Little League

Orioles Take Lead On Three Game Win Spree

By MAURICE OLIAN
Battalion Sports Writer

Through the first week of play in the second half of the local Little League schedule, the Student Co-Op Orioles have gotten off on a flying start to capture first place.

The Orioles, on three well pitched games, have compiled a 3-0 record. The Black's Pharmacy Senators, V. F. W. Red Sox, and Marion Pugh Lumber Company White Sox, are tied for the other three positions in the league, each with one win and two losses.

The Orioles' Jud Rogers turned in the best pitching performance of the week, throwing a no-hitter against the Senators. This was the third no-hitter pitched in College Station Little League play this season. Previous masterpieces were hurled by Billy Mac Miller of the Orioles and the White Sox' Condy Pugh.

Individual statistics through the Saturday game show Donald Thomas as leading hitter with a mark of .481. Thomas plays first base for the league-leading Orioles.

Mark Luther of the White Sox and Tommy Bramble of the Red Sox are second and third respectively in the batting race. Luther is traveling at a 412 clip, while Bramble is close behind with .406.

The Senators supply the fourth and fifth leading batters in the league. Larry Lewis, .400, is fourth, and Jim Fowler, .389, holds down the fifth spot.

In hits, Luther, Thomas, and Bramble are the top three. Bramble, the White Sox' Danny Feldman, and Condy Pugh are the leaders in the runs scored department. The big guns in runs-batted-in are Luther, Pugh, Thomas, and Bramble.

Thomas also leads in doubles and triples. Pugh is running away with the home run title.

The top pitchers, percentage-wise, are Larry Godfrey of the Red Sox, and Bramble. Each boy has a perfect 1.000 slate. Next is Joel Mills of the White Sox with .750. He is followed by the Orioles' Bobby Adams, .667, and Luther, .600.
