

Dorm 14 Still Unbeaten In Intramural Softball

Dorm 14 still continues undefeated in intramural softball play, as they scored two wins last week to chalk up their fifth victory. They beat College View and dorm 16.

In other games last week, dorm 16 beat dorm 15, 20-10, and College View beat dorm 15, 18-17.

Dorm 14 started the week by dropping College View, 7-4. It was the fifth win for dorm 14's Grissom, who has pitched his team to victory in all their games.

Jochen, the first baseman for the winners, led in hitting with three safe hits in four tries.

Grissom faced 28 men, struck out two, walked four, and gave up four hits.

Hamm was credited with the loss for CV. He faced 33 men, gave up nine hits, struck out three and walked none.

Dorm 16 crawled all over dorm 15 to hand them a whopping 20-10 defeat the next night. It was 16's second win and 15's fifth loss.

Bobo Smith, the losing pitcher, set up an unenviable record as he walked 21 of the 38 men up to the plate. Hits were scarce for dorm 16, so the walks helped.

Smith gave up only four hits, but he just couldn't get the ball across the plate.

Indians, Braves May Beat Out New York

NEW YORK (CP)—The Cleveland Indians and the Milwaukee Braves, playing the hottest baseball in the majors, are threatening to break this big city's stranglehold on the World Series.

Not since 1948—six years ago when Cleveland edged these same Braves, then from Boston, 4 to 2—has there been an autumn classic without one of the three New York teams—Yankees, Dodgers and Giants.

Generally, there have been two. The Yanks have been in on the last five series, winning them all. Brooklyn has been in three, the Giants and the Philadelphia Phillies one each.

Now Cleveland, playing at a terrific pace to stand off mounting Yankee pressure, is leading the American League by three games. And the Milwaukee Braves, with a tremendous surge, are threatening to steal the National League flag right from under the noses of the Giants and Dodgers.

Not counting Monday night's Brooklyn game, the only one in the major, the Braves were just three and one-half games off the pace. They are riding a nine-game winning streak and brimming with confidence.

There seems little to choose in the way of the remaining schedule. The championships will go to those teams able to put together a solid winning streak.

The Yankees must be getting a bit discouraged trying to close the gap between them and Cleveland. They have a seven-game winning streak going yet Sunday lost a half-game to the pace setters.
