

Department Heads Entertain Staffs

Two A&M departments were honored with open house celebrations Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Klipple honored new members of the mathematics department staff at their home at 117 Pershing, and Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Jensen received members of the chemistry department staff into their home at 204 Suffolk.

About 60 guests were received at the door of the Klipple home by Helen Klipple. Dr. and Mrs. Klipple introduced new staff members to the other guests.

Mrs. W. L. Potter served cake, and Mrs. John Hillman and Mrs. B. C. Moore alternated at the crystal punch bowl.

A decorating theme of maroon and white was carried out throughout the house.

An oval centerpiece of maroon coxcomb and princess feathers was used with the white embroidered linen cloth on the dining table.

The floral arrangement was made by Mrs. R. R. Lyle.

Approximately 100 chemistry department staff members and graduate students and wives attended open house given by Dr. and Mrs. Jensen.

White and orchid chrysanthemums were the floral decorations in the home and on the tea table. Green candles in silver holders accented the white linen cutwork cloth.

Flowers were furnished by Mrs. C. Winfield Burchard, and arranged by Mrs. E. B. Middleton.

At the tea table were Mrs. G. M. Watson and Mrs. A. F. Isbel. Alternating were Mrs. C. K. Hancock and Mrs. Middleton.

Guests were invited to the serving table by Mrs. W. M. Potts and Mrs. T. S. Burkhalter.

A New Kind Of Roll Flavoring

If you like your rolls with mustard and tabasco sauce, go ahead and follow Thursday's Family Favorites recipe faithfully.

You see, we made a mistake. A line that said "Add a dash of Tabasco sauce and 1 1/2 tablespoons of dark mustard" was under the recipe for refrigerator rolls, when it should have been under the recipe for shrimp remoulade.

We're sorry, but maybe those rolls would taste good with the added flavoring.

Social Whirl

7:30 p.m. Architectural Wives society will meet in the South Solarium of the YMCA for election of officers.

Thursday
8 p.m. American Veterinary Medicine association student wives auxiliary meets in the social room of the MSC.

Officials Question Fort Bliss Charge

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 29—(AP)—Ft. Bliss officials began an investigation of a charge by a Negro congressman that the Army post permits racial discrimination.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., R-N.Y., said in New York that he had complained of the alleged discrimination in a telegram to President Eisenhower.

A Ft. Bliss spokesman said authorities will investigate and added: "We do not condone any segregation or discrimination at Ft. Bliss." He also said that there is no segregation in service clubs, officers' clubs, barracks, housing areas or anywhere else on the post.

Powell sent the following telegram to the President: "I have just discovered segregation and discrimination at Fort Bliss, Tex., 591st Military Police Squad. An order was posted September 21 'for Caucasians only.' In the event that this is denied, I have just procured the original order signed by the company commander and will be happy to turn this over to you."

HI, SCHOOL

Student council officers were elected at the organization's first meeting Monday.

Clifton Bates, president of the student body, will be assisted by Vice President J. B. Carroll, Recording Secretary Eugenia Rush, Treasurer Lucy Rogers, Corresponding Secretary Anna Parson, and Reporter Betsy Burchard.

Selection of class officers was completed Tuesday. The senior homerooms jointly elected Henry Phillips, president; George Litton, vice president; Martha Blum, treasurer; Jean Puddy and Anna Bready, secretaries; Eugenia Rush, business manager; and Betsy Burchard, reporter.

Room mothers will be Mrs. J. S. Beaty, Mrs. I. G. Adams, Mrs. Bennie Marie Lewis, and Mrs. Blum. Room fathers will be Eugene Rush, and Tom Puddy.

In homeroom 9-3 Jeanette was chosen president; Jerry Holland, vice president; Amy Norcross, secretary; David McNeely, treasurer; and Carolyn Wilson, reporter.

Homeroom 11-2 did not complete their slate of officers. J. B. Carroll will serve as president and Jean Ann Smith will be vice president. Room mothers for the coming year are Mrs. R. O. Berry and Mrs. C. F. Williams.

Faye Simms was elected president; Jack McNeely, vice-president; Ann Fleming, secretary; Grant Lindsay, treasurer; and Barbara Arlt, reporter for homeroom 11-1. Mrs. J. G. McNeely and Mrs. R. L. Simms are room mothers.

In 10-2 the president is Bill Hite; vice-president, Larry Leighton; secretary, Nell Ross; treasurer, Betty Mean; and reporter, Maurice Olian. Mrs. E. J. Ross and Mrs. R. G. Phillips serve as sponsoring mothers.

Dan Davis was chosen president of 10-3. Billy Taylor will serve as vice-president, Ann Hite as secretary, Sylvia Williams as student council representative and Mrs. John Way and Mrs. Raymond Hite as room mothers.

The president of 9-1 for the coming year will be Clyde Carey. Vice-president, Mary Margaret Hieth; secretary, Mary Linda Cathcart; and treasurer, Judy Bishop; complete the slate of officers. Room mothers will be Mrs. M. S. Kavanaugh and Mrs. V. D. Thompson.

Elected to office in 9-2 are Richard Allen, president; John Hamner, vice-president; Ann Cleland, secretary; Sue Ellen Mowery, treasurer; and Christopher Kent, reporter. Representatives on the student council are Patsy Byrd and Steadman Davis. Mrs. J. E. Davis and Mrs. S. M. Cleland are room mothers.

