

Don Kachtik Out of Hog Game; Has Broken Nose

Starting fullback Don Kachtik will miss Saturday night's game here with undefeated Arkansas, Head Coach Paul Bryant revealed last night.

In announcing the lineup change, Bryant said, "Don Kachtik, our fine fullback, will not play against Arkansas. His nose was broken in the Baylor game. Although his attending physician said he is all right, I haven't seen him, and we have finished our preparations for Arkansas."

Asked who would replace Kachtik, A&M's leading ground gainer next to quarterback Elwood Kettler, Bryant said, "I don't know, but I'll find somebody that wants at Arkansas."

Junior Bob Easley and sophomore Bill Granberry are the other A&M fullbacks. Easley has gained 50 yards in 13 carries, Granberry 13 in 5.

Bryant also said that Russell Moake, third string center, has dropped out of school. The varsity practice session was shorter than the usual Wednesday drill because of a chalk talk. The Aggies didn't take the field until about 5:30, then divided time between offense and defense.

A norther that blew in Wednesday morning appeared to help perk up the Cadets. They hustled through a drill on Arkansas' single wing, then reviewed offensive plays. A short session on kicking extra points ended the workout.

Today the varsity probably will have a lighter workout stressing kicking, punt coverage and offense. A&M's coverage of punts has been outstanding this season, opponents having returned 22 for only 68 yards, an average of 3.1 yards per punt.

Twice A&M has recovered enemy fumbles on punts and scored. Longest return of the season was 15 yards by Texas Tech's Mack Pogue.

Assistant coach Jim Owens said the Cadets do not do anything special on covering their punts. "We just stress it a lot and take pride in it," he said. "It's timing mostly—we try to block just long enough for the kicker to get the ball off, then the whole front line goes down to cover."

Bryant's 1950 Kentucky team set the record for the least num-

Two Kitten Starters To Miss Navasota Tilt

Their chances seriously hurt by injuries to key players, A&M Consolidated junior high plays Navasota junior high at Tiger field tonight.

Kickoff time is 7:30.

Navasota, the cellar team in the district, held the Kittens to a 13-13 tie in a previous game at Navasota. Consolidated is the district's second place team with a 1-1-1 record.

The Kittens lost Sid Greer, the starting left half, in last week's 0-27 loss to Huntsville, the district leader with a 3-0 mark. Huntsville had about a 30-pound per man weight advantage.

Green suffered a broken collarbone on the first play from scrimmage. He will be replaced on offense and defense by Dee Smith.

Starting fullback Jim Wright also is definitely out because of an infected foot. He missed last week's game, too.

Wright will be replaced by Jimmy Walton on offense. John Bearrie is due to fill his defensive end spot.

Coach Horace Shaffer announced this probable offensive lineup: Bobby Ross and Kirby Jackson at ends, Benny Jackson and John Beaty at tackles, Pete Rodriguez and Royce Hickman at guards, George Carroll at center, Edgar Feldman at quarterback, Smith and Kenneth Cooner at halfbacks and Walton at fullback.

Cooner and Walton will be co-captains.

Howard Glock, 200-pound Army star from Pittsburgh, made six solo tackles, recovered a fumble on his team's 15-yard line and tossed a key block as Michigan bowed to Army 26-7.
