

Job Calls Increase Over Past Years

There have been more job calls this year than in the past, but interviewers are more selective, said W. R. Horsley, placement director. The job situation looks bright for majors in chemistry, engineering, physics, electronics, accounting, and business, Horsley said. "Although interviewers have become more selective in different fields, the same amount of students have been hired this year as compared to the last few years," he said. Some companies have found they could train personnel already employed for new jobs within the company instead of hiring college graduates, while many companies have found they can use college graduates where they couldn't before, he added.

A typical man's brain weighs about 50 ounces.

BSU Holding Four Vespers

Vesper services are being held at the College Station Baptist Student union four evenings a week, said Cliff Harris, BSU director. The vespers are being held Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. A recently bought station wagon "Old Sarge" is being used to carry the students to and from vespers. On Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, "Old Sarge" picks up students at 6:50 p.m. by dormitory 12 and returns them at 7:25. Friday night vespers are held from 7:30 to 8:30. The vespers are conducted by students and designed so all students may come and participate in the services and still get back to their rooms in time for C. Q., said Harris.

Bryan School Choir Gives Club Program

This is the fourth year for the presentation of "The Song of Easter," which includes selections of Negro spirituals and folk music, arranged by Roy Ringwald.

Best, the director of the choir for three years, holds degrees from North Texas state college in Denton.

Mrs. O'Bannon Heads Foods Group

Mrs. L. S. O'Bannon was elected president of the Foods group of the A&M Social club at the meeting Monday.

The new officers for next year assisting Mrs. O'Bannon are Mesdames E. B. Reynolds, program vice president; John Denison, secretary-treasurer; Homer Blackhurst, membership chairman; and John S. McCannon, reporter.

Hostess for the meeting at the A&M Christian church was Mrs. R. R. Lyle.

Each table was centered with an Easter bonnet from Beverly Bralley's and on either side of the hats were pansies in tiny crystal wine glasses. Ivy was entwined down the center of each table.

The round serving table was centered with a large straw leghorn hat with a yellow and purple pansy crown. From the hat were draped purple and brown velvet streamers on the green organdy cloth.

The dessert table featured an antique silver spergne, with silver moon roses, resting on a base of green velvet. This arrangement by Mrs. Lyle was a duplicate of the one for which she won a prize in the recent flower show.

Sweet pea and ivy arrangements were featured at other parts in the room.

Mrs. W. L. Penberthy, food major from Mary Hardin Baylor College, was the speaker on frozen foods, the feature of the program. She told of the advantages of having a home freezer and talked about the use of one.

Mrs. Penberthy concluded her talk by saying the proper use of a frozen food locker made for better and easier living.

Mrs. C. F. Richardson, president, presided over a short business meeting. Mrs. G. L. Huebner read the secretary-treasurer report and Mrs. I. G. Adams presented the speaker.

The committee in charge of the luncheon was Mesdames W. T. Matzen, Raymon Rogers, co-chairman, Roy Garrett, W. L. Penberthy, G. T. Hill, Raymond Reiser and R. R. Lyle.