The senior class netted $15 from the post-game dance last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Blum, and C. L. Byrd chaperoned the dance.

Another dance, sponsored by the juniors, will be held after the Hempstead game this Friday.

Donald Barker and Horace Hollingsworth, vice president and secretary of the Future Farmers of America chapter, represented CHS at the area awards dinner in Houston Sept. 23.

Also making the trip were L. S. Richardson, superintendent, and C. L. Byrd, chapter sponsor.

Four members of the FHA chapter attended the area and district council meeting in Waco last Friday.

Chapter sponsor, Mrs. C. L. Byrd, accompanied Anna Beaty, area VIII president, Jean Ann Smith, district IV song leader, Bonnie Carroll, and Elsie Richards on the trip.

The group stayed until Saturday morning for a workshop on state degrees.

Students can now buy ice cream on the terrace and soft drink machines will be installed later this week. The teachers, the student council, and the senior class will receive the revenue from the machines during the year.

Class pictures for the annual are scheduled to be taken Thursday. The seniors voted to wear caps and gowns for the pictures.

Saturday night the homemaking class of CHS will sponsor a supper-dance starting at 6:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served and the proceeds will furnish the new homemaking cottage with curtains.

The homemaking classes' project for the past few weeks has been a powder room for the gymnasium. It is done in gray and pink and has curtains and a wall-to-wall mirror.

Homecoming has been set for Oct. 15 and the Katy game. The senior class sponsors the election of a homecoming queen and the dance following the game.

Israeli Accused In Boat Attack

CAIRO, Egypt, Sept. 29—(AP)—Egypt accused a little Israeli freighter—trying to gain passage through the Suez Canal—of making an armed attack yesterday on some Egyptian fishing boats south of Suez which left three fishermen drowned and several wounded.

Officials said the Israelis opened fire with small automatic arms without provocation. Overturning of a boat was reported to have accounted for the three drowning deaths.

A spokesman for Egypt's military regime, Maj. Amin Shaker, said the 500-ton Bat Galim made the attack near Sharm El Sheikh, a village 25 miles from the southern entrance of the 100-mile-long waterway linking the Red Sea and the Mediterranean.

The vessel, flying Israel's blue and white flag, and its 10-man crew were arrested. The first Israeli-owned ship to try to get through the Suez Canal since the Arab nations set up a trade blockade against Israel, the Bat Galim was overhauled by an armed Egyptian vessel and towed into Port Tewfik Bay.

In Jerusalem, celebrating the New Year holiday Rosh Hashonah, a Foreign Ministry spokesman denied the Egyptian accusation. He declared the Bat Galim was entirely unarmed.

France Opposes Rearmament Plan

LONDON, Sept. 29—(AP)—France, thrice invaded by German hordes, yesterday proposed a seven-nation armaments authority to put the brakes on any runaway West German rearmament. The United States, Britain and Germany promptly opposed the plan.

Premier Pierre Mendes-France made the French proposal at the opening of a nine-power conference on granting West Germany sovereignty and rearming the Germans within the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Difficulties cropped up but key delegations expressed cautious optimism last night that agreements in principle may be reached by the end of the week.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer offered his own plan to the conference, calling for an end to the nearly 10 years of occupation of his country by U. S., British, and French troops. He renewed the Bonn government's offer to join NATO and an enlarged Brussels alliance in order to contribute to Western defense. He promised to limit West German rearmament to the quota fixed by the French-killed EDC unified army plan.

'Ladies Night' Honors Squadron Wives Monday

Ladies night honored wives of members of the 9807th Air Reserve squadron Monday. The affair was the first get-acquainted meeting of this sort for the squadron.

Wives present were Mrs. W. S. McCulley, Mrs. Robert W. Thrush, Mrs. Ralph E. Miller, Mrs. James L. Liverman, Mrs. John H. Porter, Mrs. Malcolm R. Smith, Mrs. Charles C. Armstrong, Mrs. Joseph N. Holmgren, Mrs. W. J. Byford, Mrs. Joe W. Mogford, Mrs. William D. Scoates, Mrs. Dan C. Lowe and Mrs. John M. Prescott.

The women were given a general picture of the squadron's training periods by a panel of staff members consisting of Lt. Col. W. S. McCulley, commanding officer;

Maj. William O. Davis, executive officer; Maj. Charles C. Armstrong, flight "A" commander; Lt. Dan C. Lowe, assistant flight "A" commander; and Capt. Richard C. Qualtrough, training officer.

Business Wives Hold Meeting

Mrs. Cynthia Allen and Mrs. Joy Jones were hostesses for the meeting of the Business Wives club Tuesday night at the YMCA.

A dance was planned for Oct. 29 to be held at Maggie Parker's dining room in Bryan.

Mrs. Allen, Jean Holcomb and Jeanette Williams were winners of the bridge games.

Next meeting will be Oct. 4 at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. T. W. Leland, 1307 E. Walton.

Jasper Hometown Club Organized

The Jasper hometown club was organized Wednesday night, the first time for Aggies from Jasper to organize here.

Officers for the new school year will be Tommy Durdin, president, Jimmy Jones, vice-president; Jerry Jones, secretary-reporter; and Jimmy Wilson, treasurer.

Nine students and one student's wife—Jasper's entire representation at A&M—were present for the organizational meeting. Those present in addition to the newly elected officers were Jimmy Pace, Herbert Minyard, Gene Easley, John Bailey, Billy McFaddin and James Byrd.
