Presbyterians Hold Picnic

The annual church picnic of the A&M Presbyterian church will be held at the C. I. Miller's farm on highway 6 Wednesday.

Each family will bring their food and those without rides will meet in front of the church at 6 p. m.

"Admonition Necessary for Christians Today" is the sermon topic for vesper services at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday at the Bethel Lutheran church.

The Christian Science society will meet at the cabin in Hensel park at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. The student group will meet in the MSC at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The Hiller Foundation will hold a general election at the meeting at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday in rooms 2A and 2B in Memorial Student Center.

BSU Conducting Vesper Services

The Baptist Student Union is conducting vesper services every weeknight, except Wednesday, from 7 to 7:25 p. m. at the Baptist Student center.

Each evening different students participate in the service. This week's speakers are Swayne Scott, Leon Foster and Russ Scott.

The BSU will have open house for Parents Day from 2 to 4 p. m. Sunday.

A choir has been organized and the first meeting is scheduled for this week. Interested students are asked to leave their name and address at the center.

Students and their guests held a social at the BSU Saturday followed by a singspiration. The next scheduled social is the senior ring party May 15.

The Women's Missionary society of Our Saviour's Lutheran church will have a special study course at the home of Mrs. E. J. Fuchs 1006 E. 30th, Bryan. The theme will be "Within These Borders" about Spanish-speaking people in America.

The Lutheran Student association will meet at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday.

The drama group of the Wesley Fellowship of the A&M Methodist church will present "The Tribulations of Job" at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday in the Wesley Foundation. Players are Aubrey Smith, Joe Blair and Harry Scott.

The drama group is directed by Mrs. Robert Sneed.

The children's classes of the Church of Christ will present the program at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday. Mesdames D. A. Hardaway, N. A. McNeil, R. M. Mullinix, Pat Hockaday and Miss Maurine Blakeley are in charge.

Wednesday evening services will be at 7:15 p. m. at St. Mary's chapel.

Mass will be held at 6:45 a. m. Friday at the chapel.

The Canterbury club will meet after the evening prayer service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Holy Communion will be at 6:30 a. m. Wednesday at St. Thomas Episcopal chapel followed by breakfast.

The Baptist Student Union Greater council will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday following the regular vesper service at 7.

The council is composed of the BSU Executive council, BSU committee members, officers in Sunday school, training union and organizations of local churches.

All members are requested to be present at this meeting.

The schedule for Wednesday evening prayer meeting includes First Baptist church at 7:15 p. m., Colledge Heights Assembly of God at 7:45 p. m., and Church of Christ at 7:15 p. m.

County Polio Group Hears State Officer

Mrs. R. O. Pearson, state director of women's activities for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, spoke to the open meeting of the Brazos county chapter Thursday night.

Bill Elemendorf, central Texas representative of the national foundation, stressed the three phases of their work, patient care, education and research.

Mrs. Lucile Foster told about her recent visit to Warm Springs, Ga., where she took a polio victim from this county for treatment.

Elemendorf explained that in Texas there will be ten test areas for the new polio vaccine. Houston and Waco will be the nearest test areas to Brazos county.

New members of the local board were introduced by Jack Kent. They are Mrs. John V. Perry, Mrs. J. O. Alexander, Dr. E. P. Freeman, Charles A. Haas, Dr. Tom B. King, Sankey Park, and George Webb.

J. E. (Preacher) Tatum, chairman of the local board, presided.

Baptist Class Holds Picnic Saturday

Seventy-five members of the two-by-two class of the First Baptist church held a picnic at Hensel park Saturday.

Picnic Planned For Geology Wives

The Geology Wives club is having a picnic for geology students and their families at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The picnic will be at the country club park and everyone will bring his own supper. Jean Farmer, president, and Marjorie Shaves, secretary, are in charge of arrangements.

Fifth Grade Presents Play Last Friday

A play, "The Robber in the Toy Shop," was given by fifth grade students of Mrs. Pearle Tanzer Friday in the A&M Consolidated gymnasium for all elementary school pupils and their parents.

The play was written by members of the class.

Characters were Nancy Neal, fairy; James Carey, robber; Carl Heaton, storekeeper's wife; Bettian Ransell, Danny Garner, Shirley Rogers, Bill Eakin, customers; Danny Garner, Bill Eakin, policemen.

Toys and dolls in the shop represented by class members were balls, Kenneth Greer and Tommy Letbetter; cowboys, Henry Allen and Jim Fowler; clown, Hal Delaplaine; magician, Jay Pruitt; soldiers, Harry McCluskey, Mike Bloom, and Richard Latimer; jack-in-the-box, Jack Armistead; girl dolls, Wanona Garrett, Sue Ross, Barbara Brock, Shirley Rogers, Ann Holdrede, Sandra Covey, Patsy Beckham, Merle Murehead, Edith Putz, Janet Darrow, Joan Nemeck, and Diane Dulaney.

Pianists were Hal Delaplaine, Barbara Brock, and Janet Darrow. Mark Luther, composer of the original music in the play, was also responsible for the sound effects.

Business Wives To Plan Picnic

The wives of the senior students in the School of Veterinary Medicine were honored at a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Armistead.

Newcomers Club To Hold Picnic

The annual family picnic of the Newcomers club will be held at 6 p. m. Wednesday in Hensel park. In case of rain, the picnic will be held in the cabin.

Mrs. Norman Abramson is in charge of arrangements and entertainment.

Vet Wives Honored At Tea

Hostesses were Mrs. A. A. Price and Mrs. John Milliff, sponsors of the AVMA student wives auxiliary; and Mrs. Armistead, wife of the dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine.

Guests included about 100 wives of veterinary medicine students and faculty members. Many of the wives have been here from four to six years while their husbands were working on their degrees. Each honoree received a degree of VMW (vet medicine wife), a diploma tied with the school colors. The diplomas were arranged on a table centered with a basket of spring flowers.

The entertaining suite was decorated with bouquets of talisman roses, and the tea table was centered with an arrangement of the roses.

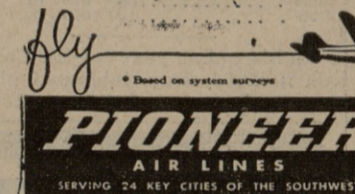

Presiding at the silver tea service were Mrs. R. P. Marsteller, Mrs. Harold Redmond and Mrs. I. B. Boughton.

Sweets were arranged on silver and crystal trays on a white linen cloth.
