CS Council Holds Joint Initiation

The College Station council of the Knights of Columbus, 3205, and Monsignor Gleissner, council, 1384, Bryan, held a joint initiation in which the first, second and third degrees were exemplified for 32 candidates.

The 16 candidates initiated for membership in the College Station council are member of the A&M faculty and student body.

A banquet for members and their ladies was held in the Bryan Knights of Columbus hall after the initiation.

Grand Knight Raymond Broussard of the College Station council announced that this initiation gives the College Station council a good chance to win the membership trophy which will be presented at the state convention in May.

Bryan Hires Aggie As Lake Manager

William Morley, senior wildlife management major, was hired as manager of the Bryan country club lake by the Bryan city council recently.

Morley's job will be to rid the lake of lily pads and other vegetation, and to restock and fertilize it, said Bryan City Manager Casey Fannin.

Morley plans to use this project in writing a thesis on pond management. The project will last for two years.
