Day of Tribute

Former Students Gather For Annual Muster Day

A&M former students will gather together throughout the world April 21 to observe the annual Muster day ceremonies. The Muster day, held on Texas independence day, is a tribute to those who died for Texas' freedom and for those Aggies who have died during the year. The most heroic of all Musters was held on the embattled fortress of Corregidor, when A&M soldiers, among others, were besieged day and night for a week or more, but the Aggies held Muster. The parent Muster will be held in front of the Memorial Student Center. More than 5,000 persons are expected to attend the ceremony.

Gov. Allen Shivers will deliver the address, which will begin at 4:30 p.m.

The Muster on the campus will be in charge of students and will be opened with the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the band. Charles Parker of Amarillo will chair the Muster and the invocation will be given by Corps Chaplain Ide P. Trotter jr.

The Muster tradition will be given by Pat Woods, president of the senior class. The Singing Cadets will give the "Twelfth Man," and Dr. David H. Morgan, president of the college, will present Governor Shivers.

Roll call for the absent will be given by Vol Montgomery. A rifle volley will be fired by the Ross Volunteers and the Singing Cadets will sing "Auld Lang Syne." Silver taps will close the ceremony.

The Muster on the campus will be recorded by the Texas Quality network to be broadcast from 9:30 to 10 p.m. Stations carrying the Muster will be WFAA, Dallas; WOAI, San Antonio; KPRC, Houston; WBAP, Fort Worth; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KVAL, Brownsville; KTBS, Shreveport, La.; KGNC, Amarillo and KRGV, West.
