

Cougars Slaughter Aggs 14-0 As Schultea Hurls Two-Hitter

By JAMES CARREL
Battalion Sports Writer

Sidarming Jack Schultea set the Aggies down with only two hits, while his University of Houston teammates were blasting a quartet of Aggie pitchers for 16 hits and a resounding 14 to 0 victory Tuesday in Kyle Field.

It was a brilliant performance for Schultea as he stopped the Aggies cold in the hitting department. Only Bob Pendor was able to touch his offerings with a single in the first inning and a double down the left field line in the fourth.

MURALS

A QMC will play Sqd. 7 and A Ord will play Sqd. 14 today in the intramural volleyball league championship playoffs. Sqd. 19, Co. A and Co. I won their respective intramural volleyball leagues today and will begin their league championship playoffs next week.

Co. A defeated Sqd. 22 Tuesday 2-0. Outstanding players were Bryon King and Bill Hobbs of Sqd. 22 and Don Mott and Kermit Wahrmund of Co. A. This win places Co. A in league championship playoffs.

The Newman club defeated the Plant Pathology club 2-0 Tuesday. Tony Specia and Jerry Munster were outstanding for the winning team.

Sqd. 21's John Janak and Bryan Dedeker led their team to victory over Co. L 2-0 Tuesday. Heads-up performers for Co. L were Charles Shreve and Charles Sanders.

Schultea struck out six Cadets, walked four, and allowed only Pendor to get past first base in turning in his victory.

Tex Vanzura started on the mound for A&M and was greeted rather warmly by Cougar lead-off man Carlton Hanta when his first pitch of the game was nailed and driven 330 feet over the left field fence by the 5-7 All-America shortstop.

It was the only earned run off Vanzura in his three-inning stint but it was the one that gave him credit for the defeat. A single by Wayne Tucker and two errors by A&M accounted for the other Houston run in the first inning.

Ed Hennig came on in the fourth for the Aggies. Two walks and singles by Allen Shipley and Ken Langford brought in a run off Hennig in the fourth.

Shipley with three hits and Langford with two hits were the leading hitters for the Cougars and they wrecked Hennig in the fifth, with Shipley doubling in one run and scoring on Langford's three-run homer over the right field fence in the fifth.

Coach Beau Bell of the Aggies brought in Lou Little to pitch in the sixth and he blanked the Cougars in that inning. But Houston opened the door and greeted him with eight hits and three runs in the seventh and four more in the eighth before Jerry Nelson, ace of the A&M staff, came on to retire the last batter in the eighth and the side in order in the ninth inning.

But, don't blame all the woes on the pitching staff. Seven errors in the field and a lack of hitting was more evident in causing defeat than any other factor.

A&M Softball Squad Blasts BAFB 16-5

The A&M softball team opened the season by walloping the Bryan air force base airmen 16-5 last night behind the six-hit, eleven strikeout pitching of Curtis Lemons, Cadet hurler.

Lemons went all the way for A&M, striking out 11 airmen and giving up six hits and walking only one Bryan batter. Aggies021 625x-16 7 6 Bryan010 0202- 5 6 8

Faulk and Stephens, BAFB pitchers, gave up 13 bases on balls and seven hits between them. The Aggies had two big innings, the fourth when they scored six runs on three hits and three Bryan errors and the sixth when they scored five runs on two hits and one Bryan error.

Bowling With Bill

By BILL SHEPARD
Battalion Bowling Writer

Saturday is the day for the third annual Intercollegiate bowling tournament.

Seven teams have been entered by five southwestern schools. Trinity, TCU, San Antonio college, University of Arkansas and A&M are entering at least one team.

Invitations to Baylor, U of H and UT have not been answered. With four weeks left to go in the College Station-Bryan All-star league here are the standings:

Team	Won	Lost
Conway & Co.	5 1/2	20 1/2
Faulk's Auto	57	21
Student Co-Op	46	32
Coca Cola	39 1/2	38 1/2
Riverside	39 1/2	38 1/2
Brueggeman	26 1/2	51 1/2
Garroll	25	53
Wallace	21	57

In the list of hopeful entries are St. Mary's of San Antonio, Oklahoma A&M and SMU.

The 10 men that will make up the two teams for A&M and their averages are as follows:
Doug Krueger 179, Corkey Crowley 169, Bill Shepard 167, Taylor Wong 167, Al McClellan 160 will be the first team.
Carl Muller 157, John Janek 156, Ben Blankenship 156, Frank (Fanch) Willis 154 and Dick Cornell 154 will be the second team. These teams are subject to change after the averages are figured for tonight's bowling.

John Geiger, manager of the bowling alleys, has donated a new bowling pin to the bowling club. It is painted as a trophy and will be presented to the man who has high series of the week in the club. The pin will be presented for the first time tonight after the regular club meeting.

RASCHI CAN HIT

NEW YORK (AP)—Vic Raschi, ex-Yankee pitcher now with the Cardinals, always will remember Aug. 4, 1953. No, he didn't hurl a no-hitter. That was the day he set a major league record for a pitcher by batting in seven runs during one game.

Tigers Shutout Huntsville 6-0

By CLIFTON BATES
Consolidated Correspondent

The A&M Consolidated Tigers blanked the Huntsville Hornets 6-0 Tuesday afternoon, aided by the one-hit pitching of Pinky Cooner.

Eight walks by Clements were the cause of many of the Tiger runs. His eight strikeouts did not make up for the bases on balls deficit. Cooner struck out 11 and walked only two Hornets.

In the third inning, Jimmy Bond led off for the Tigers with a strikeout. J. B. Carroll walked, then stole second. David Bonnen walked. Bobby Carter walked. Cooner struck out. Pete Hickman walked, scoring Carroll. Melvin Free, Tiger receiver, blasted a ground single through shortstop to score Bonnen and Carter. William Arnold completed play for the Tigers in the third by grounding out to the second baseman.

For Huntsville, Joe Clements pitched three-hit ball. Cooner and Clements will play for the South team in the Texas high school all star game in August. Cooner is a center and Clements is a quarterback.

The Tigers beat Huntsville 3-1 in the first meeting of the two teams this season on March 26. Consolidated . . . 103 001 0-6 3 2 Huntsville . . . 000 000 0-0 1 2
