Chese and Sour Cream Pie

This recipe was given to me by Mrs. M. Greenspun of Fort Worth. It has an unusual flavor and makes an excellent dessert.

- Filling
2 eggs
½ cup sugar
4 pkgs. cream cheese (3 oz.)
- Crust
12 to 16 double graham crackers
¾ cup sugar
½ stick butter
1 teaspoon cinnamon
- Topping
1 pint sour cream
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat eggs and gradually add ½ cup sugar until light and creamy. Cut softened cheese into small pieces, add to egg mixture and beat until smooth with no lumps.

Then make graham cracker crust and put in the bottom of well-greased nine-inch cake pan. Cover with egg mixture.

Bake in 375 degree oven for about 20 minutes. Then take out and let cool.

Combine all ingredients for topping and mix for one minute. Pour over baked cheese and return to oven for seven to ten minutes. Chill and serve.

Party Cheese Dip

Here's one that's hard to stop eating. This recipe makes enough for about 25 guests, depending on how much they eat.

- 1 cup cottage cheese
1 pkg. cream cheese (3 oz.)
½ cup processed cheese
1 tablespoon mayonaisse
- ½ teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons onion
¾ cup olives

Soften cheeses, chop onions and olives. Dump everything into electric mixer and gradually work up to fastest speed. Beat until fairly smooth and serve surrounded by potato chips, puffs, and assorted crackers.

The flavor can be changed to suit individual tastes by varying the sharpness of the processed cheese used.

Here's one that was given to me by my husband's mother. I don't know the name so I'll just call it . . .

Mrs. Rubin's Coffee Cake

- ¾ cup sugar
1½ cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
milk
1/3 cup crisco

Topping

- ¾ cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 heaping tablespoon butter

Beat egg in measuring cup and add milk to fill to one cup. Sift together dry ingredients and combine with egg and Crisco and mix well. Pour into small baking pan.

Mix together topping ingredients and sprinkle generously over cake. Bake for 45 minutes in 375 degree oven. Perfect for Sunday breakfast.

Pineapple Chiffon Pie

- 4 eggs
¾ cup sugar
1 envelope plain gelatin
1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 small can crushed pineapple
graham crackers
½ stick butter (approx.)
¼ cup water

Soak gelatin in water for five minutes. Separate eggs. Cook yolks, pineapple, ¼ cup sugar and lemon juice. Boil slowly, stirring constantly until thick. Add gelatin and let cool. Beat whites of eggs with remaining ¼ cup sugar. Make graham cracker crust with crackers and butter. Line bottom and sides of well-greased nine-inch pie plate with crust. Gently fold yolk mixture into stiffened egg whites. Pour into crust. Cool and serve.

Combined with iced tea or coffee, this makes an excellent hot weather dessert.

With Luncheon

Extensioners Close Year

The Extension Service club held an outdoor luncheon and fashion show Wednesday at the Oaks for the closing meeting of the year. The meeting was opened with grace led by Mrs. Fred C. Elliot.

Mrs. W. S. Allen, program chairman, introduced Mary Routh, extension clothing specialist, who narrated the style show presented by The Fashion shop.

Models were Mrs. L. B. Boughton, Mrs. B. G. Hancock, Mrs. Bobby Lawrence and Mrs. Travis Bryan Jr.

Featured in the style show were all types of summer wearing apparel including sportswear and after-five dresses.

Following the luncheon Mrs. W. J. Moore, out-going president, thanked the committee members and officers for their work during the year. She then held installation of officers.

New officers are Mrs. John E. Hutchison, president; Mrs. Allen, vice president; Mrs. H. H. Broach, treasurer; Mrs. L. B. Boughton, recording secretary; Mrs. A. H. Karcher, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Fred Walker reporter.

In accepting the office, Mrs. Hutchison said, "We intend to do every job during the club year to the very best of our ability, and we think it only fair to warn you that we'll have fun while we are doing it."

Guests attending the luncheon and fashion show included Mesdames M. T. Harrington, Charles N. Shepardson, W. C. Adams, Robert Craig, Josh Enzie, Armstrong Price, Stanley Haver, R. E. Snuggs and Raymond Reiser.

Mrs. Craig Entertains Study Club Officers

Mrs. Robert N. Craig entertained the new officers of the Campus Study club at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon.

Following the luncheon, a short business meeting and a get-acquainted session was held. Plans for next year were discussed at that time.

Those present were Mesdames R. M. Sherwood, E. H. Brock, Miss Genevieve DeWorth, Mesdames Carl M. Lyman, P. T. Montfort, E. B. Reynolds and Robert F. Smith.

The luncheon was served to foursomes on tables covered with yellow and white linen. Each place was marked by a corsage of iris blossoms.

The buffet table was covered with a white cut-work linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white shasta daisies and peach and yellow gladioli.

Polio Cases Decreasing In College Station Area

Polio seems to be on the decrease in the College Station - Bryan area. So far this spring one case has been reported compared with six this time last year. Rhonda Breedlove, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Breedlove of B-11-D College View, was diagnosed last week as the first polio case here this year. She was sent to the Children's hospital in Houston, and from there she will be taken to the polio center. "She had a comparatively light case, and her legs were affected slightly. She is recovering nicely," said Dr. J. E. Marsh Jr., college doctor.
