 1950. He was a research contract administrator in Chicago before coming to Austin.

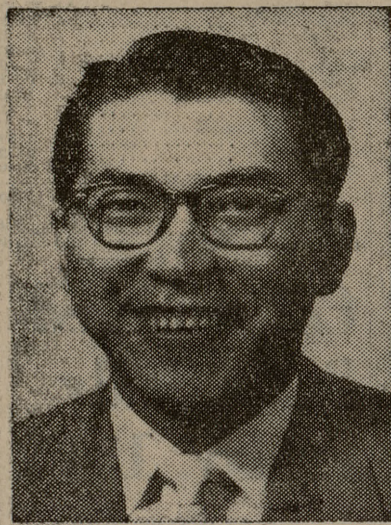

Armistead Talks To Vet Wives Meet

Dr. W. W. Armistead, dean of veterinary medicine, spoke to the AVMA auxiliary at their regular meeting in the MSC Thursday night. Dean Armistead gave the "History of Veterinary Medicine," discussing the four broad periods of development. During the business meeting plans were made for a dance and cake sale. Proceeds will be used to send a delegate, Mrs. Robbie Sims, to the National Convention in Seattle, Washington. Mrs. A. A. Price, co-sponsor, announced a tea will be given May 1, honoring the senior wives at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Armistead on the Knoll. The junior wives were hostesses for the evening with Mrs. Armistead presiding at the punch bowl.

Easter Seal Drive To Begin Wednesday

Mrs. Dwight W. Andres of College Station will direct the 21st annual Easter Seal appeal in Brazos county to raise funds for cripple children and adults.

The campaign opens Wednesday and continues through Easter Sunday, April 18. It will be conducted in every state in the United States and in the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

In Brazos county, as well as in most other localities, Easter Seal funds are the chief means of support for services to the handicapped, regardless of the cause of the handicap. Of all the funds raised in this area during the campaign, 91 per cent remain in the area to develop local services. Nine per cent will be sent to the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, to support its parent program of education, research and direct services. The envelopes containing the Easter Seals, prepared by the Brazos-Robertson county medical auxiliary and wives of the Medical Group of BAFB, will be mailed to local residents on March 24.
