

Joint BSU Retreat Held By A&M, Mary Hardin-B

Approximately 43 A&M and Mary Hardin-Baylor Baptist Student union members attended the joint fall retreat held at Lake Granite Shoals this past weekend. The lake is one of a chain of lakes located in the Lower Colorado River authority.

Cliff Harris, director of the A&M BSU, and Miss Dorothy Brooks, director of the Mary Hardin-Baylor BSU, were in charge of arrangements for the retreat.

R. C. Potts of the agronomy department of A&M served on a panel which discussed the problem of giving the Sunday school and training union their places.

Theme of the retreat was "Living the Life." Speakers on the subject were Dr. William Hall Preston of the department of student work, Sunday school board in Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. John Barbee, pastor of the Manor Baptist church in San Antonio.

Other speakers were the Rev. Joe W. Atchison from the Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth, Bruce Johnson, an architect from San Antonio, and Wayne Philpott, formerly Texas State BSU choir director and now minister of music.

Turk Will Study Diseases In Peru

Dr. R. D. Turk, head of the veterinary parasitology department, has been selected by the U. S. Foreign Operations Administration to study the causes of disease of cattle in Peru.

He will depart the first week in October for a 90-day tour of Peru. He will inspect and determine the specific cause of disease losses in cattle maintained by the Division of Food Supply and Nutrition, FOA, and to formulate some control measures.

Turk was selected for the assignment because conditions under which cattle exist in Peru are similar to those in many cattle raising areas of Texas.

Turk expects to return to A&M and resume his duties about Jan. 1, 1955.
