three walks, and one un fifth inning along pitching of C. E. Salmon dorm 15 needed in 1 win over dorm 14 me of softball intra-

To start off the game, Venincasa, Papacek, and Gray filled up the bases for dorm 14, but Salmon tightened up and no runs crossed the plate. Wuenchie retired the side in order the first time dorm 15 went to bat. The second inning provided three runs for dorm 14, as Randall, Wuenchie, and Taack scored on two hits and two errors. Dorm 15 was held intact in the second.

Both pitchers bore down for the next two innings, and there was no score in the game until the fifth inning, when Dorm 15 produced its winning margin. Minyard started off and got on at first on an error; Flourney walked, Salmon walked, then Durdin brought in two with a hit to center.

Marek followed with another hit, scoring another run. Rector struck out, then Smith walked. On a slow grounder to short, Dedeker was out at first, another run scoring. Kester then laid a perfect hit, two more runs scoring.

THAT'S THE BOOK!

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — City Clerk Byrd Sims took his 10-year-old daughter to City Court with him to watch traffic case proceedings. She spied a copy of the city's ordinance code on the judge's desk and asked: "Daddy, is that the book the judge throws at you if you speed in school zones?"

'Shine Ball' Can't Beat Democrats

ON — (AP) — Neither chased a nor the Republicans aircraft scared when they heads in other Tuesday night months an d. On the other Those dly have trouble run-shells, ab-

Herlong said the Republicans have come up with a secret weapon, "the Shine ball." But he said the Democrats aren't afraid of it.

The Florida Democrat said the "Shine ball" is a new pitch invented by Representative Davis of Wisconsin, who pitches for the Republicans.

"It's thrown," Herlong said, "by taking a considerable dab of butter and putting a wad of it on the ball. I understand they have a considerable supply of butter in Wisconsin."

Beaten Mainstay

Bishop, who at 63 is baseball's oldest playing manager, noted that the Republicans had licked the Democrats' pitching mainstay, Representative Wheeler of Georgia, in a practice game at Daytona Beach last April, 7 to 3.

"We have taken the fire out of Firefall Wheeler," he said, "and we can do it again."

Rep. Olin Teague of Texas will play second base for the Dems.
