

A&M Mothers Club Meets Here Saturday

The annual meeting of the state Federation of A & M Mothers clubs will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday in the assembly room of the Memorial Student Center.

It will be preceded by a coffee from 9 to 10 a. m. in rooms 2A and 2B sponsored by the Brazos county A&M Mothers club.

The state executive board will meet at 2 p. m. Friday at the center. Plans will be made at that time for the election at the meeting Saturday.

To complete the weekend, President and Mrs. David H. Morgan will be hosts to visiting parents at a tea Sunday sponsored by the Brazos county club. It will be held from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Mrs. Spencer Buchanan is chairman for the Saturday coffee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Armstrong Price, who will take care of flower arrangements.

Mrs. Ide P. Trotter, new Brazos county president, and Mrs. A. C. Magee, outgoing president, will preside at the coffee service. Coffee and Danish pastry will be served.

Hostesses for the morning are Mesdames H. W. Barlow, O. A. Ashworth, W. L. Penberthy, D. W. Williams, T. W. Leland, E. C. Klipple, Charles LaMotte and Fred Weick.

The business meeting at 10 a. m. Saturday will be presided over by Mrs. Gus A. Becker of Mirando City, state federation president.

Mrs. Morgan, honorary president, will give greetings, followed by special music presented by a quartet from the singing cadets. Guest speaker for the meeting is Morgan.

After the business meeting and committee reports, the 1954-55 officers will be installed by Mrs. M. T. Harrington.

AVMA Sponsors Country Dance

The American Veterinary Medicine association auxiliary is sponsoring a country dance at 8 p. m. Saturday at Shiloh hall on South highway 6.

The dance is to raise money to send a student wife delegate to the national AVMA convention to be held in July at Seattle, Wash.

Frank Sims, president-elect of the student chapter of the AVMA is the student delegate to be sent by that organization. Robbie Sims, his wife, has been chosen as delegate from the AVMA auxiliary.

Prizes, donated by drug and surgical supply houses, will be given away during the evening.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Judson Holt, 6-3082, and Mrs. Dick Hull, 6-1463. Price is $1 stag or couple.

Mental Hygiene Main Speech Topic

Mrs. Mable Sewall, Hogg Mental Hygiene Foundation representative, was the principal speaker at the Child Study club meeting yesterday morning at 9:30.

Mrs. Sewall spoke on "A child's development into a well adjusted adult".

The meeting was held in Mrs. Bardin Nelson's home. Mrs. Bruce Zobel and Mrs. Melvin Brooks were co-hostesses.

Hi, SCHOOL

Plans have been made for the Night of Music to be held at the A&M Consolidated high school gym at 8 p. m. May 14.

The high school band and chorus and several small ensembles and soloists will present a variety of music.

Jimmy Bond, Janet Folweiler and Jean Ann Smith will sing solo parts.

The theme of the program is 1953-54 in review, from football season to graduation.

The band and chorus will present outstanding numbers of the year and will combine to present a tribute to Sigmund Romberg.

The entire group will close the program with "Some Call It America."

Tickets go on sale Monday. They can be bought from any of the performers or at the high school office. Price is 50¢ and 25¢.

Senior superlatives chosen last week are Fred Anderson, Carolyn Landiss, David Bonnen, Martha Williams, Janice Latimer, Pinky Conner, Penny Laverty and Robert Cleland.

The titles of each of these superlatives will be announced in the high school annual when it appears.

Thursday night there will be a bingo party honoring Penny Laverty, graduating senior. It will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Vaden at 8 p. m.

All senior girls are invited.

Marian Gaddis was honored last Saturday at a coke party given by Mrs. Dan Davis and Mrs. Ray Oden at the Davis home.

Guest were the girls in the senior class.

R. L. Boone's 10-2 class will sponsor the annual sports day at the high school May 14.

Each on the seven home rooms are nominating candidates for sports day queen. The candidate that gets the most votes at a penny a vote will become queen.

The class getting the most points in sports events will also receive votes toward its candidate.

Events include sack race, three-legged race, ping pong throw, girl's shot put, wheelbarrow race, chinning, softball throw and four-legged race.

The queen will be presented during the day's events, and she and her court will preside over the day.

