

Ags To Play UT Tomorrow

By CHUCK NEIGHBORS
Battalion Sports Editor

The Aggies enter their series with the University of Texas Longhorns tomorrow with a .225 hitting average.

A 6-5 record in conference play has the Cadets in a tie for third

Fish Set For Shorthorns Here Friday

Coach Les Palmer's Aggie Fish baseball squad has shown much promise this spring, in a season marred by a weak-appearing varsity team.

The Fish have an 8-3 season record entering their final game Friday. Their star pitcher, curveball control artist Dick Munday, is a former Stephen F. Austin (Bryan) hurler. Munday has shown fine control this year and has the lowest earned run average on the Fish mound staff.

Munday has plenty of hitting support. He himself has done well at the plate, hitting two doubles against the Rice Owlets here last week.

Lew Blood can be counted on to hit when needed as can John Hoyle, Billy White and Bob Holliday.

The Fish meet the Shorthorns here Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. in their final game this season.

'Mural Highlights

Co. F's John Greer pitched a remarkable game Monday to beat Sqd. 19, 3-0. Roy Satterre who knocked a home run, led his team in hitting. Sqd. 19's Dan Valdez also pitched a good game for the losing armmen with the exception of the third inning when Co. F got their three runs. Second baseman Hackney played heads-up ball for Sqd. 19.

Other Monday softball results were:

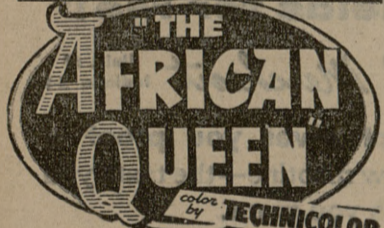

- Co. C—12; Co. I—1.
- Co. D—11; Co. G—5.
- Co. K—10; Sqd. 23—6.
- Sqd. 20—7; Co. L—3.

place in SWC competition with TCU. As a result of their 5-4 loss to Baylor Monday, the Aggies fell from second to a tie for third.

Jerry Nelson is set to start for A&M tomorrow, probably against Texas' ace hurler Boyd Linker, winning pitcher in the Longhorns' first encounter with the Aggies this year on Kyle field.

That was the game in which a Longhorn hit an "intentional" home run. Nelson was giving an intentional walk to a Texas batter, when he slipped and fired one too close to the center of the plate. The ball ended up just beyond the 357 foot mark in deep center field.

On the mound for the Aggies Friday in Austin, Beau Bell will most likely place southpaw hurler Joe Hardgrove. Hardgrove could be followed by Lou Little and Tex Vanzura, as the left-hander pitched against Baylor Monday.

The Longhorns need only two more victories to clinch the 1954 conference pennant. Unless the Aggies present enough of an offense to stop the Orange and White-clad team, Thursday's and Friday's games could put the conference race at an end.

Cadets Meet ACC, NT Here Thursday

By J. EARSEL CARRELL
Battalion Sports Staff

An outstanding track and field carnival will be offered in the way of a triangular meet between Abilene Christian college, North Texas state and A&M at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Kyle field.

The performance of the Abilene Christian mile relay team is expected to be the finest of the meet, said Frank (Col. Andy) Anderson, Aggie coach.

ACC, perennial winners of middle distance relays and races for the last 30 years, probably has won more relay victories in the college division at the nation's top relays Drake, Kansas and Texas than all other winners over that period combined.

Their fastest time this year, a 3:13.1 at the Drake Relays, is also the nation's second best time, second only to Illinois' 3:12.8 in the same meet.

Anderson calls them the best on the basis of their 75-yard victory in the Drake meet while Illinois was being pushed by SMU's fine team.

The meet is the first ever run at A&M under the lights and will be completed in an hour and a half. The 220-yd. dash and hurdles will not be run out of the chute but around the turn since there are no lights on the chute. Field events will open the meet at 7:30 p.m. with the first track event scheduled to start at 8 p.m. and the mile relay to close the meet at 9:30 p.m.

ACC and North Texas rank third and fourth in Texas as track power, topped only by Texas and A&M this year.

SMU Beats Aggies 5-1 In Golf Finale

SMU ended the Aggies' 1954 SWC golf campaign with a 5-1 defeat of the Cadets in Dallas yesterday.

The Aggies have one remaining meet, the Conference tournament May 14-15 in Waco.

In other conference links matches, Texas slid past TCU 3 1/2-2 1/2 in those teams' final match of the season yesterday in Fort Worth.
