West Texas Relays Begin in Odessa

ODESSA—(P)—A well-balanced schoolboy field of 35 teams opens the growing West Texas Relays today with six or so records in danger. The real fireworks come Saturday when the university and college divisions swing into action. Seven are in the university class, expected to be dominated by the great Texas team, and 11 colleges will be fighting it out with newcomer North Texas state, favored to finish on top.

In addition to the 35 track teams, 15 golf and 32 tennis teams will start play in the high school division tomorrow.

At least half of the records in the university class will be in danger before the assault of Texas, Houston, Rice, Baylor, TCU, SMU and Texas Tech. A&M will not be represented. Texas and Houston will lead the charge against the sprint medley, 449 and 880 relay marks of 3:29.2, 41.3 and 1:27.4 respectively. Texas has the sprinters and also the middle-distance men to wipe out all three. The Longhorns have already posted 41.4 in the 440-yard relay. Texas' Jerry House has bettered the record of 23 feet 10 inches in the broad jump. The Texas sprinters, Dean Smith and Charles Thomas, could threaten the 100-yard dash record of 9.5 and a new record is virtually certain in the mile relay with Texas, SMU, Rice and Houston fighting for the honor. Texas has done 3:17.7, which equals the record here. SMU has run 3:17.3.

The college division will feature a high jumping duel between Charles Holding of East Texas state and John Whatley of Hardin-Simmons.

Also entered in the college class are North Texas, Sul Ross, Howard Payne, McMurry, Abilene Christian, Texas Western, Corpus Christi, West Texas and New Mexico Military.

High school prelims started today at 1 p.m. High school semifinals and college and university preliminaries start at 9 a.m.

Spring Practice Nears End

Maroon-White Duel Is Sneak Preview

A&M's High School Sports Day when the Maroons and the Whites clash in an intra-squad football ends tomorrow night on Kyle Field game.

Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant has trimmed his team from 104 original players when practice began several weeks ago to a streamlined squad of 41 gridders who are all due to see some action Saturday night.

With his biggest problem a replacement for Don Ellis, last season's outstanding T general, Coach Bryant has been grooming several prospects.

One of these men, Elwood Kettler, will be starting man under Saturday night for the Maroon squad. Kettler is fortunate in having halfbacks Billy Huddleston and Bobby Keith and fullbacks Jack Pardee and Don Kachtik on his side.

Besides backs, the Maroon team boasts the services of a front wall which begins with ends Bill Schroeder and Eugene Stallings and includes tackles Henry Clark and Dutch Ohlendorf, guards Marvin Tate and Sid Theriot and centers Walker Griffith and Russell Moake.

Kettler will be backed up in the play-calling slot by former pass receiver Joe Schero who will be on the heating end for a change.

Dave Smith will quarterback the White squad which, while not as star-studded in the backfield, does include powerful Bob (Bull) Easley, who scored four touchdowns in a recent scrimmage game. Easley should be a standout in Saturday night's contest.

Other backs on the white team are Charles Hall, Billy Grandberry, Herb Wolf, Don Watson and backing up quarterback Smith, Charles Scott.

The White line is a strong one and features hard-driving guard Ray Barrett and the fierce line play of broad-shouldered Fred Broussard. White captain Bennie Sinclair is holding down one of the end slots on the squad; his partners in catching will be Richard Vick, Paul Kennon and Billy McGowan.

Lawrence Winkler, who did yearman service last fall at tackle, will play opposite Dutch Ohlendorf of the Maroon squad. On the other end of Winkler's line will be right tackles Bobby Lockett and Charles Moore of the White team.

Admission will be on the one dollar Sports Day pass being sold on the campus by members of the T association, Aggie lettermen's group. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Cy Young won 20 or more games in 14 consecutive seasons in the major leagues.

Pay Increase Plan Wins Test in House

AUSTIN, March 26—(P)—Gov. Allan Shivers' tax plan for financing pay raises for teachers and state employees won its first House test yesterday.

The House committee on revenue and taxation approved the measure, 16-4, and sent it to the House floor where it will be ready for debate next week, probably Monday.

Beer, franchise, and natural gas production taxes would be increased under the proposal to bring the state an additional $25,600,000 a year.

The pay raises and money to finance them were the primary purpose for which the session was called.

In the Senate, a bill to outlaw the Communist party in Texas won unanimous approval and went to the House.

A controversial Loyalty Review Board proposed in another measure, however, was scrapped by Sen. Rogers Kelley, Edinburg, author of both measures.
