

FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mrs. Phillip Goode

(Ed. note—Guest editor for today's column is Sara June Goode, wife of Phillip Goode of the business administration department. The Goode's have four daughters, Sara Phyllis, 12, Marcy, 10, Julie, 7, and Celia, 3. The three older girls are students at A&M Consolidated school. Mrs. Goode is the organist at the A&M Christian church. Also active in school activities, she is the new vice president of the Educational commission and a member of the A&M Consolidated Mothers and Dads club.)

I do not mean to mix advice to the lovelorn with this cooking column but the two are inseparable in my mind as I am an advocate of the theory that a straight and narrow path runs directly from man's stomach to his heart. Since we women spend our lives trying to please them we might as well follow the simple easy directions on the package.

Rule 1 is "Never introduce a controversial subject to a hungry man." My husband is instantly soothed into an affirmative state of mind by the following spaghetti recipe.

Italian Spaghetti and Meat Balls

- |                                 |                                 |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 2 chopped onions                | 2 eggs                          |
| 2 chopped cloves of garlic      | 2 slices of stale bread         |
| 1 small can of mushrooms        | 1 teaspoon parsley flakes       |
| 1/4 cup salad oil               | 1 teaspoon salt                 |
| 3/4 can (46 ounce) tomato juice | 1/2 teaspoon pepper             |
| 1 can tomato paste              | 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce |
| 1 pound ground meat             |                                 |

Saute onions, garlic and mushrooms in salad oil. When golden brown add tomato juice and tomato paste. Fill the paste can with water to rinse it and add that. Season with salt and pepper and simmer with a lid on for about three hours. In the meantime prepare meat balls as follows: mix ground meat (beef or hamburger according to your current financial state) with eggs, bread, grated or soaked in water and squeezed dry, parsley flakes, salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Mix into balls and brown in salad oil and add to sauce for last hour of cooking. Serve the meat balls and sauce with long, thin spaghetti cooked in the usual manner and grated Parmesan cheese.

Potato Ice Box Rolls

Most men love hot rolls and the following recipe I use for both dinner rolls and all sorts of sweet rolls.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 3/4 pounds mealy potatoes, boiled and mashed (about one cup). | 1 cup of milk scald with 1/2 cup shortening - cool.                |
| I always use left over mashed potatoes.                       | 2 eggs beaten with 5 tablespoons of sugar and 2 1/2 teaspoons salt |
| 1 cake yeast dissolved in 1/2 cup warm water                  |  |

Beat in yeast, milk, shortening and potatoes. Knead in 5 1/2 cups flour. Place in greased bowl for 24 hours in refrigerator. When I make this into Parkerhouse rolls, I roll out the dough and cut it with a biscuit cutter and then stretch each roll gently and fold slightly off center and put the shorter side down. This keeps them from opening as they rise. I use lavish amounts of melted shortening in the pan and sometimes turn the rolls over in the shortening if I'm feeling thin.

Let rise covered with a cloth for about one hour.

Rich but luscious!

Sweet rolls are easily made from this by spreading the dough with dots of butter, white sugar and cinnamon. Roll into a long roll; slice in 1 1/2 inch slices and place in pans which have been coated with the following mixture:

- |                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| 1/4 pound margarine | 1/3 cup white Karo cooked over low heat until butter is melted. |
| 1 cup brown sugar   |   |
- This may be sprinkled with chopped pecans. Let rise for one hour. Bake both dinner rolls and sweet rolls at 375 degrees for about twenty minutes.

Refrigerator Cookies (Aunt Lida)

Rule 2 for pleasing men is for girls who are still in the "catching" stage. When the competition gets stiff and all else fails bring out a plate of cookies you baked with your own little hands. My husband swears this is how I trapped him. (It wasn't just a trick. I've been cooking three "hots" a day ever since.) This is the homespun little recipe I used.

- |   |                         |
|---|-------------------------|
| 2 cups brown sugar                              | 4 cups sifted flour     |
| 1 cup margarine                                 | 1 teaspoon cream tarter |
| 2 eggs  | 1 cup nuts              |
| 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in one teaspoon water |                         |
- Shape into rolls, chill and slice thin and bake at 350 degrees for 10 - 12 minutes.

Good hunting, girls!

Walton Speaks To Ag Ed Wives

E. V. Walton spoke to the agricultural education wives at their meeting Tuesday night in the Memorial Student Center.

Walton, head of the agricultural education department, told them the duties of vocational agricultural teachers' wives.

Refreshments were served and the department presented secretaries with a gift in appreciation of their work.

Mulled cider is delicious to serve with a snack on a cool night. Heat the cider with brown sugar to taste and a dash of cinnamon, cloves and allspice. If you use a stick of cinnamon and whole cloves and allspice, strain the cider before serving. If you use ground spices, straining is not necessary.

The Dames club elected Dorothy Brown president at their meeting Tuesday night.

Other officers selected were Olga Cech, vice president; Marge Parsley, treasury; Louise Longenecker, secretary; Pat Henderson, social secretary; and Virginia Ridings, reporter.

Hostesses for the meeting were Dorothy Brown and Louise Longenecker.
