Penberthy Party To Cards Smother Roberts; Take Easy 8-0 Win

A&M's vote to table the problem of Texas Tech's entry into the Southwest conference until the December meeting of the conference's faculty committee was the deciding one in Waco Saturday.

The faculty committee, which decides upon entrance of new members, turned down Oklahoma and failed to decide on University of Houston, whose motion was not seconded.

A&M Reverses Vote

Dean of Men Walter Penberthy, A&M's representative to the SWC group, could not be reached for comment after the meeting, according to reports. His vote was a reversal of A&M's position last year, at which time the A&M delegate voted for Tech.

Reason for the reversal is thought to be worry on A&M's part over recruiting of West Texas high school players.

Other conference schools against allowing Tech to enter were SMU, Rice and Arkansas. In favor of admitting Tech were Texas, TCU and Baylor.

Select Meet Sites

In other business, the conference committee selected the site of the 1954 cross country meet (A&M), abolished the half-a-game-won, half-a-game-lost ruling in baseball in cases where a playoff game would have a bearing on the conference championship; made

Rice the home school for the 1955 conference track, golf and tennis tournament unless a national television bid is received, in which case the site will be Austin.

A&M Called Down

A&M was censured by the committee for allowing an alumnus to loan former Freshman football player John (Sonny) Ray money with which to buy a car. Ray, if he returns to A&M, will lose a year of eligibility. He left school at the end of last semester for scholastic reasons.

Cards Smother Roberts; Take Easy 8-0 Win

PHILADELPHIA, May 17 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals drove Robin Roberts to cover tonight with an assortment of extra base hits, including three homers, and coasted to a 8-0 win over the Philadelphia Phillies. Earlier, the Phillies put a Sunday curfew-curtailed twin bill nighttime into the record books to the tune of 8-4.

Joe Presko went the distance for the Cards in the regular game, winning his third without a setback. Roberts was charged with the loss, his fourth against the same number of wins.

Roberts, who hurled a one-hitter his last time out, didn't have his stuff tonight. The first Cardinal to face him, rookie leftfielder Wally Moon, an Aggie-ex, hit a homer into the leftfield stands. From that point on to the fifth, Roberts looked a little more like the puzzling righthander he usually is.

In the preliminary carry-over game, Murray Dickson held the Cards in check for the three innings while his teammates scored a pair of runs to one for the Cards.

In the last eight years five golfers have won the U. S. Open. They are Ben Hogan four times, Julius Boros, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Lew Worsham and Lloyd Mangrum.

CHS in Bi-District Game at Huntsville

By CLIFTON BATES
Consolidated Correspondent

A&M Consolidated's Tigers play Woodville today in a bi-district game at Huntsville as a result of beating Cypress-Fairbanks 13-1 Friday and winning the district 51-B title.

In the Cypress game, Pinky Cooner, Tiger hurler pitched his ninth straight win on 13 strikeouts and five walks for his third one-hitter. Cooner has also pitched two no-hit games.

The Tigers won all five of their district games, Cooner winning three and Pete Hickman two. The game with Woodville is as far as the Tigers will go in baseball this year. Class B district teams go no further than bi-district playoffs.

Hickman was leading hitter in the Cypress game with three hits, four runs and three RBIs. Every CHS player but Cooner hit in the Cypress match. Cypress-Fairbanks got their run in the fifth inning on three walks, a passed ball and a fielders choice. Cooner walked in the run.

Negro schools are named J. B. Carroll, Bobby Carter and William Arnold each had two hits for four official at-bats. Carroll scored two runs on one RBI. He leads in runs scored for the season with 24, is batting .450 for the season and .500 for the district to lead Tiger batsmen. Arnold finished the season with a .395 at the plate and Hickman was third with a .325.

Woodville has a 6-1 season record. The Tigers' is 13-0.

Ag Thinclads Nearly Always Are On Top

The Texas Aggie weights team has won the Southwest conference shot put championship 22 of the last 23 years.

A&M is the only Southwest conference school whose shot putters have ever gone past 50 feet. The leading weights man this year, Bobby Gross, has improved nearly four feet since last year's SWC meet. In 1953, Gross put the shot 48-11½. In Waco Saturday, he did 52-4.

Two other Aggies turned in outstanding performances at Waco. They are sophomores Tom Bonorden and Harry Cox. As a freshman last year, Bonorden was beaten by shot men from four other SWC schools. Not one of those men has approached him in distance this year. His improvement has been more than 10 feet.

But the big surprise took place Saturday in Waco when Cox, a 6-3 sophomore from Vera, pushed the 16-pound ball 47 feet. His previous best distance was around 32. Cox' showing insures the Aggies at least the first three places next year.

Another help next year in the weights will be freshman Herman Johnson, who has done 49 feet already and is expected by Frank G. (Col. Andy) Anderson, Aggie coach, to best 50 next year.

Detroit Agog Over Williams' Batting Show

DETROIT—May 17 (AP) The city of Detroit—famed for cars and Ty Cobb—was still buzzing today over the wonderful batting exploits of Ted Williams.

Players, managers, sports writers, the milkman, your neighbor next door—just about everybody—still spoke in awed tones of Williams' one-man show Sunday in a double header against the Detroit Tigers.

Hits Eight for Nine

Playing with a pained shoulder, the 35-year-old outfielder of the Boston Red Sox returned to regular duty and lashed out eight hits in nine times at bat—including two home runs. He scored three times and knocked in seven runs.

"That was one of the greatest shows I have ever seen," said Williams' manager, Lou Boudreau.

"With the big guy back in the lineup, it's bound to improve morale on this club."

"The Greatest"

"I've never seen anything like it," added Red Sox Coach Del Baker, "and I've seen some great players, including Musial and DiMaggio. He's just the greatest, that's all. Anybody who can hit like that without spring training has to be the greatest."
