Former Aggie Will Serve As A&M Church Minister

Bob Davidson, a native of Port Arthur and a former Aggie, will serve this year as the Church of Christ minister to A&M students, according to James F. Fowler, minister of the A&M Church of Christ.

Davidson will teach the Aggie Bible class, meeting for the first time this Sunday in the YMCA chapel.

His other duties will include student counseling and conducting training classes on Sunday and Wednesday nights at the church. The classes will be open to students of all faiths.

Davidson came to A&M on a football scholarship and served with Glenn Lippman as co-captain of the '48 freshman team. He then transferred to Abilene Christian College to major in Bible.

After graduating from ACC in 1952, Davidson was connected with one of the churches of Christ in the New York City area, working mostly with young people.

The Church... For a Fuller Life... For You...

WHY? WHY? WHY?

It is such a little word, yet she uses it so often... particularly when she is alone, and thinking to herself. For it seems, then, as if there are so many questions and so few answers.

She tells herself that she isn't unhappy. She is young and attractive, has a family and friends, and enough material things to satisfy her wants. Yet there is something lacking, something that makes her restless when she should be at peace, enjoying the bounty of some of the best years of her life. Why, she asks herself. Why?

The answer is a simple one. There is something lacking in her life... there is a void. She hasn't found the basic faith that can answer her questions. She needs the spiritual background that the Church alone can give her. And until she finds this—she will still be asking, "Why?"

Do you ask yourself "Why?" too?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
