

Freshmen Stop Tarleton 10-4

Fraga Does Fine Relief Work

By J. EARSEL CARRELL
Battalion Sports Writer

Lupe Zammarron Fraga, who has a rather difficult name to pronounce, proved even more difficult to hit as he turned back the Tarleton State Plowboys with fine relief hurling to give the Fish a 10 to 4 victory here Wednesday.

Fraga, a former all-stater from St. Thomas high school (Houston), relieved starter Doug Mullins in the third inning with the bases loaded with Plowboys, two outs and with a 5-3 Fish lead in danger. He promptly forced Plowboy Will Hunt to ground into a force play at second and silenced the Tarleton team bats with only four hits and one run through the remaining six innings.

Mullins deserved a better fate, giving up only two hits in his short stay, but seven walks got him in too much hot water and Fraga had to relieve.

Lew Blood, Dick Bleckner and Skeeter Wilson paced the Fish at the plate. Wilson led off with a triple in the first inning to start the Fish on a four-run outburst.

Bleckner singled Wilson in, John Hoyle sacrificed Bleckner to second and both runners advanced on the Tarleton second baseman's over-throw at first. Bob Holliday walked and Blood followed with a two run single to center. Holliday scored from third on an error and Wilson grounded out to end the inning.

Wayne Griffith started for the Plowboys and was charged with the loss. Joe Ingraham relieved in the third and pitched creditable ball until a five-run Fish outburst in the sixth chased him to the showers.

Tarleton rallied in the third for three runs after the Fish had scored a run in the second to take a 5-0 lead.

Four walks and singles by Bob Davenport and Howie Meissner accounted for the Plowboy runs with Hunt forcing Webb Bishop at second to end the threat.

Two consecutive singles and a Fish error gave Tarleton a run off Fraga in the sixth to cut the Fish lead to 5-4.

But singles by Fraga, Hoyle and Bryon Andrews, along with two walks and a hit batsman gave the Fish five big runs in the sixth frame and a 10 to 4 victory.

Leading hitter for Tarleton was Meissner with two singles in five trips to the plate and two RBI's.

Netmen To Meet Rice in Houston

The Aggie tennis team will meet the Owls in Houston, Saturday. The Cadets will be without the services of their number one man Gene Kinard, who has dropped out of school due to his mother's illness.

The Cadets have a six and six record this year. They have downed Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Hardin Simmons, Abilene Christian College, and Baylor three times.

The A&M squad is now made up of only four men. Bill Ashburn, Bob Kerr, Ronald Wolff, and Frank Holbrook are the remaining varsity netters.
