Jewish Women Meet Thursday At Mrs. Kleins

The Jewish Women's Club of College Station and Bryan held its first business meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Sol Klein, 1401 Bennett, Thursday.

A program for the year was presented and accepted.

Teachers will be selected for the Sunday school which will begin in October after the High Holidays.

High Holiday services are being held jointly with the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation of A&M, and are being conducted by Jewish students and members of the Jewish congregation.

New Year's (Rosh Hashana) services were held Monday night and this morning at Temple Freda.

Atonement Day (Yom Kippur) services will be held Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 7 and 8, at 9:30 a.m.

Oneg Sabbath will follow the Rosh Hashana services and a Break-Fast, which is sponsored by the club, will be given at the close of Atonement Day for students and participants of the services.

The same arrangements will be held for Sukkot services, Oct. 15.

Next meeting of the club will be on Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. Jake Davidoff, 109 Cavitt.

Groneman Named To Magazine Staff

Chris Groneman, head of the Industrial Education department, has been invited to serve on the editorial committee for School Shop magazine for four years.

CE Wives Club To Be Organized

A new club, the Civil Engineering Wives Club, will be organized Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. James B. Baty, 600 Jersey South in College Station.

Time of the meeting is 7:45. A committee to form a constitution will be appointed and officers will be elected.

Wives of civil engineering majors are eligible to join the club.

Mrs. Lawrence A. DuBose and Mrs. S. R. Wright will be Mrs. Baty's co-hostesses.

Women living in College View who would like transportation to the first meeting may call Mrs. Mary Lou Hughes, 6-3444, or Mrs. Mary Mackin, 6-3446.

When you are broiling bacon, it's a good idea to use a rack in a shallow pan. Place the fat edge of each slice so it overlaps the lean edge of another slice. Broil several inches from source of heat about three minutes on each side, turning once.

WE NEED A NAME!

... And we want students of Texas A&M to give it to us. The Campus Confectionary, next to the Campus theater, is now under new management, and the new owner will give a $5 prize to the student who submits the best suggestion for a new name. Just drop your suggestions by the restaurant. The winner will be announced in The Battalion.
