

A FAMILY AFFAIR!

Budgeting is everybody's business... from small fry to senior partners in the family "firm." Only when all agree on HOW MUCH to set aside for WHAT, does the family budget begin to make sense... and save dollars! The cooperative efforts of all concerned actually makes budgeting like a game... in which the winning develop ity winds up on the winning side. Budgeting families quickly develop a keen sense of values. They have a way of insisting on the MOST for their money in everything they buy. That's all to the good... especially for us. Because we have a way of making our customers' dollars go further and buy more in everything we sell. Check our prices on anything, any time, and you'll see exactly what we meant!
