Dewey Will Run For Representative

State Representative, B. H. Dewey, Jr., 36 year old Bryan attorney, announced his candidacy for re-election subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries.

The Bryan attorney is seeking his second elective term to the Legislature, having served as the representative of Brazos County in the 53rd Legislature.

Dewey is a native of Wilmington, N. C. having moved to Bryan, Texas, in October, 1930; and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Dewey, 106 S. Congress Avenue, Bryan and is the great grandson of A. T. Mial, who purchased a Brazos Bottom year 5,000 to 10,000 letters and so many telephone calls and personal contacts no count could be kept. Stevens said the Army receives more than 50,000 requests and inquiries annually from congressmen and others. Anderson estimated the Navy receives about 57,000 written inquiries from congressmen each year. Talbot placed at about 67,000 the number of written and oral inquiries and requests yearly the Air Force receives from Congress and other sources, plus another 18,000 handled at various bases throughout the United States.

Fourth Sales Clinic Will Be Held Here

The fourth annual sales clinic of the business administration department will be held April 28 in the biological sciences lecture room.

The clinic will be held in two parts. Starting at 3 p. m. the retailing clinic will be conducted by Orrien R. Smith, merchandising manager, Batelsteins main store, and James V. McConkey department manager of the River Oaks store. The subjects of the Clinic will be "Problems of Department Store Merchandising" and "Problems of a Department Manager."

The specialty sales clinic at 7:30 will be conducted by Jewel S. Jones, Guardian Life Insurance Co., James T. Sharkey, Remington Rand Inc., and Tom M. Nelms, Westendorff-Nelms Co. The subjects for the Clinic will be "Prospecting, Demonstration, and Closing as Applied to Selling."

The clinic is a service of the Houston Sales Executives club and is under the direction of Herb Thompson of the business administration department and Verne Lane, educational chairman of the Houston club. While the members of the club are here they will select two students to receive the $500 P. T. Pearce award given by the club to promote interest in selling as a career. The students are to be selected by the president of the club, Charles N. Royds, branch manager of National Cash Register Co.

All students and businessmen of the area are invited to attend.

Assault Charge Dropped By Parr

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., April 20 (AP)—George B. Parr today asked that the assault to murder charge against Texas Ranger Capt. Alfred Y. Allee be dismissed. It was dismissed.

Parr told Dist. Judge Arthur Klein that as complaining witness it "is my desire not to further prosecute the case." The complaining witness holds no ill will or any resentment or any kind of ill feeling and I'd like to see the case against him dismissed."

Allee and Parr shook hands after Allee got up and said, "I'm sorry the case came up but I want you to know I was doing my duty as a peace officer." He addressed this remark to Judge Klein.

The state and district attorneys agreed to the dismissal although Cameron County Atty. F. T. Graham complained "It looks like you are making a football out of justice when you come down here to try a case and then everybody gets together and makes up their difficulties and says 'let's dismiss it.' "I'm not going to be the only man to say 'Let's go to trial'" Graham said in open court. "I didn't ask for this trouble. This case was dumped on me on a change of venue. If the 79th District attorney wants to dismiss it, it's all right. He's the man who got the indictment."

A jury had been selected to try Allee for assault to murder Parr.

Shivers Seeks Third Term As Governor

AUSTIN, April 19 (AP)—A terse two-line statement today put Allan Shivers into his third race for governor, but friends of House speaker Reuben Senterfitt ran into legal difficulties when they sought to file his name as a candidate.

Shivers is seeking his third elective term as governor. His action in running three times in a row is unusual, but other governors have sought three elective terms.

Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson tried five times: in 1924, 1926, 1930, 1932 and 1940.

A petition seeking to have Senterfitt's name placed on the July 24 Democratic primary ballot was rejected by George Sandlin, secretary of the State Executive Committee, here today on grounds it was improperly prepared.

He said among other things it failed to include the endorsement of the candidate, giving his consent, as required by law.

The petition was signed by more than 25 citizens and was accompanied by a cashier's check for $60, the filing fee. A Democratic committee spokesman said there was no effort to block the filing, but that applications had to conform to legal requirements.
