Ags Win 4-2; Break Long Losing Streak

Although he weakened late in the game and allowed five hits in the last three innings, including three extra base blows, Lefty Joe Hardgrove of A&M hung on to record his third SWC victory on a seven-hitter.

Hardgrove struck out eight and walked two for the Aggies' fifth triumph against four defeats.

In suffering its eighth loss as compared with a lone victory, Rice got respectable pitching from John Wolda, who gave eight hits but was hurt by loose fielding on several occasions.

Fred Ablon walked to open the game and was helped along by an error and a sacrifice bunt, then scored on Joe Schero's sacrifice fly.

With one out in the fifth Don Ellis singled, stole second, and scored on Lou Little's hit which bounced off Reynolds' chest. Little went to second on the play and scored on Jimmy Williams' hit which bounced off Tommy Reckling's glove.

The Aggies got their final run in the seventh on Ellis' single, an error, a wild pitch and Little's line single to right.

After Cox had doubled in Rice's seventh the Owls had a chance to tie it up with none out. But Leroy Fenstemaker bounced to Jimmy Morrison and Cox tried to make it home and was thrown out by several feet. Bill Trotter banged a double into right-center to send Fenstemaker to third, but Bob Stegemeier and Wolda were retired to end the inning.

WINS FIFTH GAME—Joe Hardgrove, varsity lefthander was the winning pitcher yesterday in the Cadets' 4-2 rout of the Rice Owls. This was Hardgrove's fifth win of the season.

Fish Defeat Owlets 12-4 for Seventh Win

Curve-balling Dick Munday set the Rice Owlets down with six-hit ball as the Fish won 12-4 yesterday on Kyle field.

The game was touted as a hurling duel between two ex-Stephen F. Austin (Bryan) teammates, Munday and Owlet Bill Arhos. However, Arhos' extreme wildness, he issued nine walks, provided the Fish with the victory.

Rice scored in the first inning on two singles and a walk, but the Fish tied it up in their half of the first, as Arhos loaded the bases on walks and then walked in a run.

A bases-loaded double by Bill Varner of the Owlets in the third inning cleared the sacks and gave the Rice team a 4-1 lead.

A double by Lew Blood scored one run and a single by Tex Bushnell, scoring Blood, brought the Fish within a run of the Owlets in the third.

Bushnell drove in a run on a single and Munday blasted a double to left-center, bringing in Bob Gattis, to send the Fish ahead 5-4.

The roof caved in on Rice in the seventh as six runs were scored, on two walks, an error, a single and two doubles.

USC Featured in Quad Track Meet Saturday

An unprecedented crowd of more than 10,000 persons will view a quadrangular track meet in Dallas Saturday night when SMU, A&M and the University of Texas squads vie with national champions—University of Southern California.

The meet begins at 8 p. m. and is scheduled in Dal-Hi stadium. A&M coach, Col. Frank Anderson, will take a team of 26 Aggie thinclads to Dallas. The team will travel by bus and is scheduled to leave College Station Friday afternoon. They will stay at the Jefferson hotel in Dallas.

Enough tickets have been sold to the meet to pay the traveling expenses of the teams entered, including that of California, a $3,200 tab. The way ticket sales are going, the teams all stand to make some profit on the meet.

The three Southwest conference teams will be trying to snap USC's string of undefeated seasons. The Trojans have been national champions 17 times.

The Aggies' traveling squad will probably include these men: James Blaine, distance; Glenn Blake, hurdles; Tom Bonorden, weights; Billy Coker, distance; Dale DeRouen, captain, distance; Tom Dollahite, hurdles and javelin; James Earle, vault; Ken Fry, hurdles; Carol Goyer, sprints; Bobby Gross, weights; Harley Hartung, hurdles; Jim Hollingsworth, hurdles; Fred Hartman, weights.

Wallace Kleb, 880 run and mile relay; Carol Libby, 440 run and mile relay; Pete Mayeaux, javelin; John McIlhenny, high jump; Frank Norris, 440 run and mile relay; Bobby Robison, broad jump; Gerald Stull, mile relay; Marvin Swink, javelin and high jump; Don Tedder, sprints and broad jump; Billy Tutor, vault; Terry Vetter, 440 run; Don Watson, sprints and broad jump and Verlon Westmoreland, distance.

Girls' AAU Swim Meet To Be Here

Laura Lee Payne and Elizabeth Sunbarger will defend their Gulf AAU duet swim championship here Saturday, in the Gulf AAU synchronize meet. They are members of the Corkettes swimming club of the Shamrock hotel, Houston.

The Corkettes won the team championship here last year. Bette Johnson, Hope Holcomb, Payne and Sunbarger represent only a part of the famous Shamrock synchronize team. (These four girls will use the theme "Matador" this year.)

The Crystal pool of Houston will also enter a team. Lolly Anderson was judged the best soloist in Texas in the Senior national synchronize meet at Ormond Beach, Fla., this year.
