

Ags First Loss Comes as Homer In First Wins for Minnesota 4-3

Roger Anderson hit a towering fly ball that was caught by the wind and carried out of the park for a three run homer to provide the Minnesota Gopher's with a close 4-3 victory over Texas A&M Wednesday on Kyle field.

Ronald Craven set the Aggies down with three hits in his five inning stint to gain his first victory and the Gophers their second straight win of the season.

Craven gave up three unearned runs in the second and was relieved by Virgil Miller who came on in the sixth to yield three of the Aggies six hits and no runs.

Southpaw Joe Hardgrove started for the Aggies and was credited with the loss after giving up all four of the Minnesota runs in the first inning. He was relieved by Ed Henning in the fourth and Lou Little came on in the seventh.

It was Hardgrove's first loss after winning his first outing. Little pitched effective ball the last three innings holding the Gophers runless and hitless.

In the first inning, Bob Koemptgen led off with a walk and was doubled in by Keith Eastman. Jim Morrison, A&M third baseman, erred on Gene Steiger's hot ground ball and then Anderson came through with his drive over the 340 foot mark in left field.

After going hitless in the first inning the Aggies came back in the second with two singles and a walk coupled with two Gopher errors to tally three unearned runs.

Les Byrd popped out to short to lead off the inning, followed by Eric Miller's walk.

Bob Pendor singled to send Miller to second. Jimmy Williams hit to short and the Gopher second baseman erred on the throw with all hands safe. Miller then tallied when Joe Hardgrove hit an infield fly and the first baseman dropped it for an error. Craven balked and Pendor scored.

Jimmy Dishman lashed a single to right field to score Williams and Jim Parish forced out Dishman at second to end the inning.

The Gophers led 4 to 3 and that was the way it ended, although A&M threatened in the eighth.

Frank Stockton started things in the eighth with a single and was sacrificed to second. Byrd singled him to third and on an attempted double steal Stockton was out at the plate on a very close call.

TO FACE AGGIES — All-America pitcher Paul Giel of Minnesota will take the mound today against the Aggies' Tex Venzura in the second of a two-game series.