Mrs. Eugene Rush and Mrs. A. D. Folweiler will honor the senior class with a party at the Rush home at 4 p. m. Saturday.

The senior girls are invited.

Plans are being made for the senior trip to Mission Valley in New Braunfels.

The tentative date has been set for May 26.

Church Council Plans Luncheon

The May fellowship luncheon of the College Station Council of Church Women will be held at 1 p. m. Friday at the A&M Presbyterian church.

The annual luncheon is to further fellowship among church women of the community.

Those planning to attend should bring a salad of some kind and 25 cents to cover the cost of bread, coffee and sweets.

Hostesses for the luncheon are the women from the A&M Presbyterian church. Mrs. E. B. Middleton is general chairman. A nursery will be provided for the children.

Mrs. W. H. Badgett will give a party for Sandra Couch at the Badgett home at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Several of Sandra's friends and their dates have been invited.

The junior plays will be presented at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the high school gym.

There are two one act plays, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" and "Wildcat Willie Gets Girl Trouble."

Tickets are on sale from cast members and at the high school office. Prices are 50 and 25 cents.

Mrs. David H. Morgan will be the guest speaker for the junior-senior banquet May 15 at the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center.

This banquet will mark the 10 anniversary of the presentation of the gavel from the president of the senior class to the president of the junior class.

Several merit awards were discussed at the last meeting of the student council, and a tentative list of requirements was drawn up.

The council suggested perfect attendance, highest scholastic standing in class, outstanding club workers, outstanding athlete in each sport, outstanding person in band and chorus, Interscholastic Literary league winners, outstanding home room leadership and best mannered boy and girl.

The list was submitted to J. J. Skrivanek, high school principal, for consideration.

FHA President Given Gavel

Marilyn Floeck, outgoing president of the Future Homemakers of America, was presented with a silver gavel at the annual Mother-Daughter banquet last night at the A&M Consolidated school cafeteria.

The program was opened by the president. Welcome to the guests was extended by Marian Gaddis, first vice president.

Response was given by one of the three chapter mothers, Mrs.

A. M. Gaddis. Invocation was given by Clair Rogers, chapter song leader.

The dinner was then served by members of the eighth grade home-making class.

Tables were decorated with red ribbon intertwined with honeysuckle, and all the decorations carried out a red and white color scheme. At each table red and white silhouettes of mothers and daughters carried out the theme of the decorations.

The head table was centered with an arrangement of red verbena.

Chairman for the program was Elsie Richards. Jean Ann Smith and Janet Folweiler presented musical numbers.

Degrees were then presented by Carolyn Landiss, second vice president, to five of the members. Jean Puddy received a junior degree, and Anna Beaty, Elsie Richards, Bonnie Carrol and Sandra Couch were awarded chapter degrees.

The chapter mothers were introduced by Anna Beaty, incoming president. They received silver FHA thimbles. They are Mrs. Jim Beaty, Mrs. Gaddis and Mrs. S. S. Floeck.

Transfer Deadline Set For June 1

Parents who wish to transfer their children to A&M Consolidated school from other school districts should do so on or before June 1, said L. S. Richardson, superintendent.

In past years, transfers were permitted during the summer months, but the last session of the legislature set the date as June 1, he said.

Transfers may be made by coming to my office, Richardson said.

Dr. Leipper Elected Prexy

Dr. Dale F. Leipper, head of the oceanography department, was elected president of the Educational commission of the A&M Consolidated school district at the annual meeting in the CHS cafeteria Monday.

Mrs. Phillip Goode was elected vice president and Mrs. Raymond Rogers was elected secretary-treasurer.

The main speakers were Dr. Joseph Griggs, superintendent of schools at Huntsville; and B. H. Dewey jr., state representative, 44th representative district.

Griggs spoke on "Legislation, Past and Future, Which Will Affect Our Public Schools".

Dewey's topic was "Legislation Enacted by the 53th Legislature Pertaining to Our Public Schools".

A German band and flute group from A&M Consolidated High presented a short musical program.

Members of the band included Mickey Williamson, Ann Williamson, Tom Ivy, Nancy Smith and Ernest Tanzer.

The flute group consisted of Ann Williamson, Mary Varvell and John Harrington.
